Chicago thinks Sunday is just as good as any other day, to rake in shakels of the visitors. So everything is to be run upon a wild-open seven days a week schedule, and if that doesn't catch the dollars fast enough an all night addition will be made.

The simplicity of the ceremonials attending the reception of the Infanta of Spain at the White House was in refreshing contrast with the pomp and formal display that attend such events in Europe. Good taste and generous hospitality have rarely been more happily joined together than on this occasion.

A man, aged seventy five, has entered as a student at Princeton, having all his life been imbued with a desire to have a college education, and a legacy having at last placed him in a position to obtain one. Such a consuming desire to fit himself for a position as waiter or motorman on a street car is seldom encountered.

If the statistics of ships actually available for service are taken, it will be seen that China possesses six armored vessels where we have but three. In the matter of un-armored vessels of all kind China has 111, while the United States has not more than thirty five. Of course, many of the Chinese vessels are obsolete, whereas most of ours are new and of the highest efficiency.

The plume of the prince of Wales worn on state occasions is said to be worth $50,000. The feathers, an English writer says, are pulled from the tail of the ferowah, one of the rarest and most beautiful birds of India. Great expense and trouble are necessary to capture the bird, which is found only in the wildest jungles. The feathers are taken from the live cock.

Temperature yesterday: maximum 78, minimum 66, range 12.

The weather telegram received yesterday predicted showers, followed by fair and cooler.

J. F. Taylor had a curious egg at his store yesterday. An enlargement at the small end made it look like it had a hat on it.

The various religious denominations of Winston have decided to invite Rev. D. L. Moody to hold a union meeting there. It is hoped that his engagements are such that he will be able to make an appointment for next spring if no sooner.

The Free Will Baptists are endeavoring to build them a place of worship across Neuse river about seven miles from the city on the Truitt road. An acre of land was given by Mr. Arrington Purely for a site, and the building is already under construction.

The site of water works buildings is beginning to present a good appearance. The walls of the pump house are up and its window set.

The stand pipe foundation is finished and twenty tons of stand pipe material have arrived and the man to put it up are expected in a few days, probably the last of this week.

Hancock street Sunday School left for their picnic, according to arrangements, on the steamer Trent for Danenburg & Sultans firm, but it did not get back at the expected time. She had not arrived when we closed type setting last night and was probably aground.

Mr. F. H. Pace, General agent for the New Home Sewing Machine Company, informs us that that company makes a $20,000 display of their machines and fancy work executed on them at the Columbian Exposition. The Singer Sewing Machine Company makes a similar display.

The protest which A. Merryfield of Durham entered against Hackburn & Willett's trotter, Dominion, in the New Berne Fair races with the evidence pro and con is now before the Board of Review of the National Trotting Association which meets this month in Chicago. The protest was made at the time of the races on the charge that Dominion had previously made a record which would have debarred him from entering the races in which the money was won. The decision of the Board may be received at any time. The Baltimore Sun and Philadelphia Record have both had articles on this event.

Probable Murder. Monday night about 11 o'clock Dr. Leinster Duffy was startled by a colored man rushing into his office, announcing that he was shot and expiring in about a minute.

The man was Wm. McCoy. Investigation showed that he was shot a little above the depot between the colored Presbyterian church and Mr. M. T. Robert's store. Though the man in his expiring moments said another man shot at a dog and hit him, foul play was suspected and investigation instituted on that supposition.

An autopsy was held yesterday. This developed the astonishing fact that a ball had passed through the base of his heart and yet he had run about a third of a mile after receiving the wound.

The inquest was continued until today at 11 o'clock. It will be at the City Hall.

THE DAVIS REMAINS.

Program of the Ceremonies When They Arrive in Raleigh.

The Chief Marshal (Col. Thos. S. Kenan) has arranged the following programme of ceremonies in memory of Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederate States:

Upon the arrival of the funeral train (en route from New Orleans to Richmond) at Union Station on Tuesday at 11:30 a. m., May 30th, 1893, the remains of Mr. Davis will be received and escorted to the Capitol building and lie in state in the rotunda until 2 p. m., under guard of honor. They will be received at the Station by the Mayor of the city and Adjutant General of the State, and at the entrance to Capitol square by the Governor of the State.

Order of procession, via Martin and Fayetteville streets to the Capitol: Platoon of Police.

Governor's Guard, Military escort. Funeral car drawn by six horses, James Jones, col (formerly a servant of Mr. Davis) driver.

DIVISIONS: President and Executive Committee of Confederate Veterans Association: Geo. W. Sandertin and Chas. H. Clark, Chiefs.

Wake County Confederate Veterans Association and Ex-Confederate Soldiers, L. D. Stevenson, G. M. Allen and N. W. West, Chiefs.

Visiting escorts: J. B. Hill and Geo. H. Snow, Chiefs.

North Carolina escort: B. P. Williamson F. J. Haywood, Chiefs.

Officers and ex-officers of the State Government: Walter Clark Chief.

Mayor and city and county officials, chamber of commerce and citizens generally: J. M. Heck, Chief.

The schools under the immediate charge of their principals.

Morson and Denton's School: escort John B. Burwell and C. B. Denson.

Ladies Memorial and Monumental Associations and ladies generally—escort E. Burke Haywood and C. M. Busbee.

The divisions as above indicated, under the escort of the gentlemen named will be assigned their positions on Martin and Fayetteville Streets by the Marshalls, and each will join the procession, in regular order as it passes.

The head of the column will march around the capitol square, and, with divisions 1 and 2, enter the grounds at the north gate.

Divisions 3, 4, 5, and 6 will enter at the east gate.

Division 7 and 8 will enter at the south gate.

AT THE CAPITOL. Chair.—Wm. S. Primrose, Director.

