Some years ago it was not uncommon, when two lovers met at the home of their lady-love, for them to try and "set each other out," so as to see which would have the last word with the lady. On one such occasion the old man of the house came in and enquired who was to pay the bill for fuel and lights. He said he did not see any prospect of either coming down to business, and he was tired paying expenses.

Congress is not dispatching any business, and the expense account is hourly increasing at an awful rate. The spectacle of the United States Senate being engaged in such a contest is not calculated to increase our national pride, or bring relief to a long suffering people. It is the imperitive duty of the Senate to vote; and the sooner it is done the better it will be for the country. If Congress can't do anything it had better adjourn. A motion to adjourn is always in order.

Indeed we hope that the second state in advances. Regular advances will soon close, and allow the members will be collected promptly at the bers to go home and rest and rebers to go home and rest and re-fresh themselves before the regular session commences on the first Manday in December. But if the Monday in December. But if the 53rd Congress fails to pass a large its predicessors.

Now we call the attention to printions for this State.

We are taking time by the fore lock, with the idea that it is useless to lock the stable door after the horse is stolen.

North Carolina has never had per day. her share of the appropriations. There is no part of the Atlantic coast that is so much in need of enlightined watch-care as that which skirts our own beloved State. The inlets to our sounds need to be improved, and the navigation of our waters made more secure. The appropriations heretofore made have been utterly inadequate. An appropriation that is insufficient to accomplish the object intended is money thrown away. Our Senators and Representatives must see to this matter in time.

With our water-ways properly improved there is no reason why New Berne and other places simi- To the World's Fair by the Direct the late Democratic convention, re- larly located may not become commercial emporiums.
