THE Wilmington Star thus classifies the U. S. Senate: "There is one preacher, one doctor, one journalist and sixty-four lawyers in the United States Senate, and some that are not much of anything."

INDEPENDENCE.

There is something magical in the word Independence. The Declaration of Independence kindled the fires of Revolution and kept them burning on the alters of Liberty.

But, we are not going to dilaute upon national independence today. We love the Union, but we love this Southern land more than all the world besides. Southern men sometimes boast of their independence when really they are the most dependent of mortals.

We want to see the south self-sustaining, independent of other sections for the supply of its daily wants. There is not, in all the world, a land so blessed by heaven as this our beloved South. With a salubrious climate and a fertile soil the South ought to be a bountiful contributor to the food supplies of the nations, when in truth she does not supply the demands of her own people.

We are told, and our experience verifies it, that the prices of meats of all kinds, meal, potatoes, and other common articles of food, have seldom been higher in the Southern States than at present. These prices should forcibly impress a lesson in domestic economy, long accepted in theory as correct, but to a very limited extent observed in practice. That lesson is the absolute necessity of raising home supplies.

It is wonderful, or at all strange, that the people of the South are on the verge of financial ruin when they are exchanging two pounds of cotton for one pound of western meat. Then, again, they are buying great quantities of northern hay, when the natural grasses of the country, which are much superior, could be had for the gathering.

To see a homely expression the great need of the south is "hog and hominy."

If we would be independent we must abandon our dependence upon the North and West for such supplies as can be easily raised on our own farms.

REMARKABLE RESCUE.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught a child who settled on her lungs, she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption, and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and, to her delight, found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at F. S. Duffy's wholesale and retail drug store; large bottles, 50c, and $1.00.

They that stand high have many blasts to shake them; and if they fall, they dash themselves to pieces.

The First Step.

Perhaps you are run down, can't eat, can't sleep, can't think, can't do anything to your satisfaction, and you wonder what ails you. You should heed the warning: you are taking the first step into Nervous Prostration. You need a nerve tonic and in Electric Bitters you will find the exact remedy for restoring your nervous system to its normal, healthy condition. Surprising results follow the use of this great Nerve Tonic and Alternative. Your appetite returns; good digestion is restored; and the Liver and Kidneys resume healthy action. Try a bottle. Price 50c. at F. S. Duffy's drug store.

If we had no defects, we should not take so much pleasure in discovering those of others.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold, a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 10c, 50c, and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by New Berne Drug Co.

We are all of us made more graceful by the inward presence of what we believe to be a generous purpose.

The Population of New Berne

Is about nine thousand, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on our druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large bottle 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.

It wouldn't take so long to take the world for Christ if more people would say amen with their money.

The Handsome Lady in New Berne

Remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other cough remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merit any druggist will give you a sample bottle free. Large size 50c, and $1.

It is a step toward heaven to find out that we were made of the same kind of clay as other people.

Answer This Question.

Why do so many people we see around us seem to prefer to suffer and be made miserable by indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Coming up of the Food, Yellow Skin, when for 75c, we will sell them Shiloh's Vitalizer, guaranteed to cure them. Sold by New Berne Drug Co.

A PRETTY SURPRISE.

A beautifully illustrated and charmingly bound edition of Longfellow's "Evangeline," the most popular long poem ever published by an American author, and one of the most famous poems in the language, recently published, is a pretty surprise for book-lovers. It is in large type, numerous and excellent illustrations, very fine and heavy paper, gilt edges, remarkably handsome cloth binding, combining, in delicate colors, blue and white and silver and gold. No illustrated edition has ever before been published at less than $1.50, and that is about what you might "guess" the price of this to be, but it isn't—witness our offer below. Every home in the land ought to have a copy of this Evangeline, so charmingly beautiful, as a poem, as a collection of artistic illustrations, and as a product of the book-making art.

Our Offer. By special arrangements with the publisher we are able to offer this book to the subscribers to this paper as follows:
