Many banks are opening their doors. Indeed resumptons are more common now than failures.

If the country be really going to the dogs it must strike a brisker pace. Dog-days are nearly spent.

One of the profitable industries of London is the manufacture of sermons for unintellectual or lazy clergymen.

Seventy-two contract laborers, bound for Pennsylvania mines, were sent back from New York to Italy and Austria.

The stringency of the times has had the effect of cheapening almost everything. Labor gets less reward and the merchant makes less profit. The landlord ought to bear his proportion of the shrinkage and reduce his rents.

Rev. Mr. Moore, of Indiana, is in trouble with the women because he said in a sermon "God made the earth in six days and then He rested; then He made man and rested again; then He made woman and since that time neither God nor man has had a rest."

Coming and Going.
Mr. J. J. Baxter left yesterday morning to purchase his new stock of dry goods, gents furnishing, &c., with which he will open in a week or two in the recently vacated store on Middle street opposite the Baptist church.

Dr. J. H. Benton left to attend Sampson county court and to make a visit to his former home at Newton Grove.

Messrs. P. H. Pelletier and E. K. Bishop left to visit the World's Fair.

Mrs. J. A. Mead-left for the World's Fair.

Pamlico county was well represented in the departure of the World's Fair yesterday morning. Those from that county who left on the morning train to visit it were Mr. C. H. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cowell, Mrs. H. J. Keeney, Mr. W. A. Sawyer and Mr. Willie J. Sawyer.

Miss Julia Fryman from Pollocksville is visiting at Dr. N. H. Street's.

Mr. Seymour Hancock, of Washington N. C. is visiting at Mr. Robert Hancock's.

Mr. Wm. Davis, of the steamer, Netos, has left to visit relatives at Sayona.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Casper and Mr. A. M. Baker left for Elizabeth city on the steamer Plymouth.

Miss Gertha Tucker returned from a visit to friends at Dover.

Messrs. J. R. Bell, W. H. Taylor and R. M. and W. A. Westley, of Harlowe came up to the city yesterday morning. The former on business the latter en route to enter Trinity college. Mr. Westley stayed over and will keep on to the college today. Misses Emma and Madie Bell of Harlowe will leave here next week to enter Greenville Female College.

Miss Arnie Billman has arrived from her home near Wilmington to assist in nursing her brother Mr. M. Hillman who was crippled by a lambar Saturday. Mr. Hillman is getting on nicely notwithstanding the severity of his injuries.

Mr. Theo. Stilly of Pamlico left on the morning train for Baltimore on a business trip.

Miss Emma Simmons, of Oliver, Jones county came to New Berne Monday and left Tuesday for Kinsey Seminary, La Grange in which she will be teacher of music for the coming session having specially prepared for the position at the New York Conservatory of Music. Her friend Miss Mary Middleton, of Hallsville who has been spending a week or two in visiting her also passed through en route to her home.

Ravages by the Storm.
A special from Kernersville, N. C. to the Wilmington Star says a terrific cyclone struck there at five o'clock Sunday morning, and a hundred houses were wrecked and a woman killed. Many were injured. The Baptist block of brick was blown to the ground. Factories, stores and residences were unroofed and were blown entirely away. High winds and heavy rain were storm signals.

The large brick building in Oxford was also wrecked. The three proprietors had left the building only a short time before it was blown down.

In Wilmington two new frame buildings were blown down. Both were two story structures and rested upon brick pillars.

The blow at Carolina Beach was furious. The water came up to the hotel and cottage, though but slight damage resulted.

The gale was very severe in Wilmington and resulted in considerable loss along the water front. Thousands of dollars worth of timber were washed away and damage to telegraph and electric lines was severe.

Damage was done at Boutwell and Swanton. It is said. The storm apparently has been worse in New Berne than here. About 2500 worth of logs were washed away from the mill of the New Berne Lumber Company and the block of Lumber Company.

