

THE DAILY JOURNAL.

VOL. XII.-NO. 55

NEW BERNE, N. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 3, 1893

PRICE 5 CENTS.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

FINE beef and veal this morning at B. Cohn & Son.

LADIES and Gentlemen desiring to take lessons in shorthand and are not able at present to pay for their instruction will get satisfactory terms by communication with W. Boettcher, Elizabeth City, N. C.

LOST—Two Silver Pepper Crosses. Finder will please return to JOURNAL office, dwt.

OUR SPECIALTY—Ice Cream Soda, is the best nicker drink ever put up in New B. one fit NUNN & McSORELY.

FINE beef and veal this morning, B. Cohn & Son.

JUST RECEIVED—A nice lot of California hams, breakfast strips and sugar cured hams. G. D. Bowden & Co.

THE profits and pleasures of fleecing are not to be questioned; but the choice of a wheel should be carefully considered. We can furnish any information you may desire on the subject. The "Waverly Scorchers," 32 lbs., price $100 is better than many $125 wheels. The "Columbia," $150 is absolutely the BEST made. Catalogues, prices and full terms. Write for the asking. W. T. HICK CO., Sole Agents.

PARI GREEN and Land Plaster for killing Parasites at J. C. Whitty & Co.

A FULL line of Spring and Summer Samples, consisting of Cheviots, Black, Blue and Brown Serge, Fine Check, Washers, Imported Suitings, Worsteds in all grades. Satisfaction guaranteed. F. M. Chadwick, Tailor at Hall's book store.

USE DUFFY'S COUGH KILLER—cures Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, etc. Excellent in all affections of the Throat and Lungs, inducing healthy action of the mucous membrane, soothing and healing the same. Is an ANTI-RHEUMATISM and CURE. Prices 10 c., 25 c., and 50 c. per bottle.

GO TO Street's Horse Store for Livestock. Fine roadsters at Street's Horse store, ELEGANT Saddlery at Street's Horse store.

DANDRUFF, Itch, Mange, and all Skin Diseases cured by the use of Duffy's Fish Ointment. For sale by F. S. Duffy, Druggist.

MICH Sacramento, Port and Steppernong Wines for sale by JAS. REDMOND.

I. CALVIN Schaffer's Wild Cherry Rock and Rye, put up expressly for throat and lung diseases, for sale by JAS. REDMOND.

DUFFY'S Malt Whiskey for medicinal use, for sale by JAS. REDMOND.

HUNYADI Janos Mineral Water, the best Natural Apertient. For sale by JAS. REDMOND.

PURE Corn Whiskey for sale by JAS. REDMOND.

DUFF Gordon Imported Sherry, for sale by JAS. REDMOND.

IMPORTED Holland Gin, Berke's Bass Ale and Burke's Guinness Stout, or sale by JAS. REDMOND.

75,000 CIGARS at very low figures for wholesale and retail trade for sale by JAS. REDMOND.

GARRET'S Cognac Brandy used very much in the sick room. For sale by JAS. REDMOND.

We have had perfecting presses a long time but the perfected newspaper is still a thing of the future.

In fighting the war over again Editor Cockerill finds himself to be under the painful necessity of playing the part of both armies.

There is to be a bust of Harriet Beecher Stowe at the world's fair, Mrs. Stowe's greatest "bust," however, was her attempt to portray the negro character in Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Charles A. Barry, Chief of the World's Fair corps of interpreters, converses in sixteen languages, including the Chicago dialect.

The Confederato flags carried at Raleigh, by little girls on the Davis funeral car, have been turned over to the North Carolina Antiquity Society.

Hoke Smith has immortalized himself by one stroke of the pen in revoking Raum's order which granted pensions to men never injured in war. By this ruling the United States will be the winner to the tune of $20,000,000.

An exchange makes this important announcement: "Since it has been found possible to make pure maple syrup from corncocks, some cheaper material than corncocks must be used hereafter for the manufacture of pure elder vinegar." This is hard on the men who sell pure apple vinegar.

Commissioner of Internal revenue Miller has intimated that the appointment of Hon. F. M. Simmons to be Collector of Internal revenue of Eastern North Carolina will be made on or about the 15th inst. Now if you don't believe a Democratic administration can be successfully administered by Democrats, just "watch the Professor," and see the heads of Republicans fall to the ground when Simmons takes charge. Otherwise we will have something else to say, and lots of it too.—N. C. Gazette.

