NEW BERNE, N. C.
CIRCULAR.
The old and reliable firm of Cohn & Waise was established in Newbern in 1853. The oldest home now in the city and the only surviving member of which is Adolph Cohn, who has been engaged in the Piano Business for the past ten years and is now located on Craven street, three doors below the City Hall. I would be pleased to inform my friends, patrons and the public generally that I have secured the large and elegant brick building formerly occupied by John Patterson, deceased, where I have ample accommodations for properly conducting my large and increasing business, and will constantly keep on hand
Upright and Square Pianos
of the latest designs, lasting tone, superior workmanship and of leading manufacturers for the past ten years and is now located on Craven street, three doors below the City Hall. I would be pleased to inform my friends, patrons and the public generally that I have secured the large and elegant brick building formerly occupied by John Patterson, deceased, where I have ample accommodations for properly conducting my large and increasing business, and will constantly keep on hand
And I will endeavor to make my business as popular as the old firm used to be, and one that will give satisfaction to my numerous patrons.
The proprietor, Adolph Cohn, would take this occasion of returning his thanks to those who have taken an interest in his welfare, and would respectfully solicit the continuance of the kindly feeling of his friends.
Respectfully,
A. COHN

A PRETTY SURPRISE.
A beautifully illustrated and charmingly bound edition of Longfellow's "Evangeline," the most popular long poem ever published by an American author, and one of the most famous poems in the language, recently published, is a pretty surprise for book-lovers. It is in large type, numerous and excellent illustrations, very fine and heavy paper, gilt edges, remarkably handsome cloth binding, combining in delicate colors, blue and white and silver and gold. No illustrated edition has ever before been published at less than $1.50, and that is about what you might "guess" the price of this to be, but it isn't—witness our offer below. Every home in the land ought to have a copy of this Evangeline, so charmingly beautiful, as a poem, as a collection of artistic illustrations, and as a product of the book-making art.
By special arrangements with the publisher we are able to offer this book to the subscribers to this paper as follows:
EVANGELINE and DAILY JOURNAL, one year, $5.50
" " " " six months, 2.00
" " " " three months, 1.67
" " " " WEEKLY JOURNAL, one year, 1.95
" " " " six months, .75
Under no circumstances does this proposition hold good except where payment is made in advance.
