According to the report of the Utah Commission to the Federal Government, polygamous marriages are now things of the past.

Thirty-seven miners are entrapped in the Mansfield mine, in Michigan, by the rushing in of the waters of a river. It was impossible for any of them to escape.

Five negroes were hung at Mt. Vernon Georgia, Sept. 26 for murder. Three of them, Lucian M. Noel, Hiram Jacobs and Hire Brewington, were from North Carolina.

The editor of a Georgia paper, in criticizing a contemporary, says: "He kangerood over the fence of prevarication and Nancy Hanked through the woods of equivocation."

A dozen or more alligators savagely attacked three fishermen in southern Florida. Seven of the anglers were killed. One of the men had his leg fearfully lacerated while the battle was going on.

A West Virginia woman, who never had any educational advantages, can speak any foreign language after listening to a conversation in this respect are wonderful. The girl is young and pretty, and a rich farmer in the neighborhood has offered to educate her.

This little clipping is going the rounds. "Listen, oh, maiden; you who are too delicate to assist the mother in her household work. An average waltz takes a dancer over about three-quarters of a mile. A girl with a well-filled program travels 1 1/2 miles in one evening."

A St. Louis woman has lately perfected an invention for making sweet potato flour. The process includes peeling the potato and drying the peel as a food for live stock, drying and grinding the potato into three grades of flour, and also slicing into Saratoga chips.

Special meeting for young people at the Baptist church tonight at 8 o'clock. Come and bring your friend.

Dr. N. H. Street has moved his office to the building on Middle street nearly opposite Kaffer's bakery, formerly occupied by C. M. Higgins as a drug store.

Fifteen more cases of yellow fever are reported at Brunswick, Ga. Contributions and help continue to pour in but there is yet much distress and suffering in the city.

The cool weather will enable the water works company to begin laying the pipe pretty soon which will be duly appreciated by those wishing so strongly for the service.

The first of the stores in the Gaston House into which the lower floor is being changed by the remodeling is finished, suowing very prettily. It will be used as the bar of the hotel and is already occupied by B. H. Bergeron, formerly of Goldsboro.

The Helen Russel English Sports performed last night to a crowded house of males only. The audience was well pleased and showed it in vociferous applause. It is a good variety show and some of the burlesques very amusing. The dancing by the females was very fair and the drill decidedly good.

Trains Running Through Town.

A report has in some way been started to the effect that one railroad is allowed to run its trains through the city faster than the other. This is a mistake. The two are treated exactly alike. We have seen and read the agreement between the city and the railroads on file at the city clerk's office for ourself, and each one is denied the privileges of running any engine or car within the city limits faster than three miles an hour—a very slow speed—under a penalty of fifty dollars for each offense.

It may be interesting in this connection to call attention to what constitutes within the city limits.

Along the line of the A. & N. C. R. R. this covers all the track from the old fort beyond the macadamized road to the channel of Trent river.

Along the W. N. & N. R. R. it covers from End street to the channel of Neuse river.

Any train or engine running within these areas faster than spokes of is liable to be snapped up by an officer at any time and the penalty enforced.

Fire Alarm and Police Patrol Systems.

Mr. B. F. Blackall, of the Gamewell Fire Alarm system, spent yesterday in the city and while here made an examination of the one in New Berne and found it all working properly.

Mr. Blackall is en route to his home in Rochester, N. Y., from Augusta, Ga., where he has just finished putting in a police patrol system which works after the manner of the fire alarm. Under its workings a policeman who makes an arrest does not have to leave his beat but simply sends the alarm to headquarters and two policemen in a box wagon specially designed for the purpose, start immediately and with all reasonable haste to the point from which the call came and bring in the arrested offender.

Women's Missionary Conference.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

The annual sermon before the Woman's Missionary Convention was preached by Rev. R. F. Bumpass, of Beaufort at 11 a. m. Sunday morning. It was a sound discourse abounding in historical missionary data, touching on missionary work in general, but with special reference to as carried by the Methodist, and especially through the operations of the society now in session.

In the afternoon the Bright Jewel, exercises, with an address to the children by Rev. D. Atkins, D. D., took the place of the regular Sabbath school.

The Bright Jewels is the juvenile missionary society which works in connection with the Methodist Sabbath schools of the State. It was originated and the first organization effected in Raleigh about ten years ago by Mrs. W. S. Black now of Oxford, whose husband is the Superintendent of the Orphan Asylum at that point.

Mrs. Black is now the corresponding secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society and expected to be present and take part in the deliberations of this occasion but was prevented by an attack of nervous prostration from which she has been suffering and for which she is now at Buffalo Luthia Springs and is improving.

In the prayer of the afternoon session special petition was made for her speedy and complete restoration.

