

A PRAYER.

Dear Father in Heaven
We lift up to Thee
A prayer of Thanksgiving—
A prayer to be free.
Protect us, preserve us
From every known sin,
From every hidden sin,
Give Freedom from care,
Assist us with duty
Wherever it be,
And add love to longing
For freedom and Thee.
Through mercy and justice
Send thou the light given
To those whom Thy radiance
Transmutest to Thy Heaven.
KATHARINE C. BLAIR, in Boston Budget.

There is but one sudden death among women to every ten among men.

Tennyson is reported to be the 1,173d person whose body has been deposited in Westminster Abbey.

Glass in oven doors is a new contrivance. It enables cooks to watch the food without opening the doors.

The Dead Sea is nothing more than a small but very old salt lake, now in an advanced state of evaporation.

The longest word in the new Century Dictionary is palatopharyngolaryngeal.

There is a tooth of Buddha, preserved and worshipped in an Indian temple, which probably all the gold in the world could not buy.

Hercule, the new French explosive, is so powerful that half a pound of it, in a recent test, displaced a stone weighing thirty tons.

The smallest inhabited island in the world is that upon which the Eddystone Lighthouse stands. At time of low water it is only 30 feet in diameter.

The czar of Russia is the largest individual landowner in the world. The area of his possessions is far greater than that of the entire Republic of France.

Wedding Bouquets.

An English fashion for wedding bouquets is what they call the "spray bouquet." It is of enormous size and is made to be suspended from the waist at the side, leaving the bride's hands free for the prayer book; which an English bride invariably carries. The effect of the beautifully grouped flat arrangement of flowers is very charming against the rich white satin or brocade of the bride's dress, and the decorative effect is still further heightened by long loops of white satin ribbon which mingle with the flowers and maidens' hair fern and hang in a graceful cascade down the entire length of the skirt.

Willing to Compromise.

"No," said the young woman, "it can never be. I wish I could have spared you the pain of this refusal, but let me say—"

"Don't say you will always be a sister to me, Miss Kerleigh," howled the disappointed man. "Anything but that."

"No, Mr. Wellalong," she said gently, "I am hardly old enough for that. But I might be a—"

"A niece or something of that kind, you know,"—"Chicago Tribune."

A Great Success.

Featherston—I hear that you have written a play, and are yourself going to take the principal part. Do you think it will be a success?

Billboard—It has already been a success from my standpoint. I appear as a rich banker, and the manager has already had to give me a new suit to fill the part.

Too Mild.

Jack (sarcastically)—When you socks come from the laundry do you darn them yourself?

Frank (promptly)—No. I generally use a stronger expression.—Truth.

Disappointing.

"How did the election go in your district?"

"Dry. The train that was to bring the jug ran of the track and broke the last one of them!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Useful Household Hints.

—Milk is better for being kept over night in small tins than in a larger quantity is kept over night in one vessel.

—It is better to keep baked pastry in a cupboard than in a refrigerator, as it would be apt to get damp and heavy in the latter place.

To keep jellies from molding cover them over with pulverized sugar to a depth of a quarter of an inch. They will keep for years if this is done.

Latest Returns.

While the returns show an overwhelming majority for the Democratic ticket, which ticket has shared the Republican majority and cut their electoral vote to the size of a hair, the only ticket which might now be used in company with the great Democratic victory is one which entitles the holder to ten shares and one out of the hair for 1.00 at the Boston House Barber Shop.

Bandanna Plaids.

If you have any friends in New Orleans ask them to send you a few yards of the gay bandanna plaids in French gingham, which we do not find in our own shops. They are in rich creole colors, combining soft reds and yellows, which seem to blend one into the other, and they make the prettiest kind of blouse waists. The only decoration they require are gold studs or buttons down the front and gold links in the cuffs. The utility of these plaids does not end here, for they likewise serve as perfectly charming covers for lounging pillows, with gathered frills of the same all round their edges.

Choice Recipes.

RICE PUDDING.—Two quarts of milk, half a cup of rice, two-thirds teaspoon of sugar and one cup of raisins. Bake in a slow oven over three hours stirring occasionally.

PARSNIPS STEWED.—Put on a piece of pickled pork and boil until it is about half done or a little more. Then scrape and wash your parsnips, put them on in a little water as will keep them from burning, then add the pork; when the parsnips are soft, dish them.

KISSES.—Take one tablespoonful of sugar to the white of one egg. Flavor with vanilla, and beat with a spoon until quite light. Drop in little heaps on white paper and bake in a cool oven. They must not get brown, nor even yellow, but must be hard on top.

POTATO PUDDING.—Boil six potatoes until very soft; peel and mash them while hot. Season to taste with salt, pepper and spice. Add one tablespoonful of butter. Boil two eggs, and dissolve the yolks in two tablespoonfuls of vinegar. Pour it over the potatoes and mix well. Pour them on a plate. Slice the whites of eggs in circles, and place them over the potatoes.

TAPIoca PUDDING.—Soak three tablespoonfuls of tapioca in cold water over night. Boil one pint of milk and add the tapioca, letting it cook three-quarters of an hour. Add the yolks of two eggs and a half cup of sugar. When thoroughly cooked and creamy, take from the stove and flavor. Beat the two whites stiff and add half a pint of whipped cream, sweeten and flavor, and pour over the tapioca cream.

GRAPES PRESERVED.—Select large, well-opened fruit, pick from stems, carefully rejecting overripe and moldy ones. Put the fruit, placing the skins in one vessel and the pulp in another. Boil the latter, without adding any water, for 15 minutes. Then run through a wire sieve. During this operation, cook the skins until they are a fine line a little water. Add the pulp to the skins and mix, allowing three-fourths of a pound of sugar to each pint, and boil together, stirring constantly for 15 or 20 minutes.

Spices were used by the Egyptians in the 15th century before Christ, and have also been found at Pompeii, but this article was not really used in France until the 16th century.

To keep Refrigerators Sweet. This is one of the most important duties of the housekeeper. No matter how many servants she may keep, she should give this matter her personal supervision once a week. The refrigerator should be in perfect condition. If the lining be broken in any part, so that the water soaks into the wood, attend to the relining at once; or, if the refrigerator be not worth that, discard it wholly. When possible, avoid having the drain pipe connected with the plumbing in the house. Have the refrigerator placed where it can be flooded with air and light whenever necessary, but, of course, in as cool a place as possible. Once a week have everything removed from it. Take out the shelves and wash them in hot soapsuds; then pour boiling water over them. Place them in the sun, or, if that fails, by the range, that they may be perfectly dried.

Now take out the ice rack and wash and scald in the same way, except that, as there are grooves or wires in this, the greatest care must be used to get out every particle of dirt that may have lodged there. Next wash out the ice compartment, running a flexible wire rod down the pipe, that nothing shall lodge there.

Put two tablespoonfuls of washing soda into a quart of boiling water, and on the fire. When this boils, pour it into the ice compartment; follow this with a kettleful of boiling water and wipe dry. Now wash the other parts of the refrigerator with hot soapsuds and wipe perfectly dry. Be careful to get the doors and ledges clean and dry. Leave the refrigerator open for an hour and then return the ice and food to it.

I plan this work for a day when the ice man is due. The work is done immediately after breakfast, so that the refrigerator is ready when the ice comes. Should you, after this care, still have trouble, do not use the refrigerator. It will be far better to get along without the comfort it affords than to endanger health and life by using a contaminated article. Food should never be put in a refrigerator while warm, because it absorbs the flavors of other food and also heats the refrigerator.
