MANY bicycles are priced at $150; but there is not a case on record where they were sold for $150. Why? Because they are not worth more than $100. Yet persons who own such goods flatter themselves that they are owners of first class wheels. Evidence of "fidelity" in the "Columbia," model B2 is priced at $150, and we will give $50 to the person who can legitimately buy them for less. Why? Because they are worth $150 every cent! No great success was ever achieved without the force of enthusiasm.

Faith is as necessary in business as in religion; confidence is the foundation of credit.

The Standy News says that Mr. Guilford Hayley, one of the successful farmers of Standy county, who is now 57 years of age, never bought a bushel of corn, a pound of bacon in his life. He is a clever, good citizen, is out of debt, has money on interest, "lives at home and boards at the same place."

B. W. Stone, secretary of the South Georgia Pear Growers' Association, says the yield in that section this year will be over 20,000 barrels.

It is estimated that there will be two weeks more of speech-making before the Bering sea tribunal. The discussion will be closed by ex-Minister Phelps, the senator counsel for the United States.

A Georgia paper says: Ten years ago an old Dougherty county negro dreamed that he found a pot of gold in his field. It derailed his mind, and since that time every night he has been digging for the buried treasure.

Money is drifting from Wall street to the south and west. It will drift back again. Wall street holds a string tied to every dollar in the country. We need state banks that would issue a currency not easily controlled by Wall street.

Senator Gordon of Georgia, better known as General Gordon, is to deliver and address in New York on Grant and Lee. If any man can do justice to both and please at the same time the North and the South that man is John B. Gordon.

The "jag care" law now on the statute books of Michigan provides that anyone convicted of drunkenness may choose between a term of imprisonment an submission to a course of treatment at some Keeley institute. The county shall spend at least $70 trying to cure the prisoner of his desire for strong drink in case he elects to be treated.

Some people seem to be afraid that the successful revolutionists in Nicaragua will tear up the canal and put it into sashes for their generals.

Dun & Co's weekly report says the action of the New York banks in issuing a massive loan certificate has changed the position of the market. Even a general Chicago and Milwaukee market was not the weakness of a week ago. West. The report says: "Our exports for the month were 15,000,000 lbs. less than for the corresponding month of last year. This is due to the fact that the business of the country is still in a languid state. The volume of business has not yet begun to show a decided improvement."

Impressions of an Atlantic Visitor.
A gentleman who came up from the Atlantic Hotel Monday morning gives us the following statements in reference to it: "I noticed first a marked improvement in the furnishings of the hotel. There are nice Brussels carpets on the floors of all the halls to overcome the annoyance of walking and there is a new supply of linen crockery and other tableware, making everything neat and complete."

The head waiter is a competent and reliable man from Rhode Island and the corps of help is well worthy of special mention as well as the fare, which has given entire satisfaction. In fact the entire furnishings and management has been improved in all minutiae and the hotel is run in the best of good old North Carolina style.

The Brandon band from Augusta, Ga., is pronounced the best ever in the Atlantic. Their selections are classical, renditions fine and worthy to rank as a special attraction of the season.

And the office, the first and last place encountered by the hotel patrons, is well equipped with excellent gentlemen who take every means to please the guests, and Mr. Owen, the chief clerk is particularly affable and fills his position cleverly, ably and to the satisfaction of all.

Mr. Perry keeps on as he has begun, and his past record is proof enough that he will take a long step towards establishing the reputation of Morehead City as the Long Branch of the South.

Among the guests of distinction whom the gentleman noticed at the Atlantic Sunday were: Ex-Gov. and Mrs. Jarvis, of North Carolina; Gen. and Mrs. Chapin of Rhode Island; Mr. Hatchell, correspondent of the Richmond, (Va.) Dispatch; Mr. and Mrs. Donavan of Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers of Durham; Mr. L. J. Moore and Messrs. J. A. Bryan, S. L. Dill, W. G. Boyd and M. Hahn of New Bern and Wm. Cleve, of Vanceboro.