The address of Dr. Atkins was one well suited to the occasion. He has the happy faculty in a large degree of being able to interest and hold the attention of children and though his address was suited to the capacity of children it contained nuggets of wisdom from which the adults in the audience could well profit.

The missionary acoustic "The Whole World for Jesus" was formed by each of twenty-one girls reciting a verse of scripture, at the same time holding aloft the initial letter of the verse. Her recitation being finished the letters were hung on a cord so small as to be invisible to the audience and the next verse recited in the same manner, the letters at the close forming the suspended acoustic with very pretty effect.

The recitation and singing exercises by the children was a very charming feature of this meeting. "The Church Rallying Song" by the Sabbath school choir with which the meeting opened was beautiful. The air is pleasing and the rendition by all that could be desired. The music at all the meetings has been very good.

The reading, "A Living Sacrifice" Miss May Hendren with singing responses by Miss Stella Roberts, was a well chosen selection and quite impressive.

With the singing of "The Crowning Day is Coming" the afternoon meeting closed.

At night Rev. Dr. Atkins preached a very fine missionary sermon from Romans 11:2 to 16.

MONDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Yesterday morning Mrs. R. A. Willis read a paper from Mrs. L. W. Crawford on "How to Make the Monthly Meetings Interesting." It was so admirably prepared that it is desired to have it published in leaflet form.

Mrs. John R. Brooks, fraternal delegate from the Western North Carolina Conference read an excellent paper. Mrs. Brooks first entered into mission work fifteen years ago in this city and her reminiscence of the work were very delightful.

Mrs. Lee Johnson of Weldon read a strongly interesting paper on Mexico.

Also Rev. Dr. Atkinson made a short talk.

The election of officers in the afternoon for the next year resulted as follows:

President, Mrs. J. A. Cunningham, of Raleigh; Vice President, Mrs. F. D. Swindell, of Goldsboro; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. W. S. Black, of Oxford; Recording Secretary, Miss Blanche Pentz of Wilmington; Treasurer, Mrs. R. P. Howell, of Goldsboro.

Superintendent and Treasurer of Juvenile work, Mrs. W. S. Black of Oxford.

District Secretaries were elected as follows: Raleigh district, Mrs. R. H. Whitaker; Durham district, Mrs. T. J. Cozart; New Berne district, Mrs. J. A. Simpson; Fayetteville district, Miss Emma Page; Warrenton district, Miss H. A. Spiers; Wilmington district, Miss M. J. Hawes; Wilson district, Mrs. F. A. Woodard; Washington district, Mrs. Jas. Mahoney; Rockingham district, Miss Fannie Wood.

Fraternal delegate to Western Conference, Miss Blanche Pentz.

Mrs. R. F. Bumpass read and excellent paper on Brazil.

One of the above ladies, Miss Pentz of Wilmington, has never missed a meeting of the convention during the entire fifteen years that have elapsed since it was organized.

Another one, Miss Hawes of Wilmington, is a returned missionary from Japan, who had to come back on account of her health, a few months ago. She intends however to again take up the foreign missionary work.

Another of the ladies, Miss Fannie Wood, of Rockingham, is a daughter of Rev. Marcus L. Wood, one of the first missionaries to China.

The reading of the reports from the district was finished.

A telegram was sent by the corresponding secretary in behalf of the convention to Mrs. W. S. Black, recording secretary, whose illness prevented attendance and a reply received. In addition to the fraternal greeting the title question was added. "The Grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ." Mrs. Black's reply was 11 lines in length.

The meeting closed with prayer and benediction.

Coming and Going.

Rev. W. E. Edmondson, of Monrovia City, came up yesterday morning to attend the Missionary Conference and is the guest of Mr. T. W. Dowdy.

Rev. C. G. Vardell is expected morning for Fayetteville after his family who have been spending the summer at the home of Judge H. R. Bryn but for Wilmington to hold Superior court.

Mr. P. H. Pelletier went down to Jacksonville on a business trip.

Judge A. S. Seymour left yesterday morning for Richmond, Va., to hold in connection with two other Federal judges the United States Court of Appeals.

Mr. L. H. Cutler, President W. S. Chadwick of the A. & N. C. R. R. and his daughter, Miss Mary, left to visit the World's Fair.

Miss Gertrude Bagby and Miss Annie Whittall left to enter the State Normal and Industrial School at Greensboro.

Miss Zeller Baker of Stella, who has been visiting Miss Nellie Walker left to enter the State Normal and Industrial School.

The steamer Neuse brought in the following passengers: Mr. S. H. Scott returning from the World's Fair and a pleasure trip on the Lakes and in Canada; Mr. E. B. Roberts and Mr. Walter Barrington returning from northern business trips.

Miss Susie Gibbs of Beaufort, came up on the morning train and left in the afternoon on the steamer Neuse to enter Norfolk Female College.

