An irregular ringing of the fire alarm brought out the firemen at half past ten o'clock last night. The alarm was probably occasioned by a limb blowing on a tree, as no fire was found. The prevailing high wind would have made it a fearful time if fire had been started.

Very cheap rates have been arranged for those desiring to attend the memorial services. The fare is only one dollar for the round trip from Morehead City, intermediate points in proportion. It is thought a larger crowd than usual will be present.

The Goldsboro Argus says a colored man named Joe Thompson employed by Messrs S. Cohn & Son in their Goldsboro beef business was killed Monday in Goldsboro by a train. He got on the train to ride for convenience, expecting the train to stop at a certain point for coal at which time he meant to get off, but the train didn't stop and it is presumed Joe jumped and was thrown against the cross-ties with such force as to fracture his skull and cause immediate death.

The late Dr. Gordon said: "I heard Henry Blount's lecture last night, and I never heard a better thing in my life. It glistened with the brightest gems of poetic beauty; glittered with jewels of richest humor, and glowed with the fires of the finest oratory. He is not only one of the finest and most beautiful writers in the South, but he is one of the most thrilling orators I ever heard. In fact I never saw his superior. Laughter and tear flow at his bidding, for he is as good in comic as he is in pathos. He is in one of the best mimics I ever saw, and he can beat the world telling an anecdote." Mr. Blount will lecture in the Y. M. C. A. Hall tomorrow night at half past eight o'clock.

STEAM-TUG GAZELLE.

A Fine Little Tug and Passenger Boat New Berne Built Throughout.

The new steam tug Gazelle, built and sold by J. H. Crabtree & Co. to the Pamlico Towing Company left here Tuesday for her field of operations. She is well fitted up and licensed to carry passengers. She will at first be used for saw mill purposes but during the summer the intention is to use her in taking visitors to and from Ocracoke.

The Gazelle is 70 feet long, 13 feet across the beam with a 4 1/2-foot hold and draws 5 feet of water. Her boiler is a 45 horse power one and she can accommodate 25 passengers.

The hull of the Gazelle was built opposite New Berne at Prettyman's mill. Messrs. J. H. Crabtree & Co., took hold at that point and finished her—the remainder of the wood work, the engine and the boiler all being built and put in portion by them.

The Gazelle is of an artistic model and is one of the neatest and prettiest little tug boats ever in this harbor and is well fitted out nicely in every respect.

The Gazelle sold for $8,000. Specifications for an engine and boiler exactly like the ones the Gazelle has were secured by her present owners from Erie, Pa., and the cost compared with the New Berne work and it was found that the charge for the northern machinery was $400 more right there than Messrs. Crabtree & Co. charged for it put in position in the boat and the putting of it in would have cost $250 more, so there was a clean saving of $650 by patronizing a home firm and getting home work.

It only needs for the public to truly realize what inducements New Berne can offer to turn largely increased quantities of patronage to her industrial establishments and business houses.

Moore-Peterson.

Rev. H. C. Moore, pastor of the Morehead Baptist church, was married Tuesday, May 2d, at 8:45 p. m. in the First Baptist church of Goldsboro, to Miss Laura Peterson, eldest daughter of Capt. J. E. Peterson, of that city, Rev. J. Hartwell Edwards officiating.

The Argus speaks of the marriage as one of the prettiest ever held there. It says the church, the largest in the city, was crowded and that the interior was lavishly and most artistically decorated for the happy occasion.

Five couples acted as bridal attendants and they were followed by four flower girls.

After the ceremony a brilliant reception was held at the home of the brides parents where the bridal party and hosts of friends assembled.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mr. W. M. Webb, one of the groomsmen, and Miss Lily Bell, one of the brides maids passed through last night en route to their homes in Morehead.

Boys Farm.

An institution to be known as the Boys' Farm School is to be established on the Swannanoa river nine miles east of Asheville, under the auspices of the home mission board of the Presbyterian Church in America. The buildings will be located on a 400 acre tract purchased from Sherrill and Davidson at the price of $14,000. The school will offer a thorough English education in connection with instruction in agricultural and mechanical pursuits, and will be under the direction of Prof. Samuel Jeffrey, lately of Cornell University. The capacity of the school will be 250 students and work on the buildings is to begin at once, so that the school may open by the first of October.—Charlotte Observer.

