S. A. Geologist Holmes and Civil Engineer Cain are working on needed lines in issuing a bulletin on road building. The Messenger is constantly striving to help the State in that direction. No people can long stand such roads as curse North Carolina. The millions of dollars lost each year by bad roads would make the ordinary mortal stare with stupidity if he could have the tabulated estimates right before his eyes.—Messenger.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Howard, Rom Nunn—Popular Music.

Elliott & Green—Hair dressers.

S. Cain & Son—Fine beef.

S. R. Street—Auction sale.

Winfield & Gaskins—Horse shoeing.

Mr. J. A. Jones received a fine supply of buggies by the steamer Nelse yesterday.

The subject for discussion in the meeting at the Church of Christ tonight will be "The Restoration of Peter."

Mr. M. Blumgardt has bought out the saloon of Mr. C. Erdman, and will continue the business at the same stand.

James Battle col., who has been mail agent on the A. & N. C. Railroad for some time, died Sunday morning at his home in Goldsboro of hemorrhage. The remains were brought to New Berne for interment.

The Murchad City News says the population of Morehead is almost treble what it was 12 years ago. A local census of the place has recently been taken and the present number of inhabitants found to be 1,425.

An opportunity was given the people of James City yesterday to sign a paper of compliance with the very generous provisions Mr. Bryan holds out to them. Nothing was accomplished, however. The people held a meeting last night, but what transpired in it we did not learn.

The general committee having in charge the entertainment of the Press Association held a good meeting at the city hall last night and appointed sub-committees, which will take hold at once on the work of preparation for the event. The names of committees will be published in full.

Around the pulpit of the Presbyterian church Sunday was beautiful with floral decorations—not more so, however, than usual. The ladies of the church see that the pulpit surroundings are always made as charming as the loveliest cut and growing flowers, and plants arranged with the utmost taste, and with the most exquisite skill can make them. They deserve the highest praise for the zeal they manifest in this direction.

The appearance of Queen street has been considerably changed by the grading for the railroad. Though the hill parts were not very high there are places where the sidewalks are about a head higher than the road—now that the high part of it has been cut away. Low portions have been correspondingly raised. The "frog pond" is now a foot or two higher than portions of neighboring streets, and as one observer and resident remarked yesterday. They'll have to look for a new place for a frog pond now; the old one is a thing of the past. The intention is to grade the sidewalks later.

Election of Vestrymen.

The election yesterday of Vestrymen of Christ (Episcopal) Church for the ensuing year resulted in the choosing of the following gentlemen for the office:

Messrs. G. H. Roberts, John Dunn, H. R. Bryan, Graham Daves, J. R. B. Carraway, E. K. Bishop and E. B. Roberts.

Coming and Going.

Mr. H. M. Groves left yesterday morning for Goldsboro and possibly other points on business.

Mr. C. D. Dockham of the Stinson Lumber Company, left yesterday morning for Chelsea, Mass., to move his own family and that of his father-in-law Mr. F. B. Folsom, from their present home there to New Berne. Their residence which they are building a short distance from the mill will be ready for occupancy in a few weeks more.

Mr. J. C. Whitty left for Morehead last night on business.

Mr. C. Reizenstein left on the steamer Nelse yesterday on a Northern business trip.

Misses Riddle, Kehoe and Eda O'Neal left on the steamer Nelse to take the round trip on pleasure.

TOMATO PLANTS For sale at $4.00 per M. or 50 cents per hundred. Good vigorous plants, varieties, Roma and Trophy. Waxed Cabbage plants at $2.00 per M. or $1.50 per M. for 5,000 and over. Address NORMAN H. BRYAN, 1111m Young's Island, Colston Co., S. C.

EASTER SUNDAY.

Its Observance in Different Churches—The Sabbath School Easter Exercises at the Episcopal Church.

Last Sabbath opened with the signs of a rainy day, but the clouds soon dispersed and a day, delightful in every way ensued.

