An excellent program is being arranged for the Y. M. C. A. social Friday night.

The General Assembly of 1893 has passed into history. It adjourned since died at 1 p. m. Monday.

The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Y. M. C. A. will be held this evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. D. F. Jarvis, and Mr. C. P. Bradham have swung out new and handsome signs in front of their business places.

Messrs. Roberts & Bro., one of New Berne's most reliable mercantile firms, are well fixed up in their new brick building which they have just moved into opposite their old stand.

An extra large and strong carry log passed through on the freight train yesterday for the White Oak River Lumber Company. The wheels were about 10 1/2 feet high, other parts in proportion. It made in Michigan.

Several communications have been left out recently, simply on account of their length. The need for giving a good variety in the space at our command shuts us off from publishing long articles even when their merit otherwise makes them worthy of it.

The funeral of Mrs. S. Dudley was largely attended yesterday. It was in progress at the very time when the Benevolent Society of which she was the beloved president was to have been in regular meeting at her house according to announcement in the churches Sunday.

The Revenue Cutter, Winona returned from Washington N. C. yesterday morning. Later in the day, being signaled by the captain of the Betsy Jane, she rendered valuable assistance to the schooner which was disabled by a broken rudder. The officers of the schooner express thanks for the help given.

The caving in of the sidewalk on the United States Public building lot where the Hassell store formerly stood begins to make that place quite dangerous to people passing at night. A lady on her way to the lecture fell there last evening. Something should be done in reference to it without delay.

We are requested by quite a number of little folks to announce that the Juvenile fair will commence today at the residence of Dr. Chas. Duffy, and be open each afternoon, from 2 to 6 o'clock for a week. The charges for admission are 3 cents for children, 5 cents for adults, season tickets 10 cents. Master Richard Duffy is president.

The Fiber Works at Riverdale formerly owned and run by Messrs. Mallett Bros. will at no distant day be in operation again. The company now owning the property have made some improvements, and will make still others. They are at present advertising for large quantities of sapling poplar wood needed in their business.

The premium of $15 for the best thoroughbred stallion at the Fair was omitted in the publication of the list published. It was won by Mr. Thomas A. McIntyre, President of the New Berne Wilmington & Onslow R. R. Co. Mr. McIntyre also took premiums for the finest jack, buck, thoroughbred Holstein bull yearling, Holstein heifer, and for several varieties of poultry.

Many persons who have been shown civilities by Arthur Simmons, col., at the white house will be pleased to learn that he has been appointed to his old place by Mr. Cleveland. Arthur Simmons for some twenty years held an important place in the white house. When Mr. Harrison was elected he was removed and on Saturday immediately after Mr. Cleveland's inauguration he was restored to his old position, doubtless one of the best appointments. Previous to the war Arthur belonged to Mr. John Atkinson of this city.

Coming and Going. Mr. Geo. Allen left yesterday morning for Rocky Mount on business.

State Senator Potter, of Beaufort, who is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Raleigh Insane Asylum passed through en route from his home to attend a meeting of the Board.

Judge H. R. Bryan has returned from Greensboro.

Miss Susie Dancenberg is back from Goldsboro where she has been visiting friends.

Mrs. Chas. Gay has returned from a visit to relatives at Rocky Mount.

Mr. Russell Brose, and Mr. C. B. Wood, attorneys of Chicago came in on the steamer Albemarle on a pleasure trip.

Mrs. Jas. E. Fleming, of Newark, N. J. and Mrs. Gould, of Staten Island came in on the steamer Albemarle to visit Mrs. S. C. Radcliff. They are former residents of New Berne and Mrs. Fleming's husband was sheriff of the county directly after the war.

Mr. W. H. Bell and family of Riverdale left on the steamer Albemarle to visit at their former home in Branchville, N. J. Mr. Bell will extend his trip to New York on business.

Mrs. Bettie Whaley of the city and Miss Matilda Dixon of Morehead left on the steamer Albemarle for northern markets to purchase spring stocks of millinery.

Mr. Chas. L. Van Noppen representing Chas. L. Webster & Co., publishers of New York, is canvassing the city for a most excellent literary work of eleven volumes dealing with all the details of American history from the discovery by Columbus and giving the finest selections of every description from all American of recognized standing.

Messrs. W. W. Clark, W. B. Boyd, J. C. Green, Enoch Wadsworth, N. C. Hughes, J. T. Hollister, Mrs. M. S. Wilford and Messrs. Mary Oliver, Alice Harvey, Laura, Hughes and Emma Disoway, returned from Washington where they went to witness Cleveland's inauguration.

Death of Judge W. B. Rodman.

Washington, N. C. has lost one of her foremost citizens, Judge William Blount Rodman died at his home there Tuesday morning at 4:30 o'clock, after an illness of two weeks.

Judge Rodman was born June 29, 1817 making him nearly 76 years of age. He was a native of Washington, and it was his life long home. He served in the war as captain, and he was a member of the Supreme court bench of the State from 1869 to 1878. He was elected to this position direct from the bar.

Judge Rodman's health has been failing since the death of his wife in 1887, but he continued in active practice of his profession until a few weeks before his death.

