The Court-martial of the officers of the wricked British war ship Victoria has begun.

It is stated that the President has tendered Judge Cullen, of New York, the appointment to the supreme Court of the United States in the place of the late Justice Blatchford.

The last thing that a Grenola (Kansas) Justice of the Peace did before leaving Kansas was to read or a decision to the effect that the Constitution of the United States is unconstitutional.

Young—Man—Afraid for His Horses, who recently died suddenly was one of the best of Indians. His death may make more difficult the task of governing the Sioux Nation.

The Washington Star says the Treasury Department is taking advantage of the demands of the banks for small bills to turn the tables on them and force them to purchase such notes with gold or gold certificates.

Notwithstanding the world's great mechanical progress, there are wine districts, in France, Spain and Italy where the grapes are still trodden with bare feet, not the idea that the wine is better when so made.

Let their rascals be turned out and give our rascals a showing. Make room at the feed trough for us," yells jolly John Triplett, in the Thomsville Times. That is the most logical piece of advice offered this summer.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis and her daughter, Miss Winnie, are at the Bookingham, Narragansett Pier. Mrs. Davis is a trifle lame, but manages to get about with the aid of a cane. Mrs. U. S. Grant is expected there in a few days, as the guest of Mrs. Davis.

The old saying that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody any good," has been again exemplified in South Carolina. Since the famous earthquake in that state the soil of Berkeley county has been much more productive. Professor Newman, of Clemson College, accounts for this on the theory that the earthquake provided better drainage than previously existed.

Asia, cholera is gaining ground in Russia, Austria, Southern France and Egypt. It is also spreading in Hungary. There is a report that it has reached St. Petersburg. The probability is that it will spread rapidly now until the cold weather. The yellow fever will get a foothold on our shores if the health officials are not uncommonly watchful.—Messenger.

The Paris press are very bitter against England on account of her attitude in the French-Siamese dispute.

The trunk lines running out from New York have established a cheap round-trip fare to the World's Fair. The tickets cost $17. From Philadelphia a will-pot on, beginning the 21st inst., what they call excursion fares to run to the week, Wednesday and Saturdays, round-trip tickets for one fare good for 100 days.

Is it not about time for the Southern roads to think about making a cheaper round-trip rate to the Chicago Fair? The roads leading out of New York have reduced the rate to 100 days. On the days of the week, from New York to Philadelphia and back have been reduced to $17. On the days of the week, from New York to Philadelphia and back have been reduced to $17.