The steamer Neuse took off the following other passengers: Mr. S. C. Hamilton, leaving for Boston on a business trip—he will remain about a month; Mr. W. B. Blades leaving for Elizabeth City on business; Mr. C. J. Schickly for Martinsburg, West Virginia, on a trip combining business and pleasure; Mrs. W. C. West to visit relatives in Elizabeth City, and Mr. C. B. Koler of West Point Light House, Royal Shalston, en route to Buffalo, N. Y., to spend a month with relatives.

The family of Mr. T. J. Turner returned from Kingston.

"During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Bending, of Halsey, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow." For sale by J. V. Jordan.

Helen Russell's Spots.

"The Helen Russell Company, by misrepresentation and the uncountable endorsements of the managers of the Charlottesville and Danville, Va., opera houses by telegram, got the boards of the Messenger Opera House for Friday night, gave a performance that was void of program, music, plot, point or merit.

It was entirely without a single feature to commend it, and I how it could be endorsed by any reputable theatre manager—especially in the South—as it was by several telegrams, as above stated, to the management of the Messenger Opera House, is, indeed, surprising and unaccountable.

The company is without a single artist, either for singing, dancing, gracefulnes or refinement, and is wholly reprehensible. We shall not cease to regret that it was accorded an engagement in the Messenger Opera House."—Goldsboro Argus.

Vocal and German Class.

Notice is hereby given that a thorough, systematic course of Vocal instruction will be opened by the Rev. Mr. L. Kaiser on next Monday evening, October 24, at the Collegiate Institute at 8 o'clock. All those desirous of joining the class will please, either notify him by mail, or by calling at Mr. Moore's Boarding House, South Front Street, where he may be found. These Vocal studies will be continued uninterruptedly during the coming winter, every Monday and Thursday evening at 8 o'clock sharp.

Mr. Kaiser will also open a German class to those who desire to acquire the knowledge of the German language and literature. For either of these branches Mr. Kaiser will charge the very moderate price of $3 per month payable in advance. He will also give private lessons in both branches, at the house of pupils, if so desired.

Children wishing to join the Oratorio class, must present themselves at the Collegiate Institute on Tuesday afternoon October 24, at 4 p. m., for the first rehearsal, as those who come later will not be admitted into the class.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a specific for croup. It is very pleasant to take, which is one of the most important requisites where a comedy is intended for use among children. I have known of cases of croup where I know the life of a little one was saved by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." J. J. LaGrange, druggist, Avoca, Neb. 50 cent bottles for sale J. V. Jordan.

Steamer Yancoeboro.

On and after October 23, and until further notice the steamer Yancoeboro, T. G. Dixon, Capt., will sail for Kingston every Monday and Thursday making all landings. Office and warehouse foot Craven street.

A. J. LEARY, Agt.

MORNING WILL DAWN AT LAST.

For the JOURNAL.

The shades of evening now appear, The twilight wanes, the night is near, The weary soul by grief oppressed, Can only say "Lord, thou knowest best, Help me to bear this heavy load, Down life's steep and stony road.

For let the shafts of sorrow fall, And two bright ones have been laid low, Death leaves a shining mark, Help me, oh, Father to yield my will to thine, Let nature not rebel, Though with a broken heart it be, Let me both feel and say, "Thou dost all things well."

Thy prayer is heard on high, the Father never passes his children by, But bending low to earth, He hears the mother's plaintive cry, Full many a trial of grief, the mortal child must know, But not a tear of sorrow shall unheeded flow, No prayer to me be breathed in vain, Who feels thy every throbbing pain.

My feelings often seem hard when viewed by mortal eyes, But they are in mercy sent, with heavenly love intent

And in a purpose deep, a blessing often lies, unscanned by those who weep, Lean hard on me my child, and while sorrow's billows o'er thee roll, Keep near my side, and thou shalt stem the current and the tide, And reach at last the goal, the harbor for the soul.

The woman who works, and is tired, will find a special help in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Perfectly harmless in any condition of the female system. It promotes all the natural functions, and builds up, strengthens, regulates and cures. For women approaching confinement, nursing mothers, and every weak, run-down, delicate woman, it is an invigorating, supporting tonic that's peculiarly adapted to their needs.

But it's more than that, too. It's the only guaranteed remedy for all the functional disturbances, painful disorders, and chronic weakness of womanhood. In "female complaints" of every kind, periodical pains, bearing-down sensations, internal inflammation, and kindred ailments, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

The freshness of vegetables is preserved by putting the stalks only in cold water.

Dr. P. A. Skinner, of Texarkana, Arkansas, is an enthusiast in the praise of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He used it for rheumatism, and says: "I found it to be a most excellent local remedy." For sale by J. V. Jordan.
