ONE of the most satisfactory things about a Columbia Bicycle is the price. Owners of this wheel know they own a bicycle worth the price $170, because Columbia are never at any place sold for less. Heavy discounts are given on many other wheels listed at $170, because they are not worth the listed price. The discount varies as the persistence and persistency of the prospective purchaser. Moral: Buy a Columbia and know that you do, beyond the shadow of a doubt, ride the Best on Earth, the 000 wheelman ride Columbia.
W. T. HILL & Co., Sole Agents.

And now Monte-viden asks its Government to stop coming after it.

The only thing that is working against the success of the Chicago fair now is the railroad fare.

Congressman O'Ferrall seems to be having a walk over for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Virginia.

The Martine Hospital here is notified of the prevalence of yellow fever in Pernambuco, Santos and Bahia, Brazil.

Crisp keeps cool. The papers are saying how the committee of the House are to be arranged, but the Speaker keeps his mouth shut.

The officials at the Navy Department are now convinced that there is no truth in the report of the Mohican having been fired upon by the Alexandria.

The Ram's Horn strikes the right note when it says: "Nothing will do more to put wrinkles in your face than worrying about things you can't help."

The woods in Georgia are full of gubernatorial timber. Hon. James H. Blount is somewhere in the bush, and multitudes of Democrats want him to come out and show himself.

The death of Gen. James F. Holzwahl at his home at Montgomery, Ala., removes another brave Confederate officer. At the time of his death, on the 18th, inst., he was railroad commissioner of Alabama.

The Richmond Dispatch says the Supreme Court of the United States has decided that the 10 per cent tax on State banks is not unconstitutional. That will settle it in so far as the law goes, but the Congress might care an oppressive and unjust law by expunging it from the statutes.

Gen. Mariana Escobedo, the greatest living general of Mexico, is seriously ill with pleurisy, and the physicians attending him entertain very little hope of his recovery. Gen. Escobedo is the conqueror of Maximilian, and is said to be the only man in Mexico who could have the presidency for the asking. He recently visited the World's Fair at Chicago.

The silver mine owners have it in their power to put up the price of silver by simply closing their mines until they are plus is worked off. This they can do as the owners of the principal mines are wealthy enough and can afford to let them lie idle for awhile. An over production of silver has the same effect on that as an overproduction of wheat has on the wheat market.

The secretary of the Kansas department of agriculture has issued a statement saying that if the conditions continue favorable Kansas will have the largest corn crop in the State's history with the exception of that of 1892, when the yield was 273,000,000 bushels from an average of 6,824,631 acres.

M. Turner, the inventor of medicine, declares that he has invented a wonderful gun which will hold forth 100,000 projectiles at once and that no other kind of gun has ever been invented. He will give no details of it, but says that it is operated by electricity and is very simple in its construction.

Not since the site of Georgetown on the Atlantic coast was a loss in the death of Gen. C. Jones, Jr. of Augusta. He was a notable soldier and a notable statesman, and his death is a great loss to the State. He was a member of the Senate and a member of the cabinet.