He leaves six children, three sons and three daughters; one of whom is Mrs. O. H. Guion of this city. She left for Washington on the morning train a half hour after the receipt of the telegram announcing her father's death.

Two Large Advertisers.

Mr. Wm. H. Stewart, of Buffalo, N. Y. advertising agent for Dr. R. V. Pierce's World's Dispensary of that city, left Monday morning after placing a contract with the JOURNAL.

The house he represents is one of the best known of the country. It advertises largely, and does a tremendous business. A winter or two ago Dr. Pierce paid a visit to this city, and neither he nor his beautiful and elegantly furnished yacht are forgotten by any means.

Mr. Chas. S. Heath, of Boston, Mass. is now in the city representing A. P. Ordway & Co. of that place. He has been distributing a thousand eighty-page pamphlets, "Kaufman on diseases, its causes and Home Cure" by Carl Ernst Kaufman M. D., a Prussian physician of note, and late professor of the theory and practice of medicine at the University of Berlin.

Messrs. Ordway & Co., are just introducing their proprietary medicine (the right for which was purchased from Dr. Kaufman) in this section, but Mr. Heath informs us that they do an immense business, have for several years past expanded the use of thousands of newspapers, and also other methods of reaching the public and the best evidence of their finding it a paying investment is the way they are increasing it, and their business corresponding growing as time progresses.

A child of Sarah Dillashaw, col., was seriously burned by accident Monday about three miles from the city.

In his lecture last night in Christ Church, Rev. F. L. H. Pott discoursed interestingly of missionary work in China, and particularly of Episcopal effort with special reference to its educational aspects. Mr. Pott is President of the Episcopal college at Shanghai for the education of Chinese boys and young men and he is making a special effort in this country to raise funds for the erection of a new building to take the place of the one now used for college purposes.

THE STEAM FERRY.

A Correspondent Elaborates Upon Its Establishment, and Its Benefits.

NEW BERNE, N. C. March 7th, 1893. Mr. Hill Humphry,

My Dear Sir:—In a recent conversation held with you in the city of Raleigh, upon the proposed steam ferry across the Neuse and Trent rivers, you asked me to state my views as regards to the benefits that would accrue to the mercantile patrons of the city of New Berne, and to the people living in the lower parts of Beaufort county, and in Pamlico county.

In reply, I will say, that I have given the matter much thought and consideration, and I have arrived at this conclusion, that there never has been a project set on foot in New Berne, which if carried out, will prove so much pecuniary benefit to the people at large, as the one of which you are the originator and advocate. I will now, as briefly as possible state my reasons for having arrived at this conclusion.

It is a fact that the greater facilities for transportation and travel are much needed in Craven county, with its broad and almost impassable rivers, that render the lower part of Beaufort county and Pamlico county almost unknown quantities in our mercantile affairs, as well as social relations. These facilities can be afforded only by a steam ferry, as the width of Neuse river precludes the possibility of its being bridged for very many years, owing to the great cost of the build and keeping in good repair. Such a bridge would require over 100,000 feet of plank to floor it, and this to be refitted every three years, to say nothing of other repairs, and to be rebuilt entirely every 10 or 12 years.

I am confident in the assertion that the steam ferry would be a paying investment from the commencement, as it would absorb as soon as commenced nearly all the ferrying now done by small open boats, canoes and each person ten cents per head, and the absorption of the one half of this ferrying would more than pay the running expenses of a steam ferry.

As matters now are, it is as great a journey from New Berne to Aurora in Beaufort county, or to Bayboro in Pamlico county and return, as it is to go to the city of Chicago—it would involve as much time, and at least one third of the expense.

Now as to the positive certainty of its being an assured good investment, the trade from New Berne with the lower parts of Beaufort and Pamlico counties, is constantly increasing, notwithstanding the difficulty and danger of crossing in small open boats as rough and tempestuous a river as the Neuse with a steamer ferry of sufficient capacity to take wagons loaded with country produce, and buggies and carriages at the small cost of twenty-five cents, and each person ten cents per head, and land them on either side of the river, buggies, wagons and passengers in the short space of ten minutes, the trade of New Berne with Beaufort and Pamlico counties would be vastly increased. It is plain to the most ordinary intelligence, that a steam ferry would eventually absorb all of the trade, to say nothing of the immense increase consequent upon the great reduction in the charge of ferrying vehicles and horses, to say a reduction from $2.00 to 50 cents.

The population of New Berne will approximate 9,000. I ask, how many are there in this who know anything of the country on the North side of Neuse river, its soil, its climate or its people; let me assure them, as far as regards all three, it is one of the best portions of the State; Aurora in Beaufort county is a thriving village or township, with a highly intelligent and prosperous population, mostly agricultural, with a soil of unsurpassed fertility; Bayboro, Stonewall and Vandemere, also prosperous villages in Pamlico county, with a like population. These sections of country and their people are now almost isolated from New Berne, and to a very large majority of our people, they are almost unknown.

