Governor Boies, of Iowa,

declines renomination.

The world's coal fields will last 1,000 years. That gives us time enough to discover or invent a new fuel.

The North Carolina delegation in Congress will cast lots for the positions given our State by the House doorkeeper.

The public schools of this country have 369,000 teachers, 13,000,000 pupils and cost last year $145,724, 847.

Most of the Representatives are said not to have any well defined idea of what is best to be done. But the most of the Democrats are against unconditional repeal.

There are 100 Presidential vacancies in the Treasury Department, 23 being internal revenue collectors. Mr. Carlisle is anxious to fill these.

The Louisville Times

says the President's message has created a profound impression. The New Orleans Evening State says the message is conservative and strong.

To indefinitely postpone the Democratic platform is to defeat the ends it aims at. The people have their eyes fixed on their congressmen.

Every Georgia member is against the unconditional repeal of the Sherman act. So are all the North Carolina delegation in the House but Mr. Bonn.

An old lady, Mrs. Beggs, living near Asheville, N. C., has been predicting the end of the world, and has succeeded in getting the negroes very badly stirred up over the subject.

If Congress cannot carry out the pledge of the Democratic platform now the time will never arrive. Better get ahead and try it anyway. There's nothing like trying.

Dr. M. A. Check, of Orange County.

Says the times are the wealthiest and most prosperous business men in Savannah. He is a lumber king, runs a sawmill and owns a herd of 125 sheep, worth $1,000 apiece.

It is said that if the United States will stop purchasing silver Europe can be coerced into accepting bimetalism. The coercion business is bosh, but by all means stop the purchase of silver. Let congress pass a free coinage bill repealing all conflicting acts and making silver a full legal tender. This will do the business for the Sherman law.—Constitution.

The Democratic platform

may be carried out by Democrats. No mugwumpery in either tariff or finance, but clear-cut Democratic doctrine! The platform as it is, and not as any faction would have it. No compromise with mugwumpery! No compromise with republicanism! Let the platform be carried out—every pledge and every promise redeemed!

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Howard,
Found—A Yale lock key

Special meeting of the Naval Reserve tonight.

P. M. Pearsall, Esq., of Trenton, is on a business trip to the city.

The colored fair opens next Monday to continue till the 18th.

Read the President's message on the fourth page of the JOURNAL.

There will be a special drill of the Naval Reserve tonight at 8:30. It is important that every member should be present.

Mr. P. S. Swain will deliver a lecture on Sunday Schools at the Church of Christ tonight at half past eight o'clock, the public is invited to be present.

Services will be held as usual today (Friday) in the Episcopal Church and also on Sunday next by the pastor. The announcement to the contrary has been changed.

The revival at Lenoir Swamp church, Lenoir county, conducted by Mr. D. W. Davis, closed Monday night, resulting in 18 conversions. They speak of building a Disciples' church at that place.

Mr. H. A. Creagh, formerly of New Berne, but now in the commission business at Norfolk, is in the city a short while. His many friends were glad to see him and to know that he is doing well.

The Cape Fear Steam Fire Engine Company and Mutual Baseball Team will come over the new railroad from Wilmington to the Oriental fair. Also two pugilists will come and give exhibitions on the grounds. Prospects indicate a large attendance.

We fell in today with one of the New Berne boys whom we have only seen occasionally for several years—E. M. Womble. After moving about somewhat promiscuously, a year or so ago he got a position on the Cape Charles light ship as engineer. He came up this morning on the Plymouth for a months vacation. He now has a fine physique and an average of two hundred pounds, less perhaps two or three.

Especially did we desire to chronicle the advent of some lady. We always thought the "birth column" such an interesting feature that we would have made a new departure for this paper if the item could have been found. It is so nice and convenient to let the friends know, and all the world beside, that another little cherub has flown over the wall and found a warm place in your home and heart.

In keeping with the above we submit the following from Whittier's Child Life, by Geo. Macdonald:

THE BABY.

Where did you come from baby dear?
Out of the sky as I came through.

Where did you get your eyes so blue?
Out of the sky as I came through.

What makes the light in them sparkle and spin?
Some of the starsy spikes left in.

Where did you get that little tear?
I found it waiting when I got here.

What makes your forehead so smooth and high,
A soft hand stroked it as I went by.

What makes your cheek like a warm white rose?
Something better than any one knows.

Whence that three cornered smile of bliss?
Three angels gave me at once a kiss.

Where did you get that pearly ear?
God spoke and it came out to hear.

Where did you get those arms and hands?
Love made itself into books and hands.

Feet whence did you come's darling things?
From the same box as the cherub's wings.

How did they all just come to be you?
How did they all just come to be you?
I God thought about me and so I grew.

But how did you come to us I dear,
God thought of you and so I'm here.

World's Wonder Beans.

One of our subscribers has sent to our office a couple of pods about a foot long of the World's Wonder beans, each containing about a dozen large white seeds. The seeds were sent from New York to test their adaptability to our soil and climate and they prove all right. It is a running bean and will reach a height of 15 or 20 feet, bearing large purple l/soons.

When cultivated well the pods reach a length of 18 inches and are filled closely with the beans. Both pods and seeds are edible; when cooked together they resemble in flavor "cabbage" or salad peas; when the seeds are cooked separately they are very much like Lima beans.

