Horace Greeley on Debt.

For my own part—and I speak from experience—I would rather be a convict in a State prison, a slave in a rice swamp, than pass through life under the harrow of debt.

Hunger, cold rage, hard work, contempt, suspicion, unjust reproach, are disagreeable; but debt is infinitely worse than them all.

Of course, I know that some men must do business that involves risks, and must often give notes and other obligations, and I do not consider him really in debt who can lay his hands directly on the means of paying at some little sacrifice all he owes.

Answer This Question. Why do so many people we see around us seem to prefer to suffer and be made miserable by indigestion, constipation, diarrhoea, loss of appetite, coming up of food, yellow skin, when for $1.00 we will sell them Shiloh's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are guaranteed to cure them.

There is one lucky thing about spoiled children—we never have them in our own family.

The Population of New Berne is about nine thousand, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection on the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others.

REMARKABLE RESCUE. Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse.

The way to spoil the children is to take no interest in their doings.

James G. Blaine is Dead. We want 100 agents in North Carolina to handle a complete pictorial narrative of the personal and public career of the "Plumed Knight from Maine."

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castor.

Barbains IN BED CLOTHING.

By mistake, four times as many Comforts as we ordered were shipped us. To avoid returning them we are making a slaughter of prices.

A PRETTY SURPRISE.

A beautifully illustrated and charmingly bound edition of Longfellow's "Evangeline," the most popular long poem ever published by an American author, and one of the most famous poems in the language, recently published, is a pretty surprise for book-lovers. It is in large type, numerous and excellent illustrations, very fine and heavy paper, gilt edges, remarkably handsome cloth binding, combining in delicate colors, blue and white and silver and gold. No illustrated edition has ever before been published at less than $1.50, and that is about what you might "guess" the price of this to be, but it isn't—witness our offer below. Every home in the land ought to have a copy of this Evangeline, so charmingly beautiful, as a poem, as a collection of artistic illustrations, and as a product of the book-making art.

Our Offer.

By special arrangements with the publisher we are able to offer this book to the subscribers to this paper as follows:

EVANGELINE and DAILY JOURNAL, one year, $5.00

" " " " " six months, 2-75

" " " " " three months, 1-50

" " " " " WEEKLY JOURNAL, one year, 1-25

Under no circumstances does this proposition hold good except where payment is made in advance.