From Asheville to Goldsboro there was much rain with the sand but the rainfall was light in this vicinity.

Some ground is damaged somewhat, the soil where it has not yet been ground is shipped to peas badly, not much hurt to the grain, it is too far advanced. Cotton is thought will not suffer much. A great deal of fruit was blown from trees.

Speak Gently.
Ed. JOURNAL.—The poetry in Saturday's JOURNAL, under the above title is a hymn written by Dr. William Bates, an English Puritan divine, who died in the last year of the seventeenth century. He was a fine speaker and writer. Mr. Alibone says "He was sometimes called the silver tongue, and was reckoned the greatest of his age." His principal work was "The Harmony of the Divine Attributes," a classic in theology. After his decease his other works were collected and published with this in one large volume. This hymn is No. 1048 in Rev. Henry Ward Beecher's Hymn Book, "The Plymouth Collection." Mr. Beecher says in his Preface, "Many hymns have been abused by corrections, so called, and turned down from their noble fervor and careless freedom into flat and trite propriety. We have, as far as possible, avoided all changes, except those necessary to restore mutilated hymns to their original state. No language can well replace that which is the original inspiration of the author suggested." It is presumed the hymn which follows is as originally written.

Speak gently—it is better far
To rule by love than fear;
Speak gently—let no harsh word near
The good we may do here.

Speak gently to the young—for they
Will have enough to bear,
Pass through this life as best they may,
'Tis full of anxious care.

Speak gently to the aged one—
Grieve not the careless heart;
The sands of life are nearly run,
Let them in peace depart.

Speak gently to the erring ones—
They must have told in vain;
Perchance unkindness made them so,
O, win them back again!

Speak gently—'tis a little thing,
Dropped in the hearts deep well,
The good, the joy, that it may bring,
Eternity shall tell.

Speak Gently.
The Henderson Ledger give the following reference to J. W. Whelis, the Texas murderer whom we mentioned a few days ago as being arrested near Aurora for the crime:

"Six years ago in Robinson county, Texas, an old man of sixty years, named Whelis, shot and killed a neighbor of his. It is said the murder was cold-blooded and premeditated, Whelis hiding in ambush and shooting his victim as he approached."

The murderer fled and the authorities have been trying to effect his capture ever since. Recently he was located at Aurora, near Washington, N. C., and yesterday afternoon the sheriff of Robinson county passed through Henderson with the old man in custody, taking him back to Texas to answer in the courts of the State before a jury of his peers to the charge of murder.

Whelis was not tied or handcuffed, having given his word of honor to the sheriff that he would give him no trouble and cheerfully accompany him back to Texas. He went originally from Tennessee, and has been in hiding for six years."

The Vote in the House.
The Wilson bill having been read, Mr. Bland offered an amendment—that of free coinage of silver—that was defeated by a vote of yeas 174, nays 273, a larger majority than they expected. The second vote was on the ratio of 17 to 1. The decisive vote on the 16 to 1 ratio seemed to dishearten the silver men. The vote resulted in the defeat of the amendment by a vote of yeas 100, nays 240. The Populists did not vote.

The vote on the repeal of the Sherman Silver bill resulted, 239 yeas, and 109 noes.

Many people think nothing can be wrong that pays well.

LOOK AT THESE POINTS, showing where Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pills excel the ordinary pills:

They're smaller; easier to take; easier in their ways. No gripping; no disturbance; no reaction afterward.

Their influence lasts. By their tonic or strengthening effects on the intestines they increase the natural action of the bowels and permanently cure Constipation, Biliousness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, Sick or Biliary Headaches, and every like disorder.

Any child takes these tiny, sugar-coated Pills readily. They're put up in little sealed tins, and their taste is always reliable, while they can easily be carried in the vest-pocket.

Nothing else at any price is as cheap for their guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.

No substitute that a tricky dealer is ready to offer, though it may be better for him to sell, call for "Just as good" for you to buy.