The "local" has gone where the "pony penne" — we are trying to occupy his seat, even if we do not fill his chair. We have made strenuous effort to find some news, have "pressed brick" in long stretches, but the times are too hard—news won't circulate.

The President's Message.

The message of President Cleveland to the extraordinary session of Congress is presented to the readers of the JOURNAL to-day.

It recommends unconditional repeal of the silver purchasing clause of the Sherman law without a hint of compromise or substitute of any kind.

A leading Southern journal epitomizes the message thusly: "There is suffering. The country needs relief. Repeal the Sherman act and go home."

Everything appears differently as viewed from different stand points. The friends of repeal regard it as a fair compromise. It is strong and full of life. The enemies of repeal regard it as a fair compromise for Jones who has the message to-day, the fact that it does not analyze the situation at all. The Sherman law has been passed to show with the present condition of the country.

The New-Orleans Chronicle says: "Cleveland's message will be a great disappointment to the masses of the American people, and particularly to the masses of the South and the West also. We cannot understand either the motives or the argument. It has long been understood that he would repeal the unconditional repeal of the Sherman law, and for that we were warmly prepared, but we had hoped that he would not stop at that, but after consultation with other experienced men would have recommended some further action. It is to be regretted that we have any high opinion of Mr. Cleveland's capacity. It is extraordinary, however, in his fine intelligence and undoubted patriotism."

We anticipate a very warm time in Congress. The day has passed when the representatives of the people can be deceived by a wave of the hand.

It was the duty of the President to send a message to Congress. The language of the Constitution is: "He shall from time to time give the Congress information of the state of the Union and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient."

The President has done what was obligatory upon him, and has done it in a timely and judicious manner.

Congress must now assume the higher responsibility of legislative. The first section of the Constitution declares that "All legislative powers herein granted shall be invested in a Congress of the United States which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives."

The JOURNAL, in this article, gives a particular account of the present situation. Many believe that the present situation is a desperate one. We shall examine all of them to the extent of our limited ability, and a favorite that which most nearly conforms to the Democratic platform and would most certainly bring relief to the people.

We trust that some means will be found to bring the President and Congress together on the Chicago platform. We should be exceedingly reluctant to part company with Mr. Cleveland on any great question, but we hold that the Chicago platform, and that only, is the creed of Democrats.

Honor to a New Berne Poultry Breeder.

New Berne is fast gaining a national reputation for fancy poultry. Mr. Hugh D. Wood, of Wood Bros., proprietors of River View Poultry Yards, has just received official notification from Atlanta, Georgia, of his election as one of the vice-presidents of the great Southern Poultry Association. The selection of Mr. Wood for the above position is quite an honor to the poultry breeders in and around New Berne, the more so to Mr. Wood as it was entirely unexpected by him, and it is a well-earned recognition of the distinction the firm is attaining by the excellence of the birds they are supplying to other fanciers over the union and by the high class exhibits they are repeatedly making at fairs.

The next meeting of the Southern Poultry Association will be held in Atlanta from January 9th to 13th, 1894. We append list of other leading officers: President, T. W. Uzel, Columbus, Ga.; 1st vice-President, Geo. M. Downs, Atlanta; Treasurer, R. T. Campbell, Atlanta; Secretary, H. A. Kahns, Atlanta.

Two of the above, Messrs. Downs and Kahns, are editors of poultry journals, the former of the Southern Poultry Fancier and the latter of the Poultry Annual.

Stockholders' Train.

The annual excursion of the stockholders will be run over the A. & N. C. Railroad Tuesday, Aug. 22. It will leave Goldsboro at 6 o'clock in the morning and arrive at Morehead at 10:35. Returning it will leave Morehead that evening at 6 o'clock. All stockholders and their immediate families will be passed free.

"Think naught a trifle though it small appear,"—Yours.

The trilles of dress if neglected detract from one's otherwise neat appearance. We have some trilles of dress that you cannot dispense with. They are Ties and Scarfs, Duds Bows, Handkerchiefs, Half Hose, Suspenders, Collars and Cuffs, Garters, Collar and Cuff Buttons, Scarf Pins, Leather Belts, &c. We have a real good Black Half Hose, fast color, at $1.00 for a half dozen. Try them.

W. Smith, Township No. 1, be appointed to investigate fully the said matter of the purchase of said ferry, and in connection therewith the best method of obtaining free transportation across New River at such points as in their opinion will subserve the interest and convenience of the greatest number of people.

THEY'RE NOT ALL ALIKE

—blood medicines. There's only one that is so far reaching and so satisfying in its effects that it can be guaranteed to do all that is promised for it. That is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. If that doesn't cure you, you have your money back.

It's not like the sarsaparilla or ordinary Spring medicines. They claim to do good in March, April, and May. All the year round, and in all cases, the "Discovery" purifies the blood as nothing else can. Every blood taint and disorder, Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, Tumors and Swellings—the most stubborn Skin and Scalp Diseases, and the worst forms of Scrofula, are completely and permanently cured by it.

Buy of reliable dealers. With any others, something else that pays them better will probably be urged as "just as good." It may be, for them; but it can't be for you.

For colic, cramps, and pains in stomach, nothing equals Dr. Pierce's Smart-West Elix.