"The apparel oft proclaims the man man."—SHAKESPEARE.

How true this is of human nature. We are all very apt to judge a stranger by the clothes he wears. If he is well dressed he gains our respect at once, therefore it behooves you to wear as good clothes as you are able to pay for. We have a line of samples from a large tailoring establishment in New York, if you want a suit to fit you try us. We guarantee to please you. Clothing, Hats and Shoes. J. M. HOWARD.

The Complexion.

With a vast number of persons, and more especially with the gentler sex, the state of the skin of the face is a matter of profound importance. With a clear, pure complexion is desirable as indicating sound health and bright intellect. There may be "pimples" or "acne" of various forms, size or color; or there are "freckles" in blotches or discrete, or there may be a minute scaly eruption, causing roughness; or there may be discoloration from excess or imperfect elimination of pigment, or any of the more decided forms of disease. All these varied forms fall directly within the curative action of Humphrey's Specific No. 14.

No one can use this marvellously effective Specific for even a few weeks, without witnessing the most surprising results in clearing the complexion, dissipating the cloudy or swarthy appearance, and gradually giving a better, brighter, healthier tone to the entire face as well as to the skin in general. Thousands, while using Specific No. 14, for eruptive diseases, without even a thought of the "complexion," have been surprised and delighted beyond measure at the unlooked for result. For sale by all druggists. Manual free.

FUTT'S PILLS effective in results.

THE EDITORS DRIVE.

Observations by One of the Participants on What Came Under His Notice.

One afternoon while the Press Convention was at New Berne the citizens provided carriages and took the editors around to see the notable sights. After a pleasant visit to the Cutter which was greatly appreciated, and seeing the historic houses and manufactories of the City and other points of interest, the head of the procession turned up the beautiful macadamized road and proceeded into the country. The Federal cemetery is a very lovely spot and is beautifully kept.

Several of the fine truck farms were visited and we were glad to observe that the fields looked fresh and in a fine growing condition. The first farm where we stopped was that of Hackett & Willert, this plantation was purchased some 5 years since for $9,000, and the owners say that now they would not take a hundred dollars for it. It consists of 1000 acres of which 600 acres are in truck and 400 are in grass and pasture. On the latter 150 head of cattle subsist, and fifty cows yield an average of 100 gallons of milk, which is sold at 16 cents a gallon to a single milk dealer. The returns from milk last season were $4,526. Cabbage forms a large item in the truck business on this farm, seventy-five acres being set in cabbage. The heads were just ripening and the cutting was just begun when we visited the field. There were 800,000 plants, each set out on a transplanted by hand. There were 250 acres in Irish potatoes, which produce an average of 60 bushels an acre, although sometimes the yield runs up to 100 bushels. Thirty acres in snap beans, 100 in another item, and there are great peas, asparagus, etc., ad libitum.

This farm year before last sold over $75,000 worth of stuff, while the cost of production was not quite $40,000. The clean profit was $35,000 in one year. But that was an exceptionally fine year, good seasons and good prices. This year the outlook is also very fine.

These gentlemen make their own fertilizers, using about 250 tons, which cost them about $30 a ton. They put a ton to an acre. Different grades of fertilizers are used for the different crops, the highest grade being applied to the cabbage.

They also make their own boxes for shipping, and with such energy one is not at all surprised that they make a handsome profit in the business.

We saw other truck plantations, among them the very fine one belonging to Mr. them. At that of Messrs. Meadows and Crocket we found the heads in the field picking peas, which was a very interesting sight. Early in the day there had been 600 hands picking in one field, but at that hour the number had largely diminished. Yet the field seemed alive with workers. A hand can pick four bushels a day, and 25 cents a basket is paid. On this farm there are ten acres of beans and 18 acres of asparagus. The latter is of enormous size. The largest is the "Edmund"; much of it over an inch in diameter. The pea seed are Meadows' Extra Early and are grown in Canada.

All these farms presented very interesting sights and the editors were not less charmed than they were astonished at the magnitude of the trucking interests of which New Berne is the center.—State Chronicle.
