New Berne merchants are observing their commendable annual practice of closing early during the summer months.

The first of June they commenced closing at seven. This is well; employees need a little rest and recreation and nothing is lost by affording them the opportunity for it.

We learn from the Elizabeth City Economist that Mr. M. Makely, of Edenton, recently of New Berne, has bought two steamers at auction. They were the Lizzie Burrus and the Tahoma. The Lizzie Burrus was bid off for $1,325 and the Tahoma brought $750. It was a sale by the United States Marshal.

The funeral of Mrs. J. R. B. Carraway took place from Christ Church yesterday afternoon at six o'clock conducted by Rev. T. M. N. George. The underbearers were Messrs. Geo. H. Roberts, John Dunn, H. Socialism in America.

Col. Waddell will speak on this interesting theme at Durham on Wednesday, June 7th, in Stokes Hall before the Columbian and Hesperian Library Societies of Trinity College.

The theme is a new one among us to be handled by so able and accomplished a thinker.

No institution in the State has excelled Trinity College in the amount of scientific attention given to the study of social and political science. The department of history, political and social science has been well manned since its organization and will be strengthened in the future. On this account Col. Waddell's visit is a timely selection will find good ground to sow upon.

A Citizen of Northampton Dies in New Berne.

Mr. Q. T. Gatlin, a young man about 26 years of age, died at eight o'clock yesterday morning at Mrs. C. F. Willis boarding house on South Front Street of typhoid fever after an illness of twelve days.

Mr. Gatlin's home was near Conway, Northampton county, N. C. He with two assistants came to the city about six weeks ago selling bibles and other religious books for a Richmond firm.

He was a member of the Baptist church and upon leaving of illness the members of the New Berne Baptist church were assiduous in their attentions to him. They saw that he was kept supplied with a nurse and the pastor and leading members of the church visited him often and Dr. N. H. Street attended him regularly. The remains left on the freight train for his home for his home. Mr. Henry T. Barnes one of his assistants accompanying them, and Mr. W. C. Taylor the other remaining to wind up the business.

Miss Bessie has just finished the course of study in the Durham Graded schools with distinction, was its valedictorian of the class, and was highly complimented by both the Durham papers.

Moreover she has been for three years the organist of Trinity Church M. E. Sunday School, Durham, and when leaving the school, as a token of esteem presented her with a beautiful and valuable gold watch.

We join in the congratulations for the honors won by the fair young citizen of our sister city.

A Matter of Pride.

The Raleigh News & Observer says that the opinion has been expressed that the funeral car and six black horses used in the Davis memorial exercises there and gotten up by Mr. John W. Brown was the finest turnout which was used in any city during the whole occasion from New Orleans to Richmond and those who were at the final interment at Richmond say it surpassed the funeral car used there. Mr. Brown did the handsome thing and made Raleigh feel proud of the fine appearance presented on the occasion. It is a just matter of pride not simply for Raleigh but for the State.

A Turtle That Weighed a Ton.

The Beaufort Herald of June 1st tells of a black turtle weighing between 1,800 and 2,000 pounds that was caught near Cape Lookout. It took 15 men to pull it out of the water, and 8 to turn it over on its back after landing. Old fishermen tell that turtles larger than this have been caught off this shore. This species of turtle is not fit to eat. This one was fried to get the oil, which is very valuable.

IN MEMORIAM.

Entered into Life Eternal, in the confidence of a certain Faith, and in the comfort of a reasonable, religious and Holy Hope on Sunday morning, June 4th, at her home in this city, Lizzie G. beloved wife of John R. B. Carraway, in the 27th year of her age.

Though suffering from a lingering disease, her patience was sublime, and no murmurs were heard from her lips. All that science, medical skill and devoted affection could suggest was done; but only to defer, unable to avert the approaching end.

Her nature was sweetened by affection, and her soul richly endowed with the gracious gift of Charity. That Charity that suffereth long, and is kind; envieth not, vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up. Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own; is not easily provoked; thinketh no evil; rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth. Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things, and never faileth.

Her life was the abode of Faith, Hope and Charity, these three, but the greatest of these is Charity.

While the limited intervals of partial health were devoted mainly to the care and culture of her precious little ones yet the yearnings of her heart ever went out beyond herself, and strove in her humble way to relieve those less favored, to the uttermost of her ability. Truly may it be said "She hath done what she could."

On Sunday morning the messenger came and as the rosette, hue of dawn was lighting up the eastern horizon, her soul was released from the body, and in unison with the rays of the rising sun ascended far above to the Paradise of our God.

The church militant sent one more faithful soldier and servant to join the ranks of the Church Triumphant, and teaches us who remain behind to continually pray. "We also beseech thy holy name for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear; beseeching Thee to give us grace, so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly kingdom."

