PERSEVERANCE REWARDED.

Twelve Years a Candidate for Office He Finally Succeeded.

A yearning for public office is nothing new. Nor, unhappily, is it anything new for men to proclaim that yearning upon the house-tops, says a writer in the "Youth's Companion." The Rev. H. W. Pierson, many years ago, found in the Southwestern part of the country a large class of potential office seekers. Once he heard a speech from a man who had been a candidate for the state office for twelve years in succession. Every year he had canvassed the county, making speeches in every neighborhood. Dr. Pierson prints a part of the speech which he himself heard:

"I ask you to vote for me as an encouragement to the poor boys of the county, that I may be an example to them; that they may point to me and say: 'There is a man who was once as poor as any of us, who has been honored with a seat in the Legislature of his native State.'

"I have taught school a good many winters, and the boys that I have taught like me. They will give me their votes. I have sometimes thought I should have to teach school over the county until I have taught boys enough to elect me."

The end of the speech was as follows:

"My fellow citizens, when I look back over the twelve years since I became a candidate for this office, I feel encouraged. When I look back and think of the very few that for years gave me any encouragement, and compare them with the number that now promise me their votes, I am proud of my success.

"I begin to feel that my hopes are about to be realized, that a majority of my fellow citizens will honor me with their suffrages, and that I shall proudly go up to the capitol and take my seat among the legislators of the State. But, fellow citizens, if, unfortunately, I should fail in this election, I take the present opportunity to announce myself as a candidate in the next race."

Not that year, but some years afterwards, his long dream was realized.

Nursery Rhyme Bazaar.

"Nursery rhyme bazaar" is among the novelties of such affairs. The tables are suited to the historic personages who preside. "Homer" sells cakes with "plums" in them; "The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe" has a stall to stimulate her odd dwelling place and in it she sells dolls; "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary," of course, sells flowers from her "garden," and her booth is trimmed with "silver bells and cockle shells and little maids all in a row." At the "Ban-ban, black sheep" table, woolen articles are to be found, and "Simple Simon," looking like the Lone Fisherman in "Evangeline," is in charge of the fish pond.

"Little Miss Muffett" is the mistress of the "curds and whey" stall, otherwise the dairy, and a web, with a huge paper mache spider in it, is a part of her insignia. At such a bazaar a table where candlesticks of all sizes, wear and designs were to be had, the fair young saleswomen were all "Nancy Etticoats in white petticoats and a white rose." The scheme is one that offers considerable opportunity for variety and individual suggestion.

Crime in Corea.

They do not classify crime in Corea. It is just as serious a matter to be convicted of stealing a pound of rice as of plotting treason or of committing wholesale murder. There is but one penalty for all crimes—to cut off the heads of culprits. During my visit to that queer country last summer, a pair of valuable sleeve buttons were stolen from me. I suspected a servant, and he was taken before the tribunals and subjected to a rigorous examination. There was absolutely no evidence tending to fasten the crime upon him. I suspected the fellow of having swallowed the buttons to avoid detection, and the authorities politely offered to cut him open in search of evidence if I said so.—J. B. Winkler in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Snubbed.

Clara (thinking to make Ethel envious)—You can't imagine how delightfully Charlie makes love. Ethel—Oh, yes, I can. He used to try it with me till I snubbed him.

The People in Mars. "If there are people in Mars," said he, "I don't believe they amount to much." "Humph," rejoined the slangy girl, "they are out of sight."

Fair Sport. "Did yo' hab any luck gunnin' fo' birds, Mr. Shoolley?" "Yes, indeed, honey—two roosters, one pullet, an' a shanghai."—Judge.

THE GREAT EXHIBIT.

Big Ike, when entered at the Fair, Will surely take the prize, And make the people gape and stare At his uncommon size.

His eyes are of a navy blue, The finest of his class, In stocking feet he's eight feet two And has a cheek of brass.

Besides he has a silver tongue That does not wag in vain, But pleases all—the old and young— With bargains on the brain.

He is a sight that all should see One time at least of more, So call where he'll not fail to be— Down at his Mammoth Store.

Stimulate the Blood. BRONCHITIS, PLEURISY, are the great blood purifiers. They are a purgative and blood tonic, they act equally on the bowels, the kidneys, and the skin, thus cleansing the system by the natural outlet of the body—they may be called the purgative, sudorific and diuretic medicine. They stimulate the blood so as to enable nature to throw off all morbid humors, and cure disease no matter by what name it may be called. One or two of them taken every night will prevent infallible remedy.

Sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar coated.

It is a good thing to know right principles, but it is a better thing to have them.

Some Foolish People Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold at a positive guarantee to cure, they could immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c. and $1 Trial size free. At all druggists mar 22 deud woy

With a man more money means more to eat; with a woman more to wear.

The First Step. Perhaps you are run down, can't eat, can't sleep, can't think, can't do anything to your satisfaction, and you wonder what ails you. You should heed the warning voice that is taking the first step into Nervous Prostration. You need a nerve tonic and in Electric Bitters you will find the exact remedy for restoring your nervous system to its normal, healthy condition. Surprising results follow the use of this great Nerve Tonic and Restorative. Your appetite returns, good digestion is restored, and the Liver and Kidneys resume healthy action. Try a bottle. Price 50c. at F. S. Duff's drug store.

The only people who are discontented are those who are not doing their whole duty.

The need of a perfectly safe and always reliable remedy for the peculiar disease of summer is universal. As a remedy for the hour-bail, given on the farm, on board and for travelers by land and sea, Winkler's Diarrhoea and Cholera Remedy has proved its inestimable worth in the prompt relief and cure of all disorders originating in the stomach and digestive system, such as Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhoea, Grippe, etc. It is accessible under all conditions, always ready for use, and perfectly safe. Price 25c. at all druggists. June 4 de 19

It is hard to believe that a sin will bite when it comes to us with gold in its teeth.

For Over Fifty Years Mrs. Winkler's SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Jan 23 de 19

Are You Squirming? And it pain that causes you to squirm? It is a pain that makes any one wince. Counteract it, as you can readily do, at the outset with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which expels the rheumatic virus from the blood and promptly relieves the tortures that it produces. The evidence in its behalf on this point is ample and conclusive, and embraces the deliberate affirmations of many medical practitioners. Like all standard preparations, the Bitters deserves a persistent trial, which if it results in the happiest and most thorough relief may be confidently anticipated. For malarial, kidney and liver complaints, neuralgia, nervousness, indigestion and loss of flesh and appetite it is a world-famous remedy. Convalescence after debilitating ailments is much facilitated by it.

CIRCULAR.

The old and reliable firm of Cohn & Wessel was established in Newberne in 1822. The oldest house now in the city and the only surviving member of which is Adolph Cohn, who has been engaged in the Music business for the past ten years and is now located on Craven street, three doors below the City Hall. I would be pleased to inform my friends, patrons and the public generally that I have secured the large and elegant lot of building formerly occupied by John Patterson, across E. where I have ample accommodations for properly conducting my large and increasing business, and will constantly keep on hand of the latest design, lasting tone, superior workmanship and of leading manufacturers and the best material. Also a good supply of Sheet Music.

Upright and Square Pianos

And I will endeavor to make my business as popular as the old firm used to be, and one that will give satisfaction to my numerous patrons.

The proprietor, Adolph Cohn, would take this occasion of returning his thanks to those who have taken an interest in his welfare, and would respectfully solicit the continuance of the kindly feeling of his friends. Respectfully, A. COHN.