Prayer by Rev. M. M. Marshall.

Return to the station via the west gate and Hillsborough and Dawson Sts.

If unfavorable weather should prevent the carrying out of the program, appropriate ceremonies will be had at the large waiting rooms of the Union station.

MARSHALS. Thomas S. Kenan, Peter E. Hines, R. H. Brooks, V. E. Turner, W. H. Hughes, R. H. Battle, M. W. Page, R. S. Tucker, T. P. Devereux, A. B. Stronach, J. J. Thomas.—News and Observer.

A Jewish Synagogue. Our Jewish fellow citizens have organized themselves into a religious congregation, elected Rabbi I. Kaiser, formerly of Petersburg, to be in charge, and intend when a suitable site is secured to erect a synagogue. It is to be known in Hebrew as "Chester, Bnai Scholon," which being interpreted means "Chester, Child of Peace." It is named in honor of Mr. Chas. Reizenstein's little son Chester, whose innocent questionings of his mother as to why they did not have a church to go to led to this movement.

Twelve families are embraced in the synagogue and including the children there are about fifty members.

The synagogue officers elected are as follows: Rabbi, I. Kaiser, President, M. Hahn; Vice President, H. Danenburg; Secretary and Treasurer, Chas. Reizenstein; Board of Directors, M. Schultz, M. H. Sultan, O. Marks, M. Hahn and Chas. Reizenstein.

Rabbi Kaiser is spoken of as a fine scholar, very proficient in German and skilled in music.

Until they can erect a place of worship the congregation desire to temporarily rent a suitable place for the purpose. They are now seeking for one. The meetings we are informed will be open for any who choose to attend just as christian churches are.

Another Fire at Kinston. A telegram to the Mayor and chief of the fire department was received late yesterday afternoon saying that Kinston was again on fire and the probabilities were that the fire would be much more disastrous than the former one. Assistance was again asked for, but it was with much regret on the part of the department that they could not respond to the call on account of only one engine being in service—the other being in the shops for repairs, though the boys were anxious to respond to the call of their neighbor.

The fire started in the large distillery owned by Mr. L. Harry. It was entirely consumed with a large quantity of turpentine and spirits. Also a building near by which was the office of the Kinston Lumber Co.

Coming and Going. Mrs. Geo. Wallace returned from Harlowe where she has been visiting relatives; Miss Madie Bell, of Harlowe accompanied her back on a visit.

Miss Annie Bridgeman, of Washington, N. C., is visiting Mrs. E. M. Duguid.

Mrs. Eliza Bell of Harlowe, who has been visiting relatives in the city returned home last night accompanied by Mrs. Phil Holland on a visit.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS.

Resulting From the Recent Convention in Reference to our City.

BERLINSTON HERALD. The Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, from Goldsboro to New Berne, is the only thing within their power for the comfort of their passengers. Their train runs through a most pleasant territory and is splendidly equipped, both as to track and rolling stock.

Friday morning the editors of the City of Elms good-bye, not without regrets for they had been most graciously received on every hand. Messrs. Jones, McSorley, confederate veterans, and a special mention for the ladies of the secretary's desk supplied with a number of tickets which the editor was obliged to accept when so inclined, and a refreshment beverage was very refreshing.

LEONARD COLEMAN. One feature of the trip was the special commendation, and the fact that no wine or champagne was served. Many of the editors of the paper are of the opinion that we doubt whether New Berne will contain a more intelligent and more temperate body of men than the members of the Association.

SOUTH CAROLINIAN. All the proceedings of the convention, the discussions, the papers, the programme and the banquet of the people of New Berne will be remembered with a pleasant scale and left nothing to be desired for.

DEBILITATED. New Berne is wonderful in her sources and possibilities, and will realize all of the wealth, culture, and happiness that flow from her resources, energy and power.

Stereopticon Entertainment. The views of Walter F. Taylor can be repeated Friday night by a number of people, some of whom saw them last Friday and would like to see them again, and others who were unable to attend them but who would like to see the views.

All you cannot take the views of Chicago, 25 cents spent in an entertainment will be a profitable investment by giving you a view of what you now have of what is there.

If you are going to the Fair, these views and hearing the interesting and interesting descriptions of the views which Rev. Mr. Venter is showing them will be better than any other you will see.

The admission is only 25 cents, and open at 7:30, exhibition closes at 10:00.

The Oldest Sennep. The following account of the Sennep vine, said to be the oldest vine of the kind known in the world. The description is given by a man who visited the vine at 1700.

In the earliest record of the grape is written "Sennep vine" and may have been in India for 1000 years.

"I have also eaten Sennep and drunk Sennep wine," says Chauncey Moore—said to be the original vine planted by Raleigh.

There are three trunks of the vine, about thirty feet apart, and each is some thirty feet and four feet in diameter to take root it is a "baby" in its infancy, and run out in that way to London in extent, and these several trunks, stocks, are from eighteen inches to two feet in diameter.

Reception Tenders. EDITOR JOURNAL.—On my return home last Friday from a business trip to the Society Ladies and their friends of Goldsboro, tendered me a reception in grandeur and completeness in its get-up exceeded that reception, which was first the first.

Refined culture graces and the real worth of the ladies of Goldsboro, account for their appreciation and greeting in doing me honor.

In all my travelling I have never had the unbounded pleasure of being entertained by a more magnanimous, great and grand people than the ladies and gentlemen who constituted the guest.

Miss Julia Amie as chairman and soloist performed her duties admirably. Miss Lucy Smith, secretary entertained gracefully and greatly distinguished herself. Hon. E. E. Smith, master of ceremonies enlivened the occasion in his usual happy manner, reflecting glorious credit on our Carolina State. By

ISAAC H. SMITH, Entertained.