The services in the Catholic, Episcopal and Centenary M. E. churches were specially designed as celebrations of Easter day with applicable sermons. Sermons on the Resurrection were also preached by Rev. J. F. Butt, of Hancock Street Methodist church; Rev. D. H. Petree, of the Church of Christ and Rev. Rufus Ford of the Baptist church.

In the Catholic church Holy Communion was held at 8 a. m. and services at the usual hours morning and evening, both of which our entire population attended and also nearly twice as many non-Catholics as Catholics.

There were only a moderate amount of floral decorations but those that were shown were select and well arranged and the singing was considered the finest the church has ever had.

A general interest in the annual Easter exercises at Christ church (Episcopal) Sunday school pervaded our citizens and some half hour before the first stroke of the bell visitors were pouring into the church and it was half filled by the time the bell began to ring and well packed, with the exception of the front central portion reserved for the Sabbath school classes, by the time the opening hour arrived. Even the gallery was full.

A charming programme had been carefully prepared and practiced and was carried out perfectly to the letter.

The Sunday school formed in beautiful procession outside, each class carrying a lovely silk banner with the designation of the class and a floral cross led the procession.

The school entered singing the processional "We March, we March, to Victory." They passed up by the middle aisle marched up to the altar, then divided, one-half passing to each of the side aisles and down them to the pews reserved for each one.

The singing of the Easter Carols was exceptionally good and was fittingly accompanied by the powerful organ, Miss Nellie Walker presiding at the instrument.

The opening exercises being finished the offerings by the classes took place. The aggregate of which was over $200.

The Easter offering by the church is $440.

Three members of each class went forward at a time to make the offering—one carrying the banner of the class, another the offering and the third a cloth imitation of a rock slab bordered with evergreens with the name of a christian grace "truth," "kindness," "hope," "patience," "meekness," etc. Accompanying each of these designs was an appropriate verse of scripture which the rector received and read and announced the amount of the contribution. The designs as they were received were built into a pretty arch with "Love to the Lord" and Love to thy Neighbor as foundation stones and the simple word "Love" as the keystone and underneath the word Love was suspended as in the act of flight towards the audience a white dove emblematic of the Holy Spirit and over all was a crown formed of yellow roses.

The arch being completed Mr. George made a pleasing talk to the children based upon it and its component parts and also distributed numerous prizes to members of the school.

Copies of the new standard prayer book were presented to Master John G. Dunn and Misses Octavia Hughes, Katie Matthews, Alice Spencer and Bettie Windley for the perfect recital of the whole church catechism.

Copies of the same work of another grade were given Misses Eliza Simmons, Nannie Collins, Sude Collins and Nita Simpson for the perfect recital of a portion of the catechism and a third prize of Easter booklets for the perfect recital of a lesser portion was given to Masters Murtlock Barron and Carlisle Winslow and Miss Ethel Hughes.

Honorable mention was made of Miss Annie Elizabeth Howell and Masters Clarence Smith, Frederick Smith and Alpheus Disoway.

Miss Harriet Winslow received a Prayer book for standing the best examining in the "Bible Lessons."

Prizes of prayer books were also given to Masters Wm. Dunn, and Jno. F. George and Misses Bertha M. Kafer and Maud Smith for being perfect in every thing—deportment and lessons—from Advent to Easter.

The following scholars were mentioned as being on the Roll of Honor in addition to the four who were perfect: Miss Annie Howell, Masters Guion Dunn and Arthur Kafer, and Misses Isabella Bryan and Martha Roberts.

On the second Honor grade were Masters Harold Whitehurst, Frank Matthews, Fred Smith and Mabel Hughes.

The Roll of Honor for the infant school was Miss Amy Guion and Masters Henry Harrell and Wallace Smith. Those were perfect in every thing and were given prizes of Easter booklets.

Miss Fette Guion's class was the banner class. Its average grade was 96 out of a possible 100.

The floral decorations at Centenary

Methodist church were beautiful and lavish, surpassing in quantity those of any other church in the city. There were about six dryloads of them. The pots of fine blooms exceeded 200 in number.

