THE SPIDER AND THE FLIES. Things appear different from different standpoints.

Some of us have been talking Republicans and wondering why he ful. does so, and now comes the New York Recorder, a leading Republican paper, with a cortoon representing Republican Senatorial flies entangled in the administration web of gold. Cleveland is the spider with his wide spreading net around him, and in its meshes are the unfortunate flies, Hoar, Cullom, Hawley, Frye, Allison, Aldrich, Higgins, Washburn and Hale. The spider looks happy, but the flies appear to be miserable as miserable can be.

The cartoon presents no picture of the multitude, but we know that some Democrats are cursing Cleveland for eatching Republican Senators, and many Republicans are swearing at the Squators for being eaught.

Cleveland? It is simply because he is in bad company. Perhaps so, and may be not.
