

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Olinson,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. Those the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are doing their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup, and other harmful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. Kitchinson,
Cortway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. Adams, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although what is known as regular medical supplies what is known as regular medical supplies, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY,
Allen C. Smith, Pres.,
Boston, Mass.

The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

MY SHIP.

"My ship, Great God, it is sinking,"
Are the words from a sailor on deck,
"And the sea-brine I shall shortly be drinking
When the mad waves have washed me
from my wreck.
There are loved ones o'er yonder who are waiting
In old Europe, the land that I love,
But no more, never more, shall I see them
Till I'm taken up home far above.

"Oh moments are sweet at sun-set,
For alas, ere long 't is night,
Though the darkness will soon have been vanishing
And the sun freely gives us his light.
But an hour and the pride of my lifetime,
Will be sunken and lost from all view
And the fact it will always be hidden—
Sure no man can ever construe.
Death awaits me I know for I see him
He's ugly, and meagre, and thin,
But I'll yield to his icy cold fingers.
For slowly yet surely he'll win.
Oh, the dear ones are waiting unconscious,
Of the fury which around me does lie,
Dear mother, dear father, dear sister,
Farwell I'm going on high.

The moon-light will play on the waters
Under which I'm buried so deep,
And the tears of a mother and sister
Will trickle while quietly I sleep.
The water is now climbing o'er me
It beats so hoistrous and wild
My pen I will cast in the ocean
These lines they shall drift in a vial.
Sweet future could I but behold then
I would look although I'm downcast
And behold old Enoch and Joseph,
While writing and living my last.
My name it is Randal McDonald
My soul o'er yonder'll be found
In the dawn of the last earthly morning
When Gabriel's great trumpet shall sound.
—G. A. CATON.