There is nothing like persistency. A bill has just passed the Massachusetts Legislature regulating the width of wagon tires which was first introduced fifty-five years ago.

There was a good deal of dust on it when it was pulled out of the pigeon hole, but it went through dust and all. The man who first introduced it, was there though not a member, to see it go through.—Wil. Star.

Natives of the Old North State residing at Atlanta Georgia have entered into an association to be known as "The North Carolina Society of Atlanta," and this induces the Atlanta Journal to remark: "In taking this step the North Carolinians are to be commended. Many of Atlanta's foremost men are proud to lay claim to the title of 'Tar Heel,' and in the busy ranks of her busy workers there are scores of sons of the hospitable Old State who daily do her honor. The North Carolinians are a credit not only to the state of their nativity but to the city of their adoption."

Edwards vs. Barrington. Land suit. Judgment for plaintiff.

Bryan vs. Johnson. Title to land. Judgment for plaintiff.

Waters vs. Stimson Lumber company. Continued.

Snelling vs. Waters. Non-Suit.

Armstrong Cater & Co. vs. Cohen. Judgment for plaintiff.

Wood, Faulkner & Co. vs. Sultan. Judgment in favor of plaintiff. Defendant appealed.

Commissioners of Craven county vs. Hattie Smith. Taxes. Judgment for plaintiff.

Commissioners vs. Palmer. Taxes. Judgment for plaintiff.

Congdon & Co. vs. Wm. Ehorn. Judgment according to prayer of complaint.

Coming and Going.

Mr. C. R. Thomas returned yesterday from Beaufort, where he has been on professional business.

Rev. C. G. Vardell left to deliver an address at Davidson College Commencement, which takes place next week. He will spend the Sabbath in Salisbury and preach there. Mr. T. A. Henry will conduct the services in the Presbyterian church here to-morrow morning.

Mr. S. W. Smallwood returned last night from a Northern trip.

Miss Mattie Williams who has just graduated at Salem Female Academy returned home last night.

Miss Madie Bell, of Harlowe, who has been visiting relatives in the city left yesterday returning home accompanied by Miss Bettie Hall on a visit.

Mr. Levi Cohen returned last night from Chapel Hill where he has been studying medicine. Mr. Cohen made one of the best averages (97) in materia medica ever made at the University. Next year he expects to attend Bellevue Hospital, New York.

Mrs. J. H. Bell and two children of Washington City, came in on the steamer Neuse to visit relatives in the city, and Mrs. T. F. Haggis returned home on the same steamer from a visit to relatives in Norfolk.

The steamer Neuse took out the following passengers: Rev. J. R. Sawyer who has been spending a few days in the city and his wife who has been visiting relatives in Wilmington returning to their home in Manteo; Misses Dora and Nannie Midyette, two pupils of Kinsey Seminary, returning to their home in Manteo, and Mrs. A. J. Crisp who has been visiting her son, Lieut. R. O. Crisp returning to her home in Baltimore.

Mr. J. B. Bonner of Aurora is in the city. He meets his daughter who returned from Salem Academy yesterday evening.

$35,000 Worth of Truck.

The steamer Neuse took out yesterday 3,528 packages of truck—3,203 of potatoes, 305 of beans, 19 of cabbage and 1 of squash.

The steamer Neuse took out about 1700 packages of beans, 600 of cabbages, and 2,100 of potatoes—a total of about 4400 packages.

The A. & N. C. R. R. took out forty car loads of truck—in the neighborhood of 10,000 packages.

They were taken by two special truck trains in addition to the regular freight train—at least as many more are expected today as several thousand barrels more of potatoes were brought on before night ready for sending off today.

These shipments will give at a low estimate—thirty-five thousand dollars returns to the growers.

Two Steamers Labeled.

The schooner Sadie M. Rand has been labeled for seaman's wages. The case will come up today before Judge Seymour in chambers.

The steamer Nellie B. Dey has been labeled by the Carolina Packing Company of Beaufort.

The company shipped a cargo of oysters on the steamer to Baltimore during the cold weather of last January.

While en route the steamer was froze up at Norfolk and the oysters damaged. The packing company holds the steamer responsible for the damages. Her owners disclaim their liability. Hence the action. The case will be heard before Judge Seymour in chambers on the 15th inst.

Constructing the Water Works.

A car load of the small pipe for laying on the streets has arrived for the water works company. It is not yet decided as to when the laying of the pipe will begin, but it will evidently not be long for the remainder of the pipe is soon to follow.

