NOW comes the positive statement from New York that There have been no Cabinet plans filed beyond those of the Treasury (Carrile) and War (Lamont).

THE Washington Post is disposed to flatter Senator Hill. It says: "When Mr. Cleveland reads Senator Hill's speech on silver he will find it as smooth as a barbed wire fence."

THE State of Georgia will crowd into Washington on the 4th of next month. The Post says Gov. Northen has ordered all of the colonels down there to accompany him to the inauguration.

THE demagogue is confined to no age or country. He roams at large wherever votes are to be cast and offices obtained. A first class demagogue is a good show of himself; a small size one is not worth a place in a dime museum.

FUNDS are being raised for a "Stonewall" memorial building to be used for religious and social purposes by the students of the Virginia Military Institute and Washington and Lee University, at Lexington, Va.; Lee and Jackson are both buried at Lexington.

SUCH has been the number and variety of names suggested for the Cabinet that it is said that certain sensitive Statesmen feel slighted and are beginning to enquire what the tender they have done that they should be left out. Wait gentlemen, until Mr. Cleveland speaks, and you may be chosen. Remember many are called but few are chosen.

It may be doubted whether the announcement of the death of Algernon Sororis, of London, occasioned any regret in this country. It will be remembered that he married charming Nellie Grant, Gen. Grant's favorite daughter, and it is said that he treated her badly. We hope that the true hearted and high minded American woman will now return home, and be consoled by the fond attentions of the friends of her hapless days.

GROVER CLEVELAND, of New York, and Adlai. E. Stevenson, of Illinois were on last Wednesday counted in and declared officially and constitutionally the next President and Vice President of the United States. The ceremony was both interesting and impressive.

A GOOD suggestion, that, made by the late Chief Justice Merrimon and published in our last issue, for the employment of an historian to compile historical matters relative to North Carolina and the part her patriotic sons have borne in every bloody conflict since Washington crossed the Delaware. We know of no one better equipped in every particular for this special work than our old friend and scholar, Col John D. Cameron, of Asheville. To him such a task would be a pleasure, while to the State and succeeding generations it would be worth hundreds and thousands of dollars. Can't the Legislature take some action in this matter!—Fayetteville Gazette.

The city attorney stated that the American Fire Engine Company had accepted the tender of notes in payment of their claim; on motion of Councilman Street, the Mayor and clerk were authorized to make and give the notes.

Chairman Latham of Sanitary committee reports the city in good condition, and, under the written opinion of Drs. N. H. Street, City Physician, F. W. Hughes, R. S. Primrose, Charles Duffy and Lester Duffly, Superintendent Health, and F. Duffy, "that the presence of hogs within the city limits is a menace to the health of our citizens and recommend that they be not allowed to exist within the corporate limits" offered the following ordinance which was adopted:

Councilman Crawford voting nay.

It is ordained by the Board of Councilmen of the City of New Berne, that no hog or hogs shall be kept within the corporate limits of the City of New Berne. Any person violating this ordinance shall upon conviction be fined three dollars. All ordinances in conflict are hereby repealed. This ordinance shall be in effect on and after March 15th, 1893.

The city attorney read the proposed amendments to the city charter prepared by the committee of which the following were adopted:

Section II.—That section seventeen of chapter forty-two of the private laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine be amended by striking out the word "and" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "or."

That the Board of Councilmen may appoint a Post Physician and a city attorney, who shall hold office during the term of the Board appointing them. They may also appoint a sexton for each cemetery who shall hold office during the term of the Board appointing them, subject to be removed at any time for misconduct, and as many policemen as may be necessary, who shall hold office until removed by order of the Board.

Section III.—That section 19 of chapter 49 of the private laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine be amended by striking out the word "and" in line 4 and inserting in lieu thereof the word "or."

Section VII.—That chapter 191 of the public laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one entitled "an act for the better protection of Farmers and Fishermen" be amended by striking out the word "Newberne" wherever it may appear in said chapter.

Section IX.—That chapter 216 of the public laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one entitled "an act supplemental to an act entitled 'an act for the better protection of Farmers and Fishermen' be amended by

Board took a recess to 10 a. m., Feb. 8. W. D. WALLACE, City Clerk.

Another Slice of Craven Wanted.

A bill has been introduced in the Legislature to attach a part of Craven county to Lenoir. It is very important to all citizens and especially to the tax payers that Craven should lose no portion of her territory as in that case in view of her large bonded debt and floating debt an additional burden of taxation would be imposed upon the remaining portion of the county.

The bill was introduced by Mr. Brooks, of Lenoir. Petitions should be circulated and sent to Raleigh at once opposing any such movement.

Craven has already lost considerable portion of her territory in the formation of Pamlico county and in the change of the county line between Craven and Carter counties and further loss to be avoided if possible. We believe all our citizens would be opposed to a further cutting down for any purpose.

POTATO CROP.

Insure a Good Stand by Testing the Eyes.

Do not be in a hurry to put potatoes into the ground. Remember that in a warm place the necessary structural changes will go on faster than in the cold earth.

Keep the seed potatoes in a warm place until the eyes show vitality. Then in fore-aprons become too large so as to be liable to rub off in handling—cut and plant after 30 hours. (After cutting the pieces should be exposed to the air that they may heal a little, so that they do not bleed in the earth after planting.)

