Mr. Culberson is elderly, conservative and a staunch Democrat. He is regarded as one of the best constitutional lawyers in the House.

Deputy sheriff J. D. LaRoque took five convicts to the penitentiary yesterday.

The racing today will begin at one o'clock. The purses aggregate $450. Tomorrow they are $575.

Senator Vance speaks in New York today before the Southern Society of that city. His subject will be "The True Patriot."

Bladen county has had another destructive cyclone. A number of houses and barns were blown down, but no loss of life is reported.

The Fair Observer is a newsy little sheet. Call at Machinery Hall and get one free at five p.m. if you wish to be well posted about the Fair.

The News and Observer and Chronicle, of Raleigh, the Charlotte Observer and Wilmington Messenger have telegraphic reports that speak in high praise of our Fair.

There will be no extra charge for reserved seats at C. E. Bolton's lecture on Friday night. The tickets will be on sale at Nunn & McSorley's to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Mr. E. S. Street has put on a handsome new three-seated transfer, with front side and rear lights, the last is red the others white. The transfer arrived just in time to commence its work by doing good service at the Fair.

There was no telegram from the weather bureau yesterday. When this occurs it is said to be understood that the following day will be fair. Let all take that much encouragement for the Fair at any rate.

A horrible case of burning comes from Forsyth County. Miss Annie Pettit while standing before the fire, had her clothing to catch and before the flames could be extinguished she had burned so seriously as to live only a short while.

Yesterday's races were very fine and exciting. It was a spirited contest between Dominion owned by Messrs. Hackburn & Willett of this city, and Mary Spellman, owned by Mr. M. H. White of Hertford. Dominion was the winner.

Mrs. J. D. Carpenter, the lady evangelist who once conducted a successful revival in Hancock street Methodist church will preach there tonight. She has recently been conducting protracted meetings not far from New Berne.

Mr. Morton, proprietor of the Beaufort hotel, is in attendance to the Fair, and informs us of the extreme illness of Capt. Denard Rumly, of Cape Lookout Light. Mr. Rumley is prominently connected and known as a most excellent gentleman.

At the shooting gallery on the grounds a small boy by the name of John Stanley was shot in the mouth by a glancing ball. The ball, which was from a very small rifle, went through his lip and loosened a tooth which had to be extracted. The wound is not thought to be serious.

A good number of Fair visitors to the Fair, arrived on the special and also on last night's train; but there were probably not so many as might have been, but for the rain that came in the afternoon. Well we look for fair weather and a large crowd today on both the special and regular. Today and tomorrow will be big days.

The New Berne Fair will not be out-doped. Tuesday it furnished a romantic marriage. Two of the visitors, Mr. Daniel McNamara and Miss Annie Frost, both of Cleveland, Ohio, concluded to unite in the bonds of wedlock, and both repaired to the office of the register of deeds, obtained their license and immediately called in the services of Sheriff W. B. Lane, who acting in the capacity of magistrate made them man and wife and ended by pronouncing a happy blessing upon them.

Coming and Going.
Dr. W. B. Black, editor of the Ophelia Friend of Oxford, is visiting the Fair.

Mr. J. C. Van, arrived last night, and Miss Mary Williamson, of Graham, and Miss Mary McNamee, of Charlotte, are visiting at the James Hotel.

PARADE AND FORMAL OPENING.

Both Events Especially Successful and Delightful.

The parade yesterday morning was an exceptional success.

It formed in good order at the appointed time and place, followed in full the line of march planned and arrived at the grounds precisely at the appointed hour, 11 o'clock.

The procession was a long one; when the front portion was entering the Fair grounds, the rear portion had not left Broad street.

There were in the procession: The marshals, Prof. Cook's brass band (a dozen strong); a carriage containing Jas. A. Bryan, the speaker of the day, and Rev. C. G. Vandell, chaplain; Others with officers and directors of the Fair, a goodly force of bicyclists, on their wheels; the Atlantic Steam Fire Engine Company, with their engine and hose carriage; the New Berne Steam Fire Engine Company, likewise equipped. The engines were polished until they fairly shone and were neatly decorated with evergreens and ribbons and the boys in their becoming uniform never looked handsomer. After the fire companies came boys on ponies, then the Star brass band, citizens in carriages, and lastly a large array from the merchant who is always on hand when there is something going on, the irrepressible "Big Ike" with a dressed figure of a man 9-1-2 feet high standing in a wagon and 31 banners following advertising his cheap sales and the $100 worth of presents that he will give away this week and which are now on exhibition at the Fair grounds.

A large number of citizens in addition to those in the parade, had gathered at the Fair grounds, to attend the opening ceremonies. Upon the arrival of those in the parade, President Wm. Dunn, called the assembly to order, and after an invocation of the Divine blessing by Rev. C. G. Vandell, Mr. T. A. Green introduced the speaker, Mr. Jas. A. Bryan.

Mr. Bryan made an excellent speech—short, sensible and practical. It was the speech for the occasion. He spoke largely in fact chiefly, along agricultural lines, showing how agriculture was the basis of all prosperity.

The speech was enjoyed by all, and by no one more than the large number farmers present.

After the speech came the dispersal for the examination of the exhibits.

Yesterday's Races.
The first race yesterday was a running race for a purse of $50, best three in five. The entries for this race were: John G. bay gelding, owned by Hackburn & Willett; Gypsy Queen, bay mare, owned by J. W. Stewart; Lillian Russell, gray mare, owned by Hackburn & Willett, and Sarah Bernhardt, black filly owned by J. W. Stewart.

