THE COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.
 (Special Correspondence)

As to the exhibits, they will by no means present only the phenomenal and wonderful but will be a faithful presentation of the past and present development of the arts and sciences with now and then a glimpse of what we may expect in the future. The artist, the artisan, the professional man, the farmer, the miner, in short men of high degree and low will find here the best productions of brain and brawn from every civilized nation on the Earth. Beside the display of inventions and discoveries, the real life of the whole world will be shown by sample. For instance last week the Java exhibit arrived: men, women and children, even the King's favorite Orangoutang, together with twenty five carloads of stuff. They will have a native village and will carry on all the typical industries as at home. Hence it is easy to see how the Fair will give one that broad education and general knowledge which belongs only to a man of travel, many exhibits are already in place. A hundred carloads are about the ground, and fourteen hundred in and about the City. The Fair will open on time, in May when President Cleveland will press the button and set all in motion. Invitations for the opening exercises are being issued.

The comfort and convenience of visitors to the Fair have been admirably provided for by the exhibition Directors. Lake water will be free everywhere. Meals at moderate prices may be obtained at scores of places within the grounds. Free waiting rooms, chairs and settees will abound. Fifteen hundred 'Guards' will be stationed about the grounds and Pleasance to preserve order, answer questions, and give information. Five hundred 'Guides' will conduct parties through the Fair explaining and describing the exhibits. Sixteen hundred young men will convey visitors through the exposition with ease and comfort. But perhaps the most delightful mode of transit will be the Venetian Gondolas and Japanese Barges on the lagoons which wind everywhere through this nineteenth century Eden making a beautiful watery labyrinth.

The Exposition will be opened in readiness for visitors May 1. An abundance of drinking water, the best supplied to any great city in the world, will be provided free to all. The report that a charge would be made for drinking water probably arose from the fact that hygeia water can also be had by those who may desire it at one cent a glass.

Ample provisions for seating will be made without charge. About 1,500 toilet rooms and closets will be located at convenient points in the buildings and about the grounds, and they will be absolutely free to the public. This is a large number in proportion to the estimated attendance as has ever been provided in any exposition. In addition to these there will also be nearly an equal number of lavatories and toilet rooms of a costly and handsome character as exhibits for the use of which a charge of five cents will be made.

The admission fee of 50 cents will entitle the visitor to see and enter all the Exposition buildings, lands, the exhibits, and, in short, to see everything within the Exposition grounds, except the Esplanade Village and the reproduction of the Colorado cliff dwellings. For these we will see for the special attractions an Midway Plaisance's usual fee will be charged.

Imposition or extortion of any description will not be tolerated. Free medicine and emergency hospital service is provided on the grounds by the Exposition management.

The Bureau of Public Comfort will provide commodious free waiting-rooms, including spacious ladies parlor and toilet rooms in various parts of the grounds.

The many cases of rheumatism cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm during the past few months have given the people great confidence in its curative properties, and have shown that there is one preparation that can be depended upon for that painful and aggravating disease. Honaker Bros. of this place, was troubled with rheumatism for a long time, Chamberlain's Pain Balm has cured him. He says that the Balm has no equal." For sale by J. V. Jordan.

A PRETTY SURPRISE.
 A beautifully illustrated and charmingly bound edition of Longfellow's "Evangeline," the most popular long poem ever published by an American author, and one of the most famous poems in the language, recently published, is a pretty surprise for book-lovers. It is in large type, numerous and excellent illustrations, very fine and heavy paper, gilt edges, remarkably handsome cloth binding, combining, in delicate colors, blue and white and silver and gold. No illustrated edition has ever before been published at less than $1.50, and that is about what you might "guess" the price of this to be, but it isn't—witness our offer below. Every home in the land ought to have a copy of this Evangeline, so charmingly beautiful, as a poem, as a collection of artistic illustrations, and as a product of the book-making art.

Our Offer. By special arrangements with the publisher we are able to offer this book to the subscribers to this paper as follows:
