Silver in the pit; Silver everywhere, and we can't get a bit.

Governor Carr wants every city and town to send a delegate to the road congress.

The Washington Post says, the fight over the North Carolina patronage has about reached the bombardment stage.

The Democracy of Nebraska, in State convention puts itself on record as favoring the financial policy of President Cleveland.

There is only one week's supply of rations at Brunswick. In the last thirty-six days 181,566 meals have been issued to the destitute.

There was a heavy cut in prices the other day in New York when a judge cut down a lawyer's bill in a case from $8,000 to $300.

There is to be a big engine race between American 999, that has made a mile in 32 seconds, and the crack English locomotive, both at the Chicago Fair. It will be far $1,000 prize for ten miles.

The cry of the goldfoliators now is—Down with the United States Senate. Citizens are by the ten thousand looking to this have been sent out. There will be a louder and angrier cry than that if silver is slaughtered.—Messenger.

To repeal a law affecting the people's pockets, and to leave unrequited and even unconsidered, a law robbing the right of the people to choose, unswayed and unimpeded, their own official servants, must be the Republic's aim of Democracy, but it is not the real Democracy; Repeal them both.—W. F. BIRD.

Two men have been shot in mistake for partridges at Port Jarvis, N. Y. Between the partridge and the road stood seasons it is getting to be a precarious country for careless people to live in.

A call has been issued for a convention of prominent colored men to meet in Cincinnati on November 28th to consider the crimes charged to the negroes and the mob law exercised against them.

A friend says that the JOURNAL is not uniform in its utterances on silver. Our great desire is for the Democratic party to get together, settle the matter and give relief to the country. The party is reasonable, and is not showing its small courage.

When Judge Thurman acknowledged that he did not understand the silver question, we felt greatly relieved. We have always been with Thurman and now we stand shoulder to shoulder. When there is disagreement among Democrats in Congress, the caucus is the place to settle it.

Walter Horton Rhett, of Atlanta, a leader at the bar and in society, committed suicide in that city Tuesday night, Oct. 31. He was the son of Colonel Robert Rhett, one of the most distinguished journalists and statesmen South Carolina ever produced. He left no wife, but it is supposed that financial embarrassments was the cause of the sad tragedy.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
N. Whitford—All pork sausage.
Chas. Reizenstein—Dog lost.
J. W. Watson—Mackintoshes.

Mrs. D. G. Smaw, who has been ill about a week was at the point of death last night.

There is not a single business house on New Berne but what should be found in the advertising columns of the JOURNAL.

Judge H. G. Conner of the Superior court has resigned. This was quite a surprise. It is said the Judge will devote himself to the practice of law.

There are nine more new cases of yellow fever at New Brunswick and it is believed there are many more not reported officially.

A good substantial road bed leading from Hancock St. up Broad is very much needed. It is the main thoroughfare for getting in and out of the city and a good portion of it is quite heavy with sand.

Craven county Alliance will meet in quarterly session next Friday in the city and an address will be delivered by Mr. M. L. Wood of the State Alliance at 11 a. m. Everybody is invited to attend.

The report on the deaf-mute and the blind institution shows that 234 pupils are present in the white and the colored departments, 163 of these being white. There are 142 deaf mutes and 92 blind.

A Raleigh correspondent of the Willington Messenger says State Geologist Holmes and Mr. Ashe will devote the winter to investigation of the pine forests in the eastern counties. No doubt good results will follow.

The news that was sent out from Washington to the effect that J. P. Haskett had been nominated as postmaster at Kingston was a mistake. Mr. J. C. Wooten was the gentleman appointed.

Johnny Stewart, son of Mr. J. W. Stewart died yesterday afternoon of an illness of eleven days. He was a very bright little fellow, six years of age. The funeral services will be held at the cemetery this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

The race programme and premium list of the State Fair which commences on the 18th inst is before us. There will be in all eight races—live running and three trotting. The total race premiums foot up $1,190.

The last term of Wayne county Superior court is said to have been a very expensive one, more than any court that has held in a long time. The amount paid jurors alone was over $400, while the insolvent bill amounts to $508. A large docket was the cause.

Mr. J. B. Davis of Florence, S. C., is in the city seeing to the establishment of a beer bottling business which he will be superintendent. It will be located at the market dock next to C. B. Hill's grainery.

The following item is given to the Willington Messenger by a correspondent: "The trees in the Morehead City section are putting out new leaves, just as in spring, to replace leaves which salt spray, blown by the hurricane of August 26th, killed. The peach and pear trees of this section are also in bloom, this being another strange result of the great storm. The same thing occurred after the August storm of 1879."

Dr. P. A. Skinner, of Texarkana, Arkansas, is an enthusiastic in the praise of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He used it for rheumatism, and says "I found it to be a most excellent local remedy." For sale by J. V. Jordan.

Prof. Adams at Vanderbilt University.

Rev. G. T. Adams, late Principal of the New Berne Collegiate Institute is now pursuing theological studies at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn. We know that his friends in general throughout the community will be glad to hear him give before an extract from a letter written by him to a friend in the city under date of October 2d: "Arrived at my new home Saturday evening. Have been accorded a cordial welcome by both faculty and students. There are about 800 young men here already, and a noble set of fellows they are too."

"Am much pleased with the general appearance of everything, and judging from the intellectual and spiritual life that seems to be in the air, I think I can say that it will be a great good to any one who may aspire to the attainment of a grand and able and well rounded manhood. Here we come in contact with the best thought of the most progressive thinkers. This alone is a wonderful help and stimulus to a young man, who is looking upward and pushing onward."

