LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Howard.

L. H. Cutler--To farmers. H. L. Hall--Handsome line of books.

A basket party will be given by the ladies of the Disciples Church to night at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Hill.

The trustees of the New Berne Academy will elect officers at their annual meeting this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Prof. J. Hart gave an exhibition of mystifying tricks last night and distributed advertised gifts among the audience. Another performance to-night.

Mr. R. B. Nixon who has been very diligent in the search for the missing bonds and other papers of Geo. H. Simmons executor has succeeded in recovering them.

The Morganton Herald says the Danvers cotton mills will begin building an addition of 100 feet or more to their present plant as soon as the weather will permit.

There was a wide range in difference (40 degrees) between the two extremes of temperature for the 24 hours ending at 6 o'clock last night. The lowest was 24, the highest 64.

The steamer May Bell arrived from Jolly Old Field yesterday evening and reports upper Neuse free from ice. The May Bell sails at 9 o'clock this morning on her return trip.

Fowling party is temporarily being run as a steam party. The steamer Nettie W. was put on when the weather moderated enough for her to make her way through ice and she is still kept on.

The Charlotte News says: "Farmers who were in the city to-day confirm the reports about the birds being killed by the weather and hawks. There will scarcely be any partridges left for seed."

Mr. R. A. Richardson returned last night from a hunt up the railroad with fifty-six quail, killed by a friend and himself on an eight hours hunt. He hunted his Irish Setter "Larry." Very fine sport indeed.

Jas. Henderson, a young man who says he is from Onslow county was arrested and jailed last night for stealing a steer from Mr. DuVal, near Pollockville. He sold the steer for $25 to John Alfred Boone, a colored up-town butcher, and when arrested had spent nearly all the money.

Wood is now arriving daily in sufficient quantities to meet all demands. About 80 cords come in by railroad yesterday; the day before there was nearly 150 cords, and more is expected up on today's freight. It is beginning also to arrive by water for the wood yards along the river. One or two boat loads came up yesterday.

Louisa Hilton, a colored woman of Washington city favorably known to some of our best citizens has been in the city under the treatment of Dr. R. S. Primrose. She has considerable means and says she has had a number of Northern physicians but has found more benefit from the treatment here than from any she has received before.

The citizens of Fayetteville in meeting assembled completed arrangements with Prof. Yeser, now of Davis military school for opening a high grade military school here on the 1st of September. It is intended to be run on a high plane and it is stated that there is reason to believe that two hundred pupils will be enrolled.

A Spillman correspondent of the Twin City Sentinel tells the story of the cold weather that we have yet heard as follows: "Mr. J. M. Lynch went to drive across Deep Creek at the ford close to the old Holcomb Mill last Saturday. When about half way over his wagon from fast and he tried to leave it standing in the creek. That must have been a quick job."

"A Splendid New Song." "Grandma's Lullaby," by B. W. Straub, is a very sweet and charming song. The words stir the kindest feelings of the heart while the melody is easy and soothing, yet full of tender pathos. The publishers, B. W. Straub & Co., 245 South St., Chicago, will mail a copy to any address on receipt of 50c.

KNIGHTS OF HARMONY.

A New Berne Beneficial Order That is Likely to Expand.

The above order which originated in this city May the 22d 1892, by six working men banding together for mutual protection in the way of small insurance of such limited cost that any one could meet the payments is becoming quite popular among all classes of our citizens, and there is a bright outlook for its early development into a strong organization with a Supreme Lodge, Grand Lodges and Subordinate Lodges over the country, though at present the operations of the order are confined to this city.

The benefits, which membership in the order confers, are $25 for the burial expenses of each member, and a further payment to the heirs of a sum equal to $1 from each member. A reserve fund sufficient to meet both payments is kept constantly on hand, the intention being to pay the amount to the family of the deceased member as soon as his death is brought to the notice of the treasurer that by any financial worry so liable to occur at times of such bereavement.

The expenses connected with membership, are 50c, initiation fee, 25c, per month--or $3.00 per year dues, and an assessment of $1 each on the surviving members whenever a death occurs.

