CLEVELAND is very bland. Bland is not bland at all.

It is probable that Ex-Senator Wade Hampton will be appointed U. S. Railroad Commissioner.

Gov. FLOWER is playing the part of a Cleveland-Hill man. If he don't mind he will get withered.

THERE is still about $60,000 of the amount of direct taxes still uncollected for in the state treasury at Raleigh.

AT the annual meeting of the directors of the Atlanta and Charlotte Air Line, held in New York March 8th, Eugene Kelly was elected President.

THE Snappers and the anti-Snappers are at war in the State of New York. First blood won by the anti Snappers. That is to say the Cleveland men bled the Hill men.

MR. CLEVELAND has warned the office seekers to go home and mind their own business. They hang around all the same, however just as if they did not believe him; and he shakes hands with them by the hour.

WHEN the clerks employed in the Interior Department reached their offices at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning they learned to their astonishment that their chief, the new Secretary, had arrived and had been hard at work for nearly three quarters of an hour. Secretary Smith has set his associates a good example.

THE Senate census committee was in session over six hours Wednesday. Nothing definite was done, though it was pretty well determined to deviate from the customary rule in giving out chairmanships to the Democratic Senators and it is probable that some committees of minor importance will be done away with. No Presidential nominations will be acted upon until the committees are appointed, and for this reason the committee will decide upon the committees as soon as possible. In the mean time the Republican Senators are simply awaiting the action of their Democratic friends.

The following incident is narrated, and slightly changed it might point a moral or adorn a tale. A certain man, having become rich, built a fine house with modern improvements, and then got himself a piano and a flower garden. He determined also to have a library. With this purpose in view, he visited a large book store, and seeing the shelves stocked with volumes, some in red covers, some in blue and some in calf, gave his order to the bookseller in this wise: "Send me twenty-five yards of the blues, thirty yards of the reds, fifteen yards of the blacks, and ten yards of the calves." That was his idea of a library.

Cleveland declares that his rule not to appoint postmasters, etc., who held office under him before will be substantially inflexible. There may be extraordinary circumstances that might cause a departure from it but he could not call to mind many possibilities to justify a departure from the policy decided upon.

Postmaster-General Bisell announces that no local business men need apply for postoffices. He objects to such because the actual duties are performed by irresponsible and often incompetent substitutes. He intends for his appointees to devote their entire time to the work and personally keep strict office hours.

The sewerage company will soon be fixed in their new brick office built for them by Mr. Jas. Redmond. It was finished yesterday. The new large brick warehouse at the rear of it is used by the Standard Oil company which has been represented in the city several years by Mr. W. R. Guion. They have quite a large quantity of oil on hand, a portion of which was received yesterday by steamer.

Another business change yesterday. Capt. Thos. Gates, one of New Berne's conservative and most successful men purchased an interest in the food, grain and seed business of Mr. C. D. Bradham. The firm will be Bradham & Gates. It is intended to still further enlarge the business. The Captain's long and extensive experience added to Mr. Bradham's youthful energy and steady application, will make the firm's standing one.

Mr. W. H. Hooten agent for the New Home Sewing Machine returned from Fort Barnwell where he has been making a delivery.

Y. M. C. A. Entertainment. The Entertainment last night was one of the best ever held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall.

The program was varied and well rendered throughout.

It opened with a vocal quartette by Messrs. H. P. Willis, J. K. Willis, E. E. Harper and Wm. McIntosh.

Then came a piano and cornet trio by Misses Mollie Windfield and Nellie Bowden, and Mr. E. E. Harper.

A recitation by Miss Grace Core was warmly applauded and endorsed. Miss Core is especially fine in recitation, and has made a lasting impression upon New Berne people.

Then came a bass solo by Mr. H. P. Willis, a piano duet by Misses Ives and Stevenson, and a recitation, "Napoleon at Maring," by Rev. Edward Bull.

A quartette by Messrs. Snelling, Willis, McIntosh and Miss Maud Land was very well received as was also a recitation by Mr. J. V. Winfield, "An Appeal in Behalf of Ireland."

A novel feature, never attempted before, was introduced here, lantern swinging by Mr. C. J. McSorley. The exhibition was given in the dark with red lanterns. It was gracefully executed and was remarkably beautiful. Mr. McSorley was called back and the repetition was viewed with as much delight as the first presentation. He was accompanied by Miss Agnes Foy on the piano.

Then came another bass solo by Mr. H. P. Willis.

The program closed with a few specialties in athletic performances accompanied by Mr. C. L. Gaskill on the piano. Those taking part were Messrs. C. J. McSorley, Clifton Waters, Seth Gibbs, W. S. Cox, Guy Styron, Clarence Smith, Will and Eugene Emmett, Chas. Hill, Ferd Hahn and Sam Dill.

The young men took part with much earnestness and zeal, and appeared to fine advantage. The audience appeared delighted at their cleverness and cheered them heartily.

The evening was a most pleasant one and the association returns its thanks to those who so kindly aided in the program.