At the headquarters of the works the foundations for the boiler are being made. It is hoped there will be no delay in getting it placed.

MISS RADCLIFF IN THE NORTH

Winning the Admiration of Every One "She Undoubtedly Has a Career Before Her."

Bloomfield, N. J., May 29th, 1893. EDITOR JOURNAL: I am sure it will be a pleasure to every North Carolinian, and particularly to those of her own city, New Berne, to hear of the success of the concert given here last night by Miss Marion H. Radcliff.

Coming here only a few months ago a stranger, except by reputation, to sing in the choir of the First Presbyterian church, she has in this short while won the affection and admiration of every one who has met her or heard her sing, and last night the whole town seemed to unite in a testimonial which is absolutely without a parallel in the history of Bloomfield.

The use of the First church was offered for the concert, and at first it was decided to use the lecture room, but this was abandoned for the church proper, which has a seating capacity of over 750, so that all who wished to attend might be accommodated. The platform had been profusely decorated with flowers by the King's Daughters of the church, and a Steinway Grand piano had been brought from Newark and was placed on one side. The gallery, which extends entirely around the church, is divided into a number of compartments with chairs instead of the usual benches, and these were sold to box parties, which but variety to the scene.

Miss Radcliff was assisted in her concert by Miss Annette Reynolds, Contralto; Mr. Albert F. Arveschou, Bass; Mr. Paul P. Wilcox, Tenor; Mr. Victor La Prato, Violinist, and Mr. E. Presson Miller, Pianist, and the whole was under the direction of Mr. H. W. Greene, Director of the Metropolitan College of Music, New York City, and one of Miss Radcliff's teachers.

Miss Radcliff and Miss Annette Reynolds, contralto, appeared in two duets: "A Streamlet Full of Flowers," "Caracalla," and "Nearest and Dearest," "Caracalla."

The two songs sung by Miss Radcliff are entirely different in character, the first showing the light, flexible quality of her voice, and the second displaying the richness and sympathy of her full, sustained tones, and both evidencing the natural beauty of her voice and its development under the skilful training of Mr. H. W. Greene and Mr. Dudley Buck, her teachers. Under them she has acquired the mezzo-canto quality, used with great effect particularly in the "Sancta Maria," and several tones have been added to her voice. She undoubtedly has a career before her, and his confidence in her ability and future success led Mr. Greene to give his services and the weight of his name towards the success of this concert.

She was compelled to respond to the vociferous applause which greeted each of her numbers, and after the "Message D'Amour" she sang a dainty little thing composed by M. Miller, called "The Love That Makes the World go Round," and after the other she sang "Thou art Like a Lovely Flower," by Andros. This last song, like the one it followed, had an obligate for violin, and that instrument was played most wonderfully by Mr. La Prato, a young man not yet out of his teens, but who has already achieved prominence among the musicians of New York for his brilliant playing. He so blended the rich tones of his violin with the magic tones of her voice that the audience was entranced with the melody. His solo was performed with the same exquisite touch, and his efforts were produced not by any charlatanism but naturally and with an artistic conception of the composer's ideas that is rare even among older professionals.

Miss Reynolds is the solo contralto at St. Andrew's church, New York City, and she has also sung in concert during the winter as a member of the Bloomingdale Concert Co. She deserves her wide reputation, for she has a cultivated and most pleasing voice, and she delighted her hearers.

Mr. Wilcox is the tenor soloist in a New York choir, and has come into prominence through his singing at the concerts of the M. C. M. His voice is a pure tenor, and he added much to the pleasure and success of the concert. He received a hearty encore and sang "The Proposal."

I think Mr. Arveschou has perhaps the finest bass voice I have ever heard. He is the soloist at St. George's Episcopal church, New York, and is in great demand for concerts and private entertainments. In speaking of him, a recent issue of the "Musical Courier" said: "His rich low tones are phenomenal. I haven't space to speak at length of his work in this concert, nor could I do him justice."

Miss Radcliff's selection of Mr. Miller as pianist was a most happy one. He is an ideal accompanist, and received the tribute of a mighty recall after his piano solo, a very unusual compliment for any pianist to receive now a days. As beautiful as was his playing of Liszt's Rhapsodie, it did not surpass the performance of his own composition, a Gavotte in G, which was perfectly entrancing. Mr. Miller is very young, yet a versatile musician and the composer of many beautiful songs and piano pieces.

The duets and quartets were sung with perfect harmony and smoothness that would be expected of such artists, and the concert was pronounced by every one to be the best ever heard here.

