One Hen Roost Robber in Jail.

One chicken thief, we are glad to say, is good for the penitentary. It is a negro girl named Gracie Oden, who has been living on Pollock street. Thursday night she stole four nice hens from Walter Eubank and he came across her next day as she was trying to sell them. Mayor Ellis held the preliminary examination and bound her over to court which holds week after next. Of course she failed to give bond and now languisheth in Craven county jail until her trial comes off.

This same Gracie Oden has been selling mains. He being absent, we cannot say chickens repeatedly, so she is no doubt whether he can accept the honor or not, deep in the business but she is not the Policeman L. W. At one place they visited they had to skip without securing any booty. A young man of the household awaked and having pistols handy he blazed away. All he accomplished however was to save his chickens and to get the pleasure of hearing the thief as he ran yell, "Oh Lordy! don't shoot no more; Oh, Lordy! please don't shoot no more!"

Until the gang or the several individuals who are committing these depredations are discovered and their practice effecto'clock this morning from the E. C. D. ually quelched, it behooves our citizens to keep a sharp lookout.

Death of Mr. Z. Hollowell.

Mr. Zadoc Hollowell, who has for five weeks been very ill, died yesterday afternoon of typhoid malarial fever in the 55th year of age,

Mr. Hollowell was a good, quiet, indusrious Christian man, a member of Centenary M. E. Church.

He was a native of Beaufort county and resided for some time in Pamlico. From the latter place he moved to New Berne about ten years ago. He leaves a wife and son. The funeral services will be held from the residence on Griffith street at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Rev. R. A. Willis, pastor of Centenary church, who is absent assisting in a re-