Partly Swallowed a Silver Dollar.
The most remarkable case of money swallowing that ever came to our knowledge occurred in this city Sunday. An eight months old child of Sallie Brant col, whose home is on Cedar Street swallowed a silver dollar just as far as it would go. By holding the child's face downward and slapping it on the back the dollar was loosened and it slipped up far enough toward the mouth to be recovered after about a quarter of an hour's trying for it. Dr. Leinster Duffy, who was promptly summoned when the accident occurred, has the dollar. The child's injury was so serious that it bled at both mouth and nose and the throat was so sore as to deprive it from taking nutriment yesterday.

Shad Planting.
There were deposited in Neuse river, near this city, last month, by the U. S. Fish Commission 250,500 young white shad, according to the official report recently rendered to Hon. F. A. Woodard, our Congressman, by the commission, as required by law. This gives promise of plenty of shad for next season's fishing—Goldboro Argus.

The State Industrial Schools.
We learn from the News and Observer the following facts in reference to the meetings of the Board of Trustees of the A. S. M. College and the Board of Directors of the Normal and Industrial school. The meetings were important and successful and give an encouraging outlook for each institution.

The Trustees of the A. S. M. College, established post-graduate studies in the degree of master of science and master of arts, and a department of employment of those studies in connection with the college.

The law established by the board of colleges, known as the Board of Trustees, is maintained by the board of trustees. The board of trustees passed a resolution to have a committee to investigate the situation at Washington, D. C., the office of the military instructor.

The personnel of the board of trustees, as does that of the board of trustees, is pleased with the excellent work being done. At least 150 students are expected during the next year. Provision has been made to accommodate the number or more.

At the meeting of the Board of Trustees, State Normal and Industrial school, President McVeer made his report to the board's operation of the Normal and Industrial School, and recommended for the coming year, which will be the third of October. Among the interesting facts shown by their report are the following:

1. The total enrollment for the year was 223, of whom 190 were students and 33 were teachers.
2. The average age of the students is 24 years.
3. Seventy counties were represented among the students.
4. More than 42 per cent of the students are delaying their studies by fees, board, &c., because they are poor or by money, which they had not saved.
5. The boarding department of the school has been well managed. At the end of the session all provisions were sold when the term closed. The books they showed the results of the board money plan. The amount will be equal to the amount of those who have found that the plan works during the year.

After receiving President McVeer's report the board took up the question of enlarging the boarding department for the coming year. Prof. E. A. Alderman, who is to be the new chair of normal studies in the University, and of Mrs. M. J. B. who is to be married during the year, and will make her home in the city.

BIG IKE'S ADDRESS TO THE LADIES.

Dear Ladies, (roughly translated) you are all good. And 'tis evident your hearts are all true. Yet your secret inward passions are all unhappiness to me. And the moments you pass away from me.

You prognosticate my future in such a way it is a shame. I loath her such a prospect. Your Mollie (would) you would be all be good. So save it for our "new situation".

If the lumber on "the farm" that you make up the "wood" will be of any use, such a useful to the ladies.

'Tis ever vastly sad, if you can believe all pure. You might make a tall fellow out of the wedding gown. And create for the people some satisfaction.

The meeting on the street, 'tis a pleasant thought. I want. For 'twill be indeed a strange thing. For a sex-gene-ran it will do for some crink of sixty two. But it cannot suit Big Ike's expectation. Your "wood" to cheer my life, or such to make a wife.

I'm forced to say: Why in the creation did you mention such a thing to me, and solve bring. To a heart that's suffered long from re-moisstration?

Your money—never found I always hold it dear. But it would—or "wood," would be a worthless valuation. If your coins were made of such—I say so inasmuch. As in everything your "wood's" your affirmation.

In your statements you affirm, that the motives you discern. Are all of "wood" be proclamation—If you would have them very large, nonsense you must discharge. And our aims will be of good prognostications.

How it Strikes a Visitor.
A visitor to the State encampment, thus describes it in the Raleigh News and Observer:
The Camp fronts on the railroad, some two and a half miles west of the Atlantic beach, and extends to the water, from which there is a never failing stream. Two streets on either side of which the tents are to be pitched, it is a mile and a half long. The water is pure and wholesome. The only buildings are the officers' quarters, the kitchen, the mess hall, and the store. The only amusement is the social life of the soldiers.