After it was over Miss Radcliff and many of her friends were invited to supper at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. Halsey M. Barrett and were delightfully entertained by them until quite late.

It is hoped that Miss Radcliff will give another concert here at no far distant date.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years—four bottles in all—on occasions required, and always keep a good thing when I get it, and Pain Balm is the best I have ever met with. W. B. Denny, dairyman, New Lexington, Ohio. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. V. Jordan.

MISS RADCLIFF IN THE NORTH

Winning the Admiration of Every One "She Undoubtedly Has a Career Before Her."

Bloomfield, N. J., May 29th, 1893. EDITOR JOURNAL: I am sure it will be a pleasure to every North Carolinian, and particularly to those of her own city, New Berne, to hear of the success of the concert given here last night by Miss Marion H. Radcliff.

Coming here only a few months ago a stranger, except by reputation, to sing in the choir of the First Presbyterian church, she has in this short while won the affection and admiration of every one who has met her or heard her sing, and last night the whole town seemed to unite in a testimonial which is absolutely without a parallel in the history of Bloomfield.

The use of the First church was offered for the concert, and at first it was decided to use the lecture room, but this was abandoned for the church proper, which has a seating capacity of over 750, so that all who wished to attend might be accommodated. The platform had been profusely decorated with flowers by the King's Daughters of the church, and a Steinway Grand piano had been brought from Newark and was placed on one side. The gallery, which extends entirely around the church, is divided into a number of compartments with chairs instead of the usual benches, and these were sold to box parties, which but variety to the scene.

Miss Radcliff was assisted in her concert by Miss Annette Reynolds, Contralto; Mr. Albert F. Arveschou, Bass; Mr. Paul P. Wilcox, Tenor; Mr. Victor La Prato, Violinist, and Mr. E. Presson Miller, Pianist, and the whole was under the direction of Mr. H. W. Greene, Director of the Metropolitan College of Music, New York City, and one of Miss Radcliff's teachers.

Miss Radcliff and Miss Annette Reynolds, contralto, appeared in two duets: "A Streamlet Full of Flowers," "Caracalla," and "Nearest and Dearest," "Caracalla."

The two songs sung by Miss Radcliff are entirely different in character, the first showing the light, flexible quality of her voice, and the second displaying the richness and sympathy of her full, sustained tones, and both evidencing the natural beauty of her voice and its development under the skilful training of Mr. H. W. Greene and Mr. Dudley Buck, her teachers. Under them she has acquired the mezzo-canto quality, used with great effect particularly in the "Sancta Maria," and several tones have been added to her voice. She undoubtedly has a career before her, and his confidence in her ability and future success led Mr. Greene to give his services and the weight of his name towards the success of this concert.

She was compelled to respond to the vociferous applause which greeted each of her numbers, and after the "Message D'Amour" she sang a dainty little thing composed by M. Miller, called "The Love That Makes the World go Round," and after the other she sang "Thou art Like a Lovely Flower," by Andros. This last song, like the one it followed, had an obligate for violin, and that instrument was played most wonderfully by Mr. La Prato, a young man not yet out of his teens, but who has already achieved prominence among the musicians of New York for his brilliant playing. He so blended the rich tones of his violin with the magic tones of her voice that the audience was entranced with the melody. His solo was performed with the same exquisite touch, and his efforts were produced not by any charlatanism but naturally and with an artistic conception of the composer's ideas that is rare even among older professionals.

Miss Reynolds is the solo contralto at St. Andrew's church, New York City, and she has also sung in concert during the winter as a member of the Bloomingdale Concert Co. She deserves her wide reputation, for she has a cultivated and most pleasing voice, and she delighted her hearers.

Mr. Wilcox is the tenor soloist in a New York choir, and has come into prominence through his singing at the concerts of the M. C. M. His voice is a pure tenor, and he added much to the pleasure and success of the concert. He received a hearty encore and sang "The Proposal."

I think Mr. Arveschou has perhaps the finest bass voice I have ever heard. He is the soloist at St. George's Episcopal church, New York, and is in great demand for concerts and private entertainments. In speaking of him, a recent issue of the "Musical Courier" said: "His rich low tones are phenomenal. I haven't space to speak at length of his work in this concert, nor could I do him justice."