"Matriculated this morning and entered at once upon the regular pursuit of my studies. I anticipate with no little pleasure a season of uninterrupted study. We have quite a good sprinkling of North Carolina boys in attendance. All of whom with perhaps a single exception are well recommended by the representatives of any other commonwealth, and I believe from every part of the Union."

"Big Ike" is back.
Mr. H. H. Humphrey, who recently bought out the immense stock of Huske & Draper, of Wilmington at rates for high northern wholesale prices and like wise a military stock is in New Berne again. The goods have been arriving for several days and, with his regular supply carried—the largest amount he has ever carried—so much so that he has had to rent another store to pack some away that could not be sold and get some room.

Crowd of people among whom ladies were numerous were at his store yesterday over the new bargains. Anticipating the rush Mr. Humphrey has added two more salesmen, Mr. T. G. Pickett, the old experienced salesman of Huske & Draper and Mr. John L. Hollis, of Stonewall, and all are doing as much as they can.

Mr. Humphrey will not fail to tell of what he has. Our people know how he is appreciated here, and to show their appreciation met him during his sojourn in Wilmington we copy this notice from the extremely complimentary and gratifying notice which the Messenger made of his departure.

Capt. J. S. Lane commits suicide. Early yesterday morning Capt. James S. Lane, an aged and highly respected farmer of Stonewall, Pamlico county committed suicide by shooting himself in the head with a pistol, killing himself almost instantly.

His wife had arisen, but he had not and hearing the weapon discharged she went back to the room and found him lying on the bed, shot as described.

The doctor leaves a wife, four sons and one daughter, all grown. He moved to Pamlico from Wayne county shortly before the war, and at its outbreak he entered the Confederate service as Captain of Lane's Company of heavy artillery, which company he organized himself.

Of late years Captain Lane had been very much failing in health so that it was with difficulty he could get around and he had but recently suffered from a spell of illness. He probably committed the fatal deed that terminated his life in a fit of melancholy brought on by his infirmities.

Death of Mrs. W. B. Flanner.
Mrs. W. B. Flanner, of Croatan died yesterday afternoon of malarial fever after an illness of about two weeks, aged 24 years.

Mrs. Flanner was formerly Miss Lizzie Hunter, of Huntersville, Mecklenburg county. She was a niece of Mrs. L. L. Hendren and Miss Carrie Mayhew, of this city and will be buried here.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning from Centenary M. E. church at 8:30 o'clock.

Excursion to-morrow to Goldsboro.
There will be an excursion from New Berne to Goldsboro and return to-morrow under the auspices of the Bear Creek Baptist Association, col.

The train will leave New Berne at 9 a. m. sharp, arrive at Goldsboro at 10:25; returning, leave at 10 p. m., and arrive at New Berne about 12.

A car for white people will be attached. The fare from the city for the round trip will be $1.00.

The Willington Messenger speaks very commendatory of our townsman, Mr. Hill Humphrey, as being a public spirited and hustling man. The Messenger is right, Mr. Humphrey has a plenty of the "get up" about him and has done valiant services for New Berne in his endeavor to foster new enterprises, but as a general rule this class who do the most for the public welfare receive the least thanks and some one else the reward.

Coming and Going.

Dr. Geo. Shover and wife returned last night from High Point.
Miss Allen Smith who has been visiting at Mr. Sear's, returned home.
Mr. J. H. King, baggage master on the W. N. & N. R. R. moved up to New Berne with his family yesterday from Wilmington.

Mrs. C. E. Gaskins, of Griffin, came down with her children—the children of Mr. J. R. C. Caraway, to visit him.

The steamer Neuse left on the following passengers: Mr. W. R. Gamm and child and Miss Dal returning from Baltimore; Mr. R. H. Gray returning from Edenton where he has been on a business trip; and Miss R. Bell of Harlow, en route to the south for a business trip to Norfolk.

The Inter-national Yacht Race.
The post-race race between the yachts Valkerie and Vigilant will be sailed today.
The Vigilant led when tried in one of the regatta of yachts held to be for the benefit of the Y. C. Y., the champion of the race being the Vigilant of 1892.

The Vigilant has been the subject of much discussion since her departure. It is believed that she will be a great success. The Vigilant is a very fast and well rounded vessel.

Excursion to Wilmington.
An excursion train will be run from New Berne to Wilmington, Sunday, October 8th, 1893.
Rate for the round trip $4.50.

Trains leave at 9 a. m. Returning arrives at 2 p. m. Tickets on sale at office of W. N. & N. R. R. on morning of excursion.

Excursion to the South.

The New Berne Hustler.

Mr. Hill Humphrey, whose trading outfit is Big Ike, and who has acquired fame as the "Great American Bankrupt Dealer," will leave our city today to return to New Berne where he has his headquarters.
It will be remembered that Mr. Humphrey bought the handsome stock of dry goods belonging to Huske & Draper, and for the past few months he has been in our city disposing of it in part. A few days ago he also bought out the bulky stock of Mr. T. H. Thompson, and he has shipped off, along with the Huske & Draper goods, to New Berne, in order to give the people of that city the benefit of his bargains.

During his sojourn in our midst, Big Ike had made many friends and it is not saying too much to state that during his stay here he has shown such a spirit of enterprise and liberality as a business man that it was hoped he would do something to benefit our city. It is quite probable that he shall do so, as he will be glad if he does, for in less than three months he paid ten times as much for the papers for advertising in our city as the prominent houses of Wilmington that we could name. If these twenty-five were Big Ike and would invest in printers' ink like he has done, Wilmington could afford to publish new papers that would get out of the way of any south of Philadelphia.

While Mr. Humphrey has been a frequent visitor to the papers, his advertising has paid him, and it would pay others if they could only be entertaining and progressive.—Will Messenger.
