The pulse of trade beats to quicker time.

The South attends the Racket better than the North.

Senator Vest has made a strong speech in favor of bimetalism.

Rev. Dr. Deems, the great preacher, is nearing his end.

It would be well for the President to accept Ohio's interpretation of the Chicago platform.

Cannon, of Illinois, has returned to the House, but he is not the big gun he once was.

There is no yellow fever at Brunswick. Everything is quiet and the panic has turned to indignation.

It is said that the Senate will not get fairly down to work until the House has disposed of the financial question.

It cost the government just $40,000 to entertain the duke of Veragua during his visit to this country.

Senator Hill introduced a resolution limiting the action of the called session of Congress to the financial situation.

Here are apprehensions in regard to the health of the President. The New York papers say that his appearance indicates serious illness.

To the Herald reporter Oot Lamont said of the President: He is quite tired and requires some diversion. This is the object of his return to Gay Gables.

Democrats must hold a high head and stiff upper lip. Oofoond the fellow that runs as the first fire of the evening. But they say "there is mutiny in the camp." Arrest the mutiners and save the country. This is no time for foolishness.

On Monday Aug 14, Senator Voorness introduced his bill authorizing the issue of national bank notes to the full value of bonds deposited. Secretary Farley recommends the bill and says it will add nineteen million dollars to the circulation.

There is much suffering among cigar makers. There seems to be an ever production of cigars, and none of the Florida factories are running on more than half time, while many have shut down entirely. The same is true of the factories at Memphis, New Orleans, Cincinnati, Chicago and other places.

It would be the irony of fate if home rule should be effected by Irish votes, but that is what is now threatened. The Proclitic members do not think the vote is strong enough to Ireland, but surely it gives Ireland much more than he now in their opposition; it is quite stuffy.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
Howard, Fortune teller.
McNamee Williams—Fortune teller.
C. D. Sway & Bro. Model ledgers, &c.
J. W. Wood—Chimney, cistern and well cleaner.

Prof. Coopers delights the visitors at the Fair as heretofore with his Punch and Judy, shadowgraphs, etc. It is said to be better than ever before.

Today's balloon ascension will take place this afternoon without fail between 2 and 5 o'clock. Remember that it will be the first trial trip of a New Bern balloon.

A Merchand City correspondent writes that there is a man going through Carteret, Onslow, Jones and Green counties selling receipts to preserve trains who is a fine lumbar.

The first freight passed over the new railroad Tuesday. It was a car load of brick made at M. Porter's brick yard, sold by W. P. Rutter, brought to the city by the A. & N. C. Railroad and transferred to a car of the other road.

Rev. J. D. Carpenter, wife and son were among the passengers of the steamer Plymouth yesterday. They came from Norfolk. All got off at Denmark's farm below the city. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter will be engaged in a meeting near there.

The special Fair train of the W. N. & N. R. R. will run up to and including Saturday. They arrive at New Bern at 1:30 p. m. and leave at 1:30 p. m., arriving at Wilmington at 6:00 p. m. They arrive and depart from foot of Queen street.

Coming and Going.

Mrs. F. M. Simmons and children returned from Morehead.

Mrs. Theresa Roberts, accompanied by her two daughters, Misses Theresa and Katie, left to spend a month at the seaside.

Mr. Edward Clark, one of the Ocracoe excursionists, who came via of Washington has arrived.

The Beer Stand gets in its Work

An affair occurred yesterday in the beer tent in front of the Fair grounds between Prof. Steele, acrobat, and Mr. J. S. Garrett who sells in the tent, and the former was severely injured about the face and head. Not so bad however as to interfere with the ascension still to come.

Once before this the sale of intoxicating drinks was allowed on city property near the Fair. Public opinion is against permitting them to be sold either near these grounds, or on property belonging to the city anywhere, and rightfully so.

Slover-Whitford.

Dr. Geo. S. Slover and Miss Bessie Whitford were quietly married at the residence of the bride's father, Col. John D. Whitford, in this city, Wednesday, August 16th at 8 a. m. Rev. Rufus Ford officiating. No cards.

After the ceremony they left to spend six or eight weeks at High Point and a tour among the mountains of our State.

Dr. Slover is one of New Bern's large and successful hardware merchants. His bride is one of our most amiable and lovable young ladies. The esteem in which they are held was plainly manifested by the unusually large number of very handsome and elegant presents of which they were the recipients.

Raleigh Races August 28 and 29.

A large number of entries have been made for these races and the class of horses entered it is expected there will be witnessed such fast time at the coming meeting as has never been seen before in North Carolina.