"Grant this Obit Father for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen

OUR APPROACHING MEETING.

To Every North Carolina Teacher and Friend of Education.

An event of great importance to the teachers of North Carolina, and to every school in the State, will be the tenth annual session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, at Morehead City, June 20 to July 8, 1893. Many new features in the Assembly work introduced this session, will make the occasion of more value than ever.

Men and women of the highest reputation and success in our State, representing every department of education, will be present to meet you and give you their best thoughts and views in professional work.

The meeting will be one of unusual educational value, such as ambitious and progressive teachers cannot afford to lose. It will be a time to make most pleasant and valuable acquaintances, renew and strengthen old friendships, exchange professional experiences with those who are working in lines like your own, and get broader, deeper and more practical conceptions of popular education.

The results of such a delightful meeting of our teachers as has been planned for the coming session of the Assembly are certain to increase the interest of all our people in education; and to establish our schools on a more prosperous basis than ever before.

There will be full and free presentation and discussion of such methods of teaching as are adapted to the peculiar conditions of our educational systems, public and private.

Teachers cannot be too strongly urged to present who desire to become more efficient in their work; to know why the most successful members of the profession succeed; to secure a good school position or a change of location for the fall term; to gain a new educational inspiration, or to recover from the fatigue of a school term by the unfeeling influences of the refreshing sea-breeze and the exhilaration of an ocean bath.

One of the most valuable departments of the Assembly now is the Teachers' Bureau, which will assist teachers in securing good positions, and will supply competent teachers to any principal or school committee who may desire them.

Mr. E. E. Britton has charge of the Bureau, and no charge is made for any assistance rendered. Applications should be sent in at once.

The expenses of your trip will be exceedingly light—a two week visit to the Assembly, including round-trip railroad fare from the most distant portion of the State and first-class board at the famous Atlantic Hotel, need not cost over $25. The total expense of attendance for the entire session, including railroad fare and board, will not exceed $18. The professional and social value of the meeting to a teacher will be many times greater than the slight expense of attendance.

The annual fees for membership in the Teachers' Assembly are $2 for males and $1 for females. By special request of the Assembly the railroads will add the membership fee to the price of the ticket, and will furnish purchaser a coupon, for which, when presented to the Secretary at Morehead City, a "Certificate of Membership" will be supplied, which will entitle the holder to all special hotel rates, lectures, entertainments, and every other privilege of all who hold certificate of membership at a uniform rate of only $1 per day. The boatmen make reductions for sailing and fishing parties, so that these delights may be constantly participated in by all.

A cordial invitation is extended to teachers and friends of education of other States to visit the Assembly and enjoy with us the privileges of the session and the delights of the sojourn at our "Educational Capital by the Sea."

EUGENE G. HARRIS, Sec'y and Treas.

Things Worth Remembering.

When you feel a kind of giddiness about the stomach it is a sign that your food does not sit well and that you are about to have a fit of indigestion.

When you begin to feel nervous and are unable to sit still comfortably; when your clothes suddenly seem to lose their fit and become too tight in places the fit of indigestion is surely upon you.

When this fit of indigestion is repeated from day to day it finally resolves into dyspepsia.

Remember that three to ten of Brandreth's Pills will cure the worst case of indigestion or dyspepsia, or both, and a regular course of them, say two every night for a week or ten days, will act as a preventive of either complaint.

BIG IRIS' ADIEU TO KATIE.

My Katie Melvine, your letter I've received, And have taken to heart each word you have said. It causes your sweetheart a great deal of pain To think that his motives have all been in vain.

Ungenerous, or cruel, I sought not to be For I compromised the case in letter No. three, As letter No. 2 was mere fun; I'll agree: The aforesaid one was my just decree.

A heart full of love, you do not assume, Such I claim not—I do not presume, 'Tis true if you loved, you'd be trustful and true, As you say, "feed chickens, and wash and scrub too."

All this I admire, from a true girl's heart; But one that I loved, should claim letter on my part. We would play, sing, ride, walk; when business was done, Or enjoy any innocent amusement, for fun.

I think I should blush over my head, nose or eyes, If you should have the audacity for once, to surmise, That I'd say hard things to the one I should please, Or leave her home any time to kill bugs, flies or bees.

Your letters were charming, and with interest did I read, My thoughts far away, to my Katie of yore. But Miss Mollie is here, in a fine situation And your sweetheart is waiting for an interpretation.

But as you have given it, and say "we will marry," I did you good-by, as I've no time to tarry; But I'll simply say this, ever forever we part. I'll cherish you always, in my great big heart.

I never for once, thought of land, gold or pelf; But always have cherished "your dear little self." The betrothal has been broken—work claims my time, So good-by forever! Dear Katie Melvine, I ever yours in fond remembrance, BIG IRIS.