Miss Radcliff's selection of Mr. Miller as pianist was a most happy one. He is an ideal accompanist, and received the tribute of a mighty recall after his piano solo, a very unusual compliment for any pianist to receive now a days. As beautiful as was his playing of Liszt's Rhapsodie, it did not surpass the performance of his own composition, a Gavotte in G, which was perfectly entrancing. Mr. Miller is very young, yet a versatile musician and the composer of many beautiful songs and piano pieces.

The duets and quartets were sung with perfect harmony and smoothness that would be expected of such artists, and the concert was pronounced by every one to be the best ever heard here.

After it was over Miss Radcliff and many of her friends were invited to supper at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. Halsey M. Barrett and were delightfully entertained by them until quite late.

It is hoped that Miss Radcliff will give another concert here at no far distant date.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years—four bottles in all—on occasions required, and always keep a good thing when I get it, and Pain Balm is the best I have ever met with. W. B. Denny, dairyman, New Lexington, Ohio. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. V. Jordan.

MISS RADCLIFF IN THE NORTH

Winning the Admiration of Every One "She Undoubtedly Has a Career Before Her."

Bloomfield, N. J., May 29th, 1893. EDITOR JOURNAL: I am sure it will be a pleasure to every North Carolinian, and particularly to those of her own city, New Berne, to hear of the success of the concert given here last night by Miss Marion H. Radcliff.

Coming here only a few months ago a stranger, except by reputation, to sing in the choir of the First Presbyterian church, she has in this short while won the affection and admiration of every one who has met her or heard her sing, and last night the whole town seemed to unite in a testimonial which is absolutely without a parallel in the history of Bloomfield.

The use of the First church was offered for the concert, and at first it was decided to use the lecture room, but this was abandoned for the church proper, which has a seating capacity of over 750, so that all who wished to attend might be accommodated. The platform had been profusely decorated with flowers by the King's Daughters of the church, and a Steinway Grand piano had been brought from Newark and was placed on one side. The gallery, which extends entirely around the church, is divided into a number of compartments with chairs instead of the usual benches, and these were sold to box parties, which but variety to the scene.

Miss Radcliff was assisted in her concert by Miss Annette Reynolds, Contralto; Mr. Albert F. Arveschou, Bass; Mr. Paul P. Wilcox, Tenor; Mr. Victor La Prato, Violinist, and Mr. E. Presson Miller, Pianist, and the whole was under the direction of Mr. H. W. Greene, Director of the Metropolitan College of Music, New York City, and one of Miss Radcliff's teachers.

Miss Radcliff and Miss Annette Reynolds, contralto, appeared in two duets: "A Streamlet Full of Flowers," "Caracalla," and "Nearest and Dearest," "Caracalla."

The two songs sung by Miss Radcliff are entirely different in character, the first showing the light, flexible quality of her voice, and the second displaying the richness and sympathy of her full, sustained tones, and both evidencing the natural beauty of her voice and its development under the skilful training of Mr. H. W. Greene and Mr. Dudley Buck, her teachers. Under them she has acquired the mezzo-canto quality, used with great effect particularly in the "Sancta Maria," and several tones have been added to her voice. She undoubtedly has a career before her, and his confidence in her ability and future success led Mr. Greene to give his services and the weight of his name towards the success of this concert.

She was compelled to respond to the vociferous applause which greeted each of her numbers, and after the "Message D'Amour" she sang a dainty little thing composed by M. Miller, called "The Love That Makes the World go Round," and after the other she sang "Thou art Like a Lovely Flower," by Andros. This last song, like the one it followed, had an obligate for violin, and that instrument was played most wonderfully by Mr. La Prato, a young man not yet out of his teens, but who has already achieved prominence among the musicians of New York for his brilliant playing. He so blended the rich tones of his violin with the magic tones of her voice that the audience was entranced with the melody. His solo was performed with the same exquisite touch, and his efforts were produced not by any charlatanism but naturally and with an artistic conception of the composer's ideas that is rare even among older professionals.

Miss Reynolds is the solo contralto at St. Andrew's church, New York City, and she has also sung in concert during the winter as a member of the Bloomingdale Concert Co. She deserves her wide reputation, for she has a cultivated and most pleasing voice, and she delighted her hearers.

Mr. Wilcox is the tenor soloist in a New York choir, and has come into prominence through his singing at the concerts of the M. C. M. His voice is a pure tenor, and he added much to the pleasure and success of the concert. He received a hearty encore and sang "The Proposal."