The race track at the fair grounds is completed and is now without exception the finest one in the south.

In addition to the races there will be an exhibition of the beautiful ten months old filly with her boy trainer, which will interest and amuse both young and old. They will be gala days for the city folks and surrounding country and a large number of people are expected from all distances.

THE COLORED FAIR

Increased Attendance—The Racing—Further Mention of Exhibits.

The attendance at the colored Fair yesterday was considerably in excess of any previous day by both white and colored. The president estimated the number for the entire day at 3,000.

The game and field products and cattle are scarce. The poultry department is more fully supplied and contains some meritorious specimens.

There are some fine horses shown. The music exhibition is good. Flurton will exhibit in the floral department a very fine display of plants. The wall of the museum in this department is covered with the portraits of prominent colored citizens.

The fine wood work in fair specimens and is worthy of praise. The poultry department shows very well, both in the canned and preserved goods and in the raised supplies.

Many artistic articles in the line of the fine work are shown. This department is the largest and best of all. One silk quilt on exhibition in this department is offered for sale at $75. Another one shown was a gold and silver piece to the opening of the Fair for a still higher price.

An Atlas set in five pieces is very artistic, and many other exhibits are admirable. The children's department contains work that reflects credit upon them.

There are some interesting antiquities. In one a watermelon shows good labor and artistic work from home. A brass dial and Mrs. Shepard also have a worthy exhibit of ornamental work and useful.

Merrett White, undertaker, makes a lot of copies of imported medals and the rose-wood coffin also some mahogany and burr oaks.

J. G. Burton & Son show nearly finished coats. Their own make in several kinds of native work.

Robert Sawyer, tailor, makes a suitable display of cloth and garments from his establishments. He is an exhibit that commends itself to visitors. The exhibitor is an industrious, energetic man and good citizen. He would make a living anywhere he goes and he understands it well.

In the music department is exhibited an organ made by the pupils of Hampton Siding Institute, near Va. This is a class of work from the young colored people which few but any idea of their engineering in.

A revolving wheel with swinging chairs (some what like the Ferris wheel on a miniature scale) takes the place of a merry-go-round. It was manufactured years ago by a good old colored New Bernian, Geo. S. Fisher, now deceased. Some of our older citizens who knew him long and well, speak of him as the most ingenious man of his race they ever met.

What the Facts Are

A reading of the introductory remarks of President White of the colored fair will show some severe strictures. On inquiry we get from Mayor Ellis the following facts:

The cemetery committee rents the unused and unfenced portion of the cemetery as they see fit. Spaces have been rented heretofore on it, and the proprietor of the business in a tent on one of the spaces in which drinks are sold has license to sell only beer, soda water, etc.

In reference to licenses it is true that no tax has been collected heretofore from those inside the grounds, either at the white or colored Fairs. There has been no ruling along this line—the collection of the license was simply omitted, but early this year it was decided not to continue the practice and directly after the last exhibition of the white Fair those in charge were notified that the collection of the city taxes from those liable to pay it would not be passed by again. Both Fairs are treated alike and notice was served on the white Fair first.

A fact which shows the desire of the municipal government to promote the interest of the Fair now being held is that the entire lighting up of the Fair is done for it at the city's expense.

Kekoe—O'Neal.

Mr. C. M. Kehoe, the handsome and well-liked pursuer of the stamper Neuse was married last night at 9 o'clock to Miss Etta O'Neal, one of the prettiest young ladies of the city, at the residence of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Rebecca Willis, Father P. F. Quinn officiating.

An enjoyable reception was held immediately after at the home of Mr. Kehoe. Many choice presents graced the occasion and attested the good wishes of friends.

Yesterday's Trotting Race.

The trotting race 2:50 class, best 3 in 5 was a hotly contested one, the entire five heats had to be trotted to decide it. Prince Leon, bay gelding, owned by M. H. Sultan, was the winner.

The second place was obtained by Abdallah Chief, black stallion, owned by Dr. Leinster Duffy.

St. Elmo, owned by Joel Kinsey, came in third. Prince Leon and St. Elmo were each driven by owners. Abdallah Chief was driven by Ben. Hahn.

SENSIBLE WORDS.

Extracts from Speech of Rev. A. K. A Midway Diversion and a Great Well Done!

"You have heard of the 'Midway Diversion' and the 'Great Well Done!' which were the words of the Oriental Fair."

"The Oriental Fair was a success in every respect. It was a well-attended and well-organized affair. It was a well-attended and well-organized affair. It was a well-attended and well-organized affair."
