Very soon the organization known as the Grand Army of the Republic will come to the parting exist as an appanage of the pension common task of life and thus be for the good name and fame of the citizen soldiery in the civil war. Already there are signs of revolt among the genuine veterans against the existing pension system, they are determined, shall once again be made a roll of honor. THE PLATFORM AND THE ADMIN-ISTRATION.

A political platform is the creed of the party that promulgates it. It sometimes happens, in the history of American national politics that a party is influenced by considerations of expediency to pretermit an expression on grave questions of national policy, but we have no recollection of any party's having been benefited by the avoidance of issues materially affecting the interests of the peo-

It is to the credit of the Demo cratic party that it always carries Berne Drug Co. its principles emblazoned on its banners. The people are never deceived as to its purpose. But as the best of men some times fail to realize their hopes, so the purest of parties may sometimes be unable to carry out its policy and gain the goal of its patriotic endeavor. Fortunately for the country, the Democratic party is moving right on to the cists throughout the world. attainment of its object. Obstacles oppose it and delay is inevitable, but, in the fullness of time, the nation will be crowned with honor and the people rejoice in their abundance through its instru-provesions:

"We declare it to be a fundamental principle of the Democratic party that the federal government has no constitutional power to impose or collect tariff duties, except for the purpose of revenue only.

"We demand the rigid enforce ment of the laws made to prevent and control the trusts and combinations which are designed to enable capital to secure more than its just share of the joint products of capital and labor."

"We hold to the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country, and to the coinage of both gold and silver, without discriminating against either metal or charge of mintage. The maintenance of the parity of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets and in payment of debts shall be assured."

"We recommend that the prohibitary 10 per cent tax on State bank insues be repealed."

The platform is full and comlete, and the Democracy will redeem its pledges.

But, they tell us that the Adminletration moves slowly.

Not at all. There is no immedto haste, but a steady advance. To landlord expects a tenant to do a day's work before breakfast, and it is just as unreasonable to expect