At the morning service the regular weekly collection and the usual collection for the poor, which is always made on the first Sabbath in every month, were taken up, and the Easter offerings were in addition to these collections, and yet the Easter offerings footed up the grand sum of $503—the best one that has yet been taken. Of late years the Easter offerings at this church have been steadily growing larger. Last year it was about $460.

The Easter offerings of the Missionary Society of the Sunday-school will be made at its regular monthly meeting next Sabbath.

A Skeleton in the Street.

As the street force was grading. Broad street yesterday a whole human skeleton was dug up about a foot below the surface. It was buried lying east and west just as the street runs and exactly in the middle of the street, in front of Mrs. Windley's residence. It was of such an age that the bones could be crumbled to pieces in the hands almost as easily as a piece of dry hard clay. The teeth were perfectly preserved, but the skull had been broken in. A retreating forehead indicated that the individual was of some other than the Caucasian race. There was no sign of a box or coffin—no nails, screws or handles which would be almost sure to be there if one had been used—could be found.

An explanation of the body's not being any deeper in the ground lies in the fact that that portion of the street is an elevated one and the road bed has at some former period been made lower than it formerly was. But how came the body there at all? None could tell and it is not at all likely that any more light will ever be thrown on the subject. Conjectures were rife but the nearest any one came to solving the problem was to suppose that it was an Indian. There is a tradition that prior to the coming of De Graffenried to this country when the present site of New Berne was an Indian village named Chatoka, that this retired ground was in the vicinity where the skeleton was exhumed.

Bad Conduct at Church.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—Some boys have been arrested and fined for bad behavior on the streets but there is something much worse than that and that is the misbehavior of persons in church during church service.

This has been going on at one of the churches here now for some time by males and females. They have been fully warned about it from the pulpit, but still they continue it and patience has ceased to be a virtue. Their names are on record and if they will not take warning they will be surprised some morning to have a police officer escort them up before the authorities and everybody ought to know that the fine for disturbing those around us in church is $20.00 and they are tolerably scarce now-a-days. A word to the wise ought to be sufficient.

To the Voters of the 5th Ward.

It must be perfectly clear to every observant and intelligent resident of our ward, that the past year has been one of decided improvement in its condition. The lighting and drainage of our streets have been completed. Our water privileges are equal to any enjoyed in any part of the city, and our pumps have been kept in order. We all know that these favorable conditions are due to the untiring effort of our Councilman I. Wayne Entbank. His successful efforts should unite us in showing our confidence and approval by re-electing him to the position he has so ably filled. VOTEK.

Ladies Memorial Association.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies Memorial Association today (Tuesday) at twelve o'clock at the residence of Mrs. John Hughes. The meeting is an important one. Matters concerning the Richmond Bazar, relics, etc., will be discussed, and all members are earnestly requested to attend. Mrs. M. K. NASH, Sec. L. M. A.

CAPE HATTERAS LIGHT HOUSE.

Opinion of an Experienced Keeper on the Subject.

Capt. C. B. Keeler, of Portsmouth, N. C., an experienced lighthouse keeper, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Keeler thinks there is very little danger of a second failure in constructing the Cape Hatteras light, and that failure would not have resulted in the first instance, but for the fact that too much time was consumed while the good weather lasted in transporting the caisson from Norfolk.

A favorable season was watched for the transportation, which worked entirely satisfactorily, but the work of placing it had not proceeded far enough to make it secure when the storm came. To build the caisson closer to the site of the proposed lighthouse would beyond doubt be more satisfactory, even if a temporary shop of suitable dimensions and equipments had to be erected for the purpose.

Mr. Keeler considers the lighthouse very important, and holds, in common with us, the opinion that the Government should have it built at once regardless of the trouble or expense.

Mr. Keeler says from his observation May and November are the best months in the whole year for such work in the Hatteras waters, and that if there is any difference in the two, it is in favor of November.