I think Mr. Arveschou has perhaps the finest bass voice I have ever heard. He is the soloist at St. George's Episcopal church, New York, and is in great demand for concerts and private entertainments. In speaking of him, a recent issue of the "Musical Courier" said: "His rich low tones are phenomenal. I haven't space to speak at length of his work in this concert, nor could I do him justice."

Miss Radcliff's selection of Mr. Miller as pianist was a most happy one. He is an ideal accompanist, and received the tribute of a mighty recall after his piano solo, a very unusual compliment for any pianist to receive now a days. As beautiful as was his playing of Liszt's Rhapsodie, it did not surpass the performance of his own composition, a Gavotte in G, which was perfectly entrancing. Mr. Miller is very young, yet a versatile musician and the composer of many beautiful songs and piano pieces.

The duets and quartets were sung with perfect harmony and smoothness that would be expected of such artists, and the concert was pronounced by every one to be the best ever heard here.

After it was over Miss Radcliff and many of her friends were invited to supper at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. Halsey M. Barrett and were delightfully entertained by them until quite late.

It is hoped that Miss Radcliff will give another concert here at no far distant date.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years—four bottles in all—on occasions required, and always keep a good thing when I get it, and Pain Balm is the best I have ever met with. W. B. Denny, dairyman, New Lexington, Ohio. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. V. Jordan.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

Simply wish to state to the people of

What through the persuasion of the Manufacturers of the STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO., the I have taken the agency for this Machine in Eastern North Carolina.

But summer is upon us and it behooves you to lay in your stock of summer underwear. Some people do not change their winter underwear until June 1st, if you are one of them, do not forget us if you have a pair of new lot Collars and Cuffs, Shirts, Half Hose and Suspensors, White, black and Brown Bicycle Shoes. See us first for King, Hair and Shoes.

J. M. HOWARD.

For Rent.

A dwelling, large and commodious situated on South Front St. Apply to W. G. Egan.

Best Bread in the City.

Large loaves delivered at your homes. Cakes and pies constantly on hand. Made to order. H. C. Y. No. 100.

President S. S. S. of N. C. on Tuesday night signed the terms of peace and then resigned.

TUTT'S PILLS about interfere with work.

PURIFYING PULVER.

Drink pure water by using The Col. B. Purifying Pump.

Perfection Water L. W. AND Purifying Pump.

In your system and water. Dorsed by all scientific and medical profession as the grandest water purifier of the age, and a preventive against cholera, typhoid, scarlet and malarial fevers.

SOLD ONLY BY Disosway & Church.

DUFFY'S DIARRHOEA MIXTURE.

Properties: Anodyne, Carminative, Antiseptic and MILDLY STIMULANT.

It corrects bowels, relieves pain and griping, and by infecting morbid matters in the intestinal tract.

It is especially useful in diarrhoeas and dysenteries after the bowels have been freely evacuated naturally or by the use of simple purgatives.

DOSE:—For adults, 1 teaspoonful with water; may be repeated in one hour.

Shake vial before using. PREPARED BY R. R. DUFFY, NEW BERNE, N. C.

A. E. HIBBARD.

Watches, Clocks and Jewellery. SILVERWARE, &c. REPAIRING NEATLY DONE.

Middle St., New Berne, N. C. dwt.

WE HAVE Received A NICE LINE OF Ladies Oxfords From Ziegler Bros.

And we also have en route from same firm, an elegant assortment of MISSES, CHILDRENS and INFANTS SHOES.

There may be other things you might see in our stock to suit you so COME and SEE US. If you don't buy we will be glad to see you just the same. Yours Truly BARRINGTON & BAXTER.

A choice lot of Sugar Cured Hams, Shoulders, Breakfast Bacon, Smoked Beef, Boneless Corn Beef, Pale Cream Cheese, Parley Lemon, Nice Butter, At LUCAS & LEWIS.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

Simply wish to state to the people of

What through the persuasion of the Manufacturers of the STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO., the I have taken the agency for this Machine in Eastern North Carolina.

But summer is upon us and it behooves you to lay in your stock of summer underwear. Some people do not change their winter underwear until June 1st, if you are one of them, do not forget us if you have a pair of new lot Collars and Cuffs, Shirts, Half Hose and Suspensors, White, black and Brown Bicycle Shoes. See us first for King, Hair and Shoes.

J. M. HOWARD.

For Rent.

A dwelling, large and commodious situated on South Front St. Apply to W. G. Egan.

Best Bread in the City.

Large loaves delivered at your homes. Cakes and pies constantly on hand. Made to order. H. C. Y. No. 100.