Broke out of Pitt County Jail. A special from Greenville to the Wilmington Messenger tells that five negro prisoners escaped from the county jail there on the night of the 8th. The staple holding the lock was filed from the inside and forced, which opened the door of the cell. With the file and a poker they cut through the brick wall into the corridor and then opened the front door from the inside. One white prisoner confined up stairs heard them and says it occurred about 9 o'clock. One of them, Silas Forbes, returned and surrendered himself to the sheriff.

Will Meet Next Week. Next week the incorporators of the New Berne steam ferry will hold a meeting, and then seek for subscriptions.

New Berne is nearly 30 years old, and there are now 30,000 people on the north side of Neuse river, on the south side of Trent, and in the city; and yet the same means of crossing these rivers are used that were in vogue when the town was in its infancy. Take stock in the steam ferry, and let this be the case no longer.

Balloon Ascension on the 18th. It has been decided that the balloon ascension and parachute leap of Mrs. Nellie Steele will take place next Saturday afternoon if the weather permits. If the weather is unfavorable the ascension will be postponed until Monday.

There was a good supply of very fine poultry on the str. Neuse yesterday bound to points in North Carolina and Virginia from Mr. W. H. Bray's Green Place poultry yards. The shipment embraced coops of silver sprangled Holland, white Orated, white Polish, white Plymouth Rocks, barred Plymouth Rocks and buff Cochins. Mr. Bray has others on his coast book awaiting shipment.

The weather forecast received at noon yesterday read: "Fair, followed by local showers on the coast Saturday afternoon or night."

An Early Agreement Probable. We learn that the people of James City have determined to take some action next week looking to an amicable adjustment of the differences between themselves and the owner of the property on which they reside.

This will be a commendable action on their part, and we doubt not it will result in the making of satisfactory arrangements, for we are told that Mr. Bryan still holds out the very generous offers to all that he extended when the courts decided beyond all question that he was the owner of the property—namely, to make the rentals a mere nominal sum, only one dollar a month for the most valuable places, 75 cents for the next class, 50 cents for the next and only 25 cents per month for the least valuable ones—(only about one-fifth of what similar property would rent for in New Berne), and further, to let a joint committee be appointed composed of representatives of James City and others chosen by himself, who shall value the property for such rental purposes, and divide it into the four specified classes; and moreover to let all aged and decrepit people remain in the places they are occupying free of charge, and likewise to let all churches and school houses be rent free so long as they are used for those purposes.

Kinston Knitting Mills Still Advancing. At the stockholders meeting of the Knitting Mills Tuesday night the report of the committee was adopted to offer for sale not to exceed $10,000 of preferred stock. A resolution was unanimously adopted that the proceeds of the first $5,000 of stock sold be used to pay the mortgage debt of equal amount.

Messrs. L. Harvey, B. W. Cunnely and Dr. H. Tull were appointed as a committee to solicit subscriptions to this stock. This committee is to report to another meeting of the stockholders to be held in the court house on Monday night, March 20th. We hope the committee will get to work at once and get all the preferred stock taken.

Common stock can be secured on the same terms as heretofore, and the Free Press would be glad to see $5,000 of that sold, making, if all the preferred stock is disposed of, with that already invested, nearly $25,000. This would double the capacity of the mill, pay its debt and give sufficient capital for operating expenses. It would, we feel confident, place the mill on a dividend paying basis. We honestly believe that this would enable the mill to carry at least ten per cent. on all the stock, which would make the common stock more valuable than the preferred.—Kinston Free Press.

The Knitting Mills of Kinston have been one of the most beneficial enterprises that that town has ever had. The inhabitants have seen this and from time to time worked successfully for them to attain a still higher plane. Kinston is proud of the mills and has reasons to be.

The New Berne Knitting mills are yet in their infancy. They pay even though they are run on a small scale, but if enlarged sufficiently they would pay still better and the city in general would feel their beneficial effects vastly more.

The opportunity for investment in the mills is now offered; our citizens should grasp the opportunity, the more they invest in it the better it will be for all affected by the industry.

(To be Continued.)

Hon. F. M. Simmons for Collector of Eternal Revenue.

The North Carolina delegation in Congress have decided to recommend Congressman Simmons, chairman of the State Committee, for Collector of Internal Revenue for the Eastern District, and it is believed he will receive the appointment. His willingness to accept has simplified the situation. There were nearly forty applicants.

It is also understood that the delegation has practically agreed on Mr. Glenn, of Winston-Salem, for the United States Attorney for his district. Kope Elias is a candidate for the same position, and his friends claim his loyalty to Cleveland may get him the position, but the delegation feel pledged to urge the appointment of Mr. Glenn on account of the brilliant work done by him on the stump in the last campaign. They regard him as, by long odds the choice of the people.—Wash. Cor. Dispatch.

Seed Sweet Potatoes Will be Scarce. Farmers had better look out at once for the seed sweet potatoes. They froze generally throughout the country, during the cold snap.

An old colored man who has been sowing his seed potatoes for 25 years, says that after a thorough search he has been able to find only one potato, and that about the size of his thumb. Now and then some one is heard to say that he has potatoes, but where one says this ten say the reverse.

We do not believe that there is enough potatoes in the county to plant half the beds planted last year.—Washington Gazette.