New Berne is beyond all question the best located city in North Carolina, either on a river or on a water resort, its location, its isolation, the great difficulty of getting out to the surrounding country, which all visitors desire to see and to know, and this very difficulty is one of the causes that operates against its prosperity. Strangers visiting a town or city for pleasure, do not often select as a place of resort, a town, surrounded by broad and tempestuous rivers, with no way to visit its surrounding country, but the slow and dangerous way of small sail boats. This state of affairs is behind the age, and should be changed, we must establish a steam ferry, that is our only remedy.

Now, a word to the merchants of New Berne, if you wish to increase your trade, very greatly, with the north side of Neuse river, lend a helping hand, take stock in the enterprise, you cannot increase your business by sitting down, folding your hands or "lying supine" upon your backs. "You must be up and doing." "The Gods help those that help themselves," and if there are any among you, who are content to glide down the grade of life in the same old business ruts, who think they want no further business acquaintance, and have no desire for an increase of trade, then I suggest, take no stock in it, do not invest one cent, and do not talk against the enterprise. The citizens of Pamlico and Beaufort are ripe for it; they know that if carried out, it will be a great convenience to them and of much pecuniary benefit, for rapid communication will develop their resources, and increase the value of their land. I am confident that a well managed steam ferry, will be of far greater benefit to New Berne than a Railroad. It is true, that both are beneficial; a steam ferry can do no injury work only that which is of great good, and that continually. On the contrary, and unfortunately, it is so a railroad often ruins some business enterprise or locality. There are now living in the lower part of Beaufort and in Pamlico counties, 8 to 10,000 people who are debarrd from trading here, in consequence of want of quick transportation. Give them this transportation, and its good influence will be quickly felt. A liberal reward will be given for its return at this office.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

FIFTY-FIRST DAY.

SENATE.

The bill to provide for the support of the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

Much opposition was developed to the bill on account of the feature which appropriated $5,000 for the purchase of lands adjoining the college.

An amendment was adopted by which the appropriation for land was stricken out. The bill then passed its third reading. At 12 o'clock Senator Poirer arose to a question of personal privilege and reminded the Senate that at this hour Grover Cleveland was being inaugurated for a second time as President of the United States, and that the government was now passing in the hands of the party which was its founder. He concluded by moving that the house resolution which tenders the congratulations of the General Assembly be adopted and that the president of the senate and speaker of the house unite in a dispatch to President Cleveland, conveying the resolution. The resolution was adopted unanimously amid enthusiastic cheers.

The resolution was as follows: A joint resolution of congratulation to his Excellency Grover Cleveland, President of the United States.

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, that the hearty congratulations of the General Assembly of North Carolina, are hereby tendered to Hon. Grover Cleveland upon his again assuming the great of President of the United States to which he has for a second time been overwhelmingly elected by his fellow citizens.

His former illustrious administration gives assurance that during his present term of office the execution of the laws will be non-sectional, impartial and in the interest of all the people.

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate be instructed to immediately telegraph the above resolution to President Cleveland.

The resolutions which had been adopted by the House were adopted by a rising vote of the Senate, only one lone Third partyite refusing to vote.

The bill providing for the quarantine station at Southport passed third reading by a vote of 23 to 13, as it passed second reading last night.

Bill to increase the appropriation of the colored orphan asylum from $1,000 to $1,500 passed third reading.

The bill to establish a North Carolina reform school failed to pass its second reading.

The following bills passed third reading: House bill, to prevent fraudulent assignments.

Bill to provide for the employment and support of convicts in the penitentiary (appropriated $25,000 as contingent fund).

Lieut. Gov. Doughton was presented with a fine gold headed cane by Senator Merritt and with a beautiful silver butter dish by Senator Poirer; and Senator King a fine gold-headed cane in behalf of Senators. Also Chief Clerk Burkhead was presented with a fine gold-headed cane and meerschaum pipe. Appropriate and touching speeches and replies accompanied the presentations.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. A bill to prohibit the sale of deadly weapons to minors was reported. The committee reported a substitute, and as amended the bill passed.

House bill, 637, to amend the Code relative to Building and Loan Associations was amended and passed.

The house concurred in the senate amendments to the quarantine bill, for the establishment of the station at Southport.

The penitentiary appropriation bill was reconsidered and a contingent appropriation of $25,000 made to be used only by consent of the Governor.

A message was received from the Senate stating that it refused to concur in the House amendment making the State Guard appropriation only $8,000, and a conference committee was appointed.

A Card of Thanks. I hereby extend to the Fire Department of New Berne this expression of my appreciation of their valued services in so promptly and effectively stopping with such small loss to me the flames which threatened great destruction to my property. T. F. MCCARTHY.

Photographic Exhibition. Commencing with today, (Tuesday Feb. 28th) the photograph which was at the Fair, will be on exhibition in the Green Front Novelty Store next to the Baptist church. Price, 10 cents for three pieces. W. J. SMITH.

BROAD STREET FRUIT STORE. Just arrived a fresh lot of northern fruit, pears, apples, peaches, bananas, coconuts, rutabagas, turnips, apples and lemons.

To my friends and patrons while passing Broad St. please call. Any article purchased of my stock not as represented, the money I will refund on return of any article. Thanking you kindly for past favors hoping to receive a continuance of your patronage.