The membership is now about 150, and is constantly growing. There are accessions at nearly every meeting. At the last meeting three joined, and at a previous meeting there were 15 applications. There has not been a death among the members during the eight months since the Lodge was organized.

The order, as we said started in New Berne last May. The originators were S. A. Harris, J. T. Lincoln, F. B. Pettaway, Wm. T. Hough, W. H. Bishop and Daniel Kirkman.

The officers are S. R. Ball, President; J. T. Lewis, Vice-President; M. T. Roberts, Secretary; John Hall, Treasurer; H. H. Tooker, Marshal; G. D. Bowden, Deputy Marshal; Jas. Hill, Guard.

The Supreme Lodge has been organized with the following officers: J. S. Manix, President; J. K. Willis, Vice-President; W. B. Boyd, Secretary; T. H. Davis, Treasurer; H. H. Tooker, Marshal; J. T. Lincoln, Deputy Marshal; J. L. Quillen, Guard.

A charter will be obtained from the present legislature and then the order will be in shape for spreading out to other communities.

For those who wish protection for their families at a time when assistance is generally most needed and appreciated the order offers very good inducements.

Coming and Going. Mr. Mark Dismoy left yesterday morning to visit his sister, Mrs. Alex Kirkland, of Old Fort. His niece Miss Jennie Curtis, of Old Fort who has been attending Miss Janet Hollister's school accompanied him on a visit home.

Miss Olivia Waters left to visit her sister Mrs. C. T. Randolph of Kinston.

Mr. J. Dismoy returned last night from Kinston where he has been on a business trip.

Mr. E. Danenburg returned from a trip combining business and pleasure.

The Washington Progress says: "Some of our aged people tell us that this has been the most severe long spell of cold weather that they have ever seen here. The ice on the river is about eight inches thick and we have seen over a hundred people in a very small area of space and it did not crack. While it has not melted much yet we think that the sunshine for the past several days has rendered it unsafe."

We do not mean that every farmer should turn his farm into a stock farm, but we mean that stock raising should be a part of the business of every farm, says the Warrenton Record. It is something which has to be done gradually, and our profits do not begin to come in under two or three years, except in the case of sheep, but a start must be made and there never will be a better time than the present. One of the greatest profits growing out of stock raising is the manure it enables the farmer to make.

The east is raising tobacco in much larger quantities than is generally supposed. One thing that shows this plainly is a statement in the Greenville Reflector from the agent of the Atlantic Coast line as to the quantity shipped from that place in the last five months of 1892. There was over a million pounds. The total number of packages, averaging about a thousand pounds each was 1,184; the exact total weight was 1,275,274. The largest aggregate shipments to any one city was to Richmond, Va., 396,844 pounds. The smallest to South Boston 1,150 pounds. Henderson purchased 297,214 pounds the largest amount of any point in the State. Rocky Mount came next, she received 108,491 pounds of it. The shipments to Durham footed up 102,451 pounds.

"A Splendid New Song." "Grandma's Lullaby," by B. W. Straub, is a very sweet and charming song. The words stir the kindest feelings of the heart while the melody is easy and soothing, yet full of tender pathos. The publishers, B. W. Straub & Co., 245 South St., Chicago, will mail a copy to any address on receipt of 50c.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY--15th DAY.

SENATE.

Mr. Olive, by request introduced a bill to establish the North Carolina Reform School. Education. Mr. Olive said he was in hearty accord with the spirit and intent of the measure.

By Mr. Atwater, a resolution of instruction to our senators and representatives in congress requesting them to oppose the repeal of the Sherman silver bill, unless some act providing for the purchase of silver by the government be substituted in its place. Banks and Currency.

Senate bill 72, in regard to the carrying over of concealed weapons, was passed over informally.

Senate bill 115, to amend chapter 81, section 3 of the laws of 1892, was taken up. This regards the selling of timber on certain river lands. The bill then passed its second and third readings and was ordered enrolled for ratification.

Senate bill 106, to amend section 180 of the Code relating to proceedings against infants, lunatics and persons non compos mentis, was taken up and passed its second and third readings and was ordered to be enrolled for ratification.