The cold may have injured many of the eyes, so that if, planted, a short stand would follow. By forcing the eyes to show vitality before cutting all the pieces that are dead can be rejected. One possible cause of a short stand is from planting sets with dead eyes.

The structural starch of the potato must by chemical change form dextrose before germination can take place, and the species of fermentation necessary to produce this result requires warmth.

Make sure of a good stand; do not risk a quarter stand. Make your seed box vitality.

Throw away all dead eyes, and avoid having to throw away valuable labor, fertilizer and space also.

R. BURRY.

J. S. Carr May be in It.

"It is not at all improbable that North Carolina will be represented in Mr. Cleveland's cabinet," remarked a prominent citizen of the Old North State at the new Hotel Aragon last night. "The people of the State," he continued, "are strongly urging Col. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, for a portfolio position, and it is a known fact that the President-elect is considering the matter with no little degree of seriousness, and should he select Col. Carr, it will be only a just recognition of his sterling worth and valuable services to the party and such action would cause rejoicing among all the Democrats from the mountains to the sea in the Tar Heel State. The thousands of friends of Col. Carr throughout the South would also be rejoiced to see him honored with a cabinet position. He is one of the most enterprising and useful citizens in the South."—Atlanta (Ga.) Journal, Dec.

The Success of Kinston Knitting Mill.

The Orion Knitting mills is a proud manufacturing industry of the town, furnishes employment to seventy operatives, and deserves the patronage of the people of this locality. The products of these mills are shipped all over the Union. One order was recently received from Chicago of $4,500 for misses' hose. —Kinston Free Press.

Capt. Benj. W. Willis, brought up from Portsmouth two remarkably fine and beautiful black brant yesterday, for exhibit at the Fair. He will leave for Pamlico sound again to-day, and on his return he intends to bring a good collection of wild ducks, geese, etc. for exhibition. The Fair is at hand; let every one see that his exhibit is in readiness.

The Greenville Reflector says that the Register of Deeds of Pitt county states that so far this year the number of crop liens and mortgages coming in for registration is much smaller than for the corresponding time of any recent year. This decrease of mortgages do doubt means that the farmers are going as far as possible to run out the cash system. If they do so they will find themselves in much better circumstances next fall.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

THIRTIETH DAY.

SENATE.

Petitions were presented as follows: By Mr. Means, from Mrs. John P. Allison, of Concord, vice-president of the ladies' monumental association, for the erection in Nash square, Raleigh, of a monument to commemorate the Confederate dead. This memorial has no reference to the bill recently introduced by Senator Day, asking for an appropriation of $500 for a monument to the memory of North Carolinians who fought in the four great wars in which the nation has been involved. The petition was referred to the committee on Education.

CALENDAR.

House amendments to Senate bill to prevent certain persons known as detectives from going armed in this State was taken up, and on motion of Senator Sandifer, the Senate refused to concur in the same. A conference was asked for.

Bill to divide the crime of murder into two degrees, murder of the first degree to be punished with death, murder of the second degree to be punished with imprisonment of not less than two years or more than thirty years, was taken up and Mr. Battle clearly explained the necessity of such a bill. Mr. Cooper offered an amendment to change two years to five years and spoke in favor of it, but the amendment failed. The bill then passed third reading.

Bill concerning the contracts of married women was explained and advocated by Mr. Battle. Mr. Day took the position that the bill would be another way of removing the protection that married women already have in having to have the consent of their husbands before disposing of their property. The bill failed to pass. Yeas 15, nays 25.

Bill authorizing the trial of the issue of fraud in the conveyance of and encumbrance of land less in value than the exemption before the valuation of the homestead, came up and Mr. Day declared that it was the entering wedge of an attack upon the homestead. Mr. Means defended the bill and declared that it was not an attack upon the homestead. The bill passed second reading, yeas 21, nays 8. The bill then passed third reading.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Day introduced a bill to amend section 3726 of the Code relating to the fees of jurors, also to amend the charter of Trinity College.

Mr. Russell introduced a bill for the protection of families of dissipated persons.

There was quite a warm debate on the bill to appropriate $40,000 for the display of North Carolina's products at the World's Fair.

Mr. McKenzie opposed it in a conservative speech, saying that poor children of the State need this for their education.

Mr. Allen said that the $25,000 appropriated in 1891 was enough, and he was opposed to an additional $15,000 appropriation, on the ground that our people are not able to make such.

Mr. Watson, of Forsyth, in words of wisdom, with a spirit of progress, advocated it as a means of raising immigration into our State and developing our resources.

Mr. Kitchin, in denunciatory words, opposed the bill, his speech added strength to the opposition and was loudly applauded.

The bill was lost by a vote of 18 to 31.

On motion of Mr. Watson, of Forsyth, each one wishing to explain his vote was limited to two minutes, on the motion of Mr. Anderson to table a motion to reconsider. The House seemed much pleased when the motion was declared by a vote of 66 to 12. The motion, Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, moved to lodge a motion for reconsider and have it entered on the calendar which motion was carried.

House resolution 74, to publish the manuscript copies of the parts taken by North Carolina State troops in the late war and to have 500 copies published and supply the legislature, schools, etc., with copies, was taken up and referred to the committee on the Library.

By consent Mr. Allen introduced a bill to provide compensation for stock injured by railroads, which was referred to the committee on railroads.