As Hackburn & Willett's Gypsy Queen came out ahead in each of the first three heats this settled the contest. Mr. Stewart's Sarah Bernhardt was next and John G. was third.

The trotting race had much interest centered upon it. It was free for all, mile heats, best three in five for a purse of $225. 50 per cent to first horse, 25 to 2d, 15 to 3d and 10 to 4th.

The entries were Dominion, bay gelding, owned by Hackburn & Willett, New Berne; Mary Spellman, bay mare, owned by M. H. White, Hertford, N. C.; Charles, bay gelding owned by J. Schwartz, Durham, N. C.; and Adrian, bay stallion, owned by J. W. Stewart, New Berne. They won in the order named. The best mile was made by Dominion, the winner, in 2:38 1-2.

Balloon Ascensions.
The balloon ascension and parachute leap by Mrs. Nellie Steele, that took place yesterday at 3 o'clock was a very fine one.

When the inflation of the balloon was ended and the ropes loosed, the aerial monster shot with rapidity far, far up, while the daring little lady waved her handkerchief to the crowds below as she ascended, and when at last she began to grow indistinct in the distance; the parachute was cut loose, and after a long and swift fall it opened out and came down the remainder of the way gently and gracefully, it fell west of the Fair ground in Duffy's field, near a mile away. All whom we have heard speak of it, declare it the most pleasing ascension they ever witnessed.

Weather permitting another will take place this afternoon, and also one tomorrow and next day.

"Come give us a taste of your quality."—SHAKESPEARE.

You can judge the quality of some things by taste, but the only way to judge a shoe is by wear. The shoes we sell—the old reliable Stacy Adams & Co's. have been tested in this market for ten years, and all agree that they are wear registers. None like them as a customer remarked to us a few days ago. Prices $2.00 to $5.00. See us for Hats, Clothing and Underwear.

The Races Today.

The first will be a running race to be called at one o'clock. The purse is $100; mile heat, best two in three. Entries: Carrie, by Benj. Hahn; Gypsy Queen, by J. W. Stewart; Castile, by M. H. White, of Hertford.

Second—Trotting race, three minute class. Purse $150; mile heat, best two in three. May, by J. W. Stewart; Abdallah Chief, Jr., by Dr. Leinster Duffy; Cleveland, by Watson & Co., of Clinton; Prince Leon, by M. H. Sultan.

Third—Trotting race, 2:50 class. Purse $200, mile heat, best three in five. Entries: Gab by S. D. Black, of Fayetteville; Rosana, by Benj. Hahn; Dominion, by Hackburn & Willett; St. Elmo, by J. W. Stewart; Ananias, by Dr. L. Duffy.

Spring Weather Predictions.
Our townsman, Mr. R. Berry, who has given considerable study to weather prognostications, furnishes us with a few points that might prove of interest to consider, especially by planters. His predictions are based upon the planetary system and very nearly coincide with those of Hicks, who has become so renowned all over the country.

Mr. Berry thinks that spring will be late in the Northern States and advises our people to make large early crops to meet the longer demand that would be necessitated thereby. He says that the cold, sleet and snow prophesied by Hicks will exhaust itself very largely in precipitation at this point, hence a wet spring. Under these circumstances there should be a thorough drainage and avoiding planting in bottoms. With an excessive spring rainfall, a hot and dry summer will very probably follow.

Unique Race Program.
Messrs. Hackburn & Willett, one of New Berne's wide awake and stirring firms got up a new departure in a most unique and striking program of the races, which they distribute free on the grounds for the public.

It is a four-page booklet gotten up with illustrations specially adapted for the occasion. It will be issued daily with a correct program of all races giving the kind of race, horses entered, and their owners. Also it contains in table form, blanks for keeping score.

Of course it is also in the interest of their business, which is one of the finest in the State, as examination at their mammoth three-story mercantile house proves. Many of the visitors to the Fair will not doubt recognize that this is the same firm that have such an extensive truck and stock farm near the city, a visit to which will repay any one.

Gov. Carr's Letter to the Fair Association.
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.
Executive Department.
Raleigh, Feb. 20th, 1893.
CHAS. REITZSTEIN, Esq.,
Secy. F. G. & O. Fair Association,
New Berne, N. C.

Dear Sir—I had anticipated the pleasure of opening the Fish, Game and Plover Fair on tomorrow and spending a few days with the people of New Berne and surrounding country—had even prepared the opening address, but the great press of business, the many important matters now before me and now being considered and the great interests of the people being to such an extent involved in these various important matters utterly precludes my attending the Fair, which I very much regret.

Please express my regrets not only to the Fair Association but to the people present. Wishing you continued and greater prosperity, I am,
Yours very truly,
ELIAS CARR, Governor.

GOD BLESS THE FRIEND.
LUDIA MARIA CHILA.

I thank thee, friend, for words of cheer
That made the path of duty clear,
When thou and I were young and strong
To wrestle with mighty wrong.
And now, when lengthening shadows come,
And this world's work is nearly done,
I thank thee for thy genial ray,
That prophesies a brighter day,
When we can work, with strength renewed,
In clearer light, for surer good.
God bless thee, friend, and give thee peace,
Till thy fervent spirit finds release!
And may we meet in worlds afar,
My Morning and my Evening Star!