Bill to protect the revenues of the State, by prohibiting druggists from selling any liquors except upon prescription, and requiring all physicians to take oath not to prescribe liquor except for bona fide medical purposes, being reported favorably by the committee, Mr. Sandifer moved that it be laid on the table which motion prevailed.

Mr. Allen moved to print the bill concerning the homestead exemption, and make a special order for next Thursday, at 12 o'clock. Carried.

THE WARREN VANCE CONTESTED ELECTION CASE. The lieutenant governor announced the special order, the clerk read the majority report of the committee, stating that Leach was entitled to the seat. This statement that 1,026 illegal votes had been cast for Henderson. This report John P. Leach, 1889 votes cast; Henderson, 1,124 votes cast.

Accompanying the report were two resolutions, one seating Henderson and the other seating Leach.

The resolutions stating that John P. Leach was entitled to a seat in the senate was put by the speaker, the vote on this standing was 29, yeas 19.

Messrs. Armstrong, Davis and Brown, in a few remarks, explained their votes. Then the president appointed Messrs. Day and Posey to conduct Mr. Leach to the bar of the senate, where the new member took the oath of office.

It was also announced that a musical, complimentary to the members of the General Assembly would be given at Peace Institute Friday evening.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. For bill to divide the crime of murder into two degrees, Mr. Allen offered a substitute for the committee.

Bill passed third reading as amended. Bill to restore chapter 436, laws of 1892, so that sureties of all public bonds shall be held responsible even in the cases of insolvency of bank, passed second and third readings.

Mr. Ray said that the present law giving jurisdiction to magistrates in cases of concealed weapons, &c., was a failure. His object was to restore jurisdiction to the Superior court. The bill passed second and third readings.

Bill to restore the right to give and receive free passes came up. Mr. McCurry moved to table.

The bill was finally referred to the committee on railroads and railroad commission with a request that the committee report a substitute.

Bill to repeal so much of chapter 327, laws of 1891 as relating to Craven county, passed third reading.

The Country Roads Convention. The country roads convention that met at Raleigh on 19th inst., was well attended, eighty of ninety six counties being represented. This was a good start. The resolutions adopted are to the point--are practical. The principle embodied is to work the roads in each county partly by taxation, to use a certain proportion of the convicts, and for each county to employ a competent road engineer. This will be a good beginning if the Legislature has grit enough to adopt the recommendations. Good roads must come. Make a start. Rome was not built in a day. If ten miles are constructed in each county of macadamized road it will be much. In ten years there will be a hundred miles. Use stone freely if you would make a good, solid road that will last for decades.

Road conventions are becoming frequent. One met in Maryland a few days ago, and another is in session in Washington, the attendees being from many states. All this shows that the public mind is thinking of the improvement of country roads and it certainly promises well for active work in the near future.

From Asheville to Chicago by Water. Walter H. and G. W. Vaughan, two Asheville young men, who formerly lived in Concord, as soon as warmer weather sets in will try to go from Asheville to Chicago by water. They have constructed a boat 16 feet long and 3 feet wide, weighing about 400 pounds. The trip is to be made by way of the French Broad, Holston, Tennessee, Ohio and Illinois rivers, and the Illinois canal. They expect to reach Chicago by August 28, North Carolina's day at the Exposition--Concord Times.

Vessels Shut in by Ice--People Along the Banks in Distress.

Advices from Beaufort state that Capt. Rotheridge, Superintendent of the Life Saving service, and Capt. Guskil arrived there Wednesday evening from Ocracoke via the beach in a cart. They report that vessels at Ocracoke are shut in by ice and if it breaks up with the present soft weather, vessels will be in danger. Some are already cut badly. For miles out Pamlico sound is frozen hard. Proceeding along the banks are in considerable distress.

Don't Take It For Granted. Merchants and business men too often take it for granted that they will be found out without telling the public what they have to sell. Don't take too much for granted--tell the people you are in business for their trade and not set around waiting for some one to come in. --Burlington News.
