Mrs. Alice Roper was found yesterday to have taken a heavy dose of laudanum with a view of ending her existence. She lingered in a precarious condition all day, but strenuous, unceasing effort at last got her beyond danger. Unhappiness, owing to domestic troubles, was the cause.
The weather is beginning to feel winterish. The record of the last three days shows steady fall of temperature. It runs as follows: Saturday—maximum 69 1-2, minimum 53. Sunday—maximum 63 1-2, minimum 43. Monday—maximum 58 1-2, minimum 37. This is getting close towards freezing point.
Two small fires occurred at the same time shortly before day Sunday morning. One was a dilapidated, unoccupied building on Change street, the other an out house of the graded school. The fires must have been their very nature have been either incendiary or accidentally set by some night prowling trespasser and in either case it is a pity that detection did not come, even though the loss was small.

Editor Henry Blount, of the Wilson, (N. C.) Mirror is now filling an engagement of a few months lecturing tour in the Western states. The Fort Smith Times gives so complimentary a notice of our brother quill-driver that we copy it in full elsewhere.
The Salisbury Herald says that Evangelist Lee assisted in a great revival at Statesville last week, in which the Methodist and Presbyterian congregations united. The meeting closed Wednesday night with thirty accessions to the Methodist church and a great many to the other churches in the city.
The Lexington Dispatch gives the following item: "Over fifty car loads, or 5,000 bags of guano have been sold at Thomsville this season, and we suppose at least that much, if not more, has been sold here. Over 10,000 bags of guano for Davidson county! No wonder that times are hard in this county."
The Monroe Enquirer says: "Never in the memory of the oldest inhabitant has there been such a rain as fell here Sunday, the 29d. Beginning at nine o'clock Saturday night there was an unceasing downpour of rain for twenty-one hours. The creeks were the fullest they have ever been. The damage in Union county will amount to two thousands of dollars.
The adherents of the third party in the southern part of the 1st Congressional district have determined to establish a paper as their organ. A committee has been appointed and arrangements are being made. It is to be published either at Washington or Aurora, but at which one has not as yet been definitely decided upon.
The regents of the Presbyterian Orphan's Home met at the Home last week. The affairs of the Home were found in good condition. The necessity for an infirmary and the ways and means of building one was discussed. The Charlotte Observer learns that Mr. Geo. W. Watts, of Durham, a member of the board, told the board to decide on the building and he would pay for it.
The Winston Republican speaks as though the farmers of that vicinity are posting their lands partly generally against hunters and fishermen, partly on account of carelessness and petty depredations on orchards, &c., but largely because the hunting parties were literally ridding the fields of partridges which are becoming to be recognized as the farmers' best friends among the feathered tribe as insect destroyers.
Mrs. W. F. Black the estimable wife of the Superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum died Sunday at her home. She will be buried in Raleigh today. Mr. Black was one of the most prominent and efficient workers in the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Conference, and was known to very many, especially children by the endearing title of "Aunt Mary" she was the mother of Mr. S. D. Black who died only a few weeks ago.
Capt. T. J. Newsom, for many years a courteous conductor of the Atlantic Coast Line, standing high with that fine, spent Sunday's town. He says that since the completion of the W. N. & N. Road to this place that the enterprising merchants particularly those who wholesale, will cater more than ever for trade in this section. Being questioned as to who would lead in advertising for this trade he was not certain, but when asked about the old firm of Worth & Worth, he admitted they would so advertise largely in New Berne. The Captain's many friends here were glad to see him.
The Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger tells of discussion brought out in relation to the location of the Confederate monument in that city. It seemed to be the general opinion that if a tall monument, a shaft is to be erected, that to put it on the Capitol square would be a mistake, that Nash square near the Union depot would be the proper place. But that if an arch is chosen as there are indications of doing the site recommended will be excellent. The arch would take the place of the present gate-way and would itself be the entrance.
The News-Observer-Chronicle tells of a mysterious disappearance of a well-to-do farmer near Patecock's X roads in Johnston county on the 30th inst. He had been working a mile from home with other members of his family and as the close of their labor he started all the others home by conveyance and himself took a short cut home by walking. That was the last seen of him. His wife is crazed, though no cause can be assigned for such an act as he was living happily. The people were still searching for him at last account, but though he only had a mile to go through the wood, his disappearance is complete—no trace of him is left behind.
Notice of Suicide.
The following note was handed into the JOURNAL office last night by the writer with a request for publication. He departed immediately without waiting for it to be read:
"I have taken a fore ounce Bottle of laudanum to night on account of my wife."
FERNAND SALZER.
Never Burns Before.
The squibs in Sunday morning's paper should have read "Jim. Maxwell never did pull the fire" instead of "never will." This is the first time the fire has ever been pulled in that engine since the loss here.

Stung by a Stingree.
On Monday Sept. 25th, John McNeil, col., of James City while fishing at the mouth of Bay river for Messrs. W. B. Blades and Fenice Grisham was stung just above the sole by a stingree, producing a painful sore which still causes great trouble. Last Thursday, four weeks and three days after the mishap, a piece of the sting, three-quarters of an inch in length, broken off in the wound, worked out. This is about one fourth of a whole sting; the piece was almost as smooth as glass, if rubbed from the point upward, but closely connected layers of sharp points, pointing upward showed that while it might be pressed into the flesh of a person with almost the facility of a small, sharp knife-blade, to get it out would lacerate the flesh in a very trying manner just like a cluster of fish-hook bars on one central support world.
The mechanical construction of the sting is not the main thing to be dreaded from a wound of the kind however. A stingree is very poisonous and though being stung by one seldom results fatal, the virus causes intense agony, the pains extending all over the wounded person and so incapacitating him that he is fortunate to be able to resume his regular employment a month afterwards; it has now been five weeks since McNeil was stung and though beginning to walk around he is not able to work yet.
Chicago's Mayor Murdered.
Mayor Carter H. Harrison, Mayor of Chicago, was assassinated Saturday night at 8 o'clock by a crazy man named Patrick Eugene Pendergast, who imagined himself a reformer and that the Mayor had promised him an office. He insisted vainly upon the performance of the imaginary promise and for this cause shot the Mayor without warning.
Gaining admission to the Mayor's home Pendergast stepped toward him and began firing, four bullets struck the Mayor and three remained in the body. He was dead inside of twenty minutes.
Pendergast fled but was captured.
The verdict of the coroner's jury was in accord with the above facts.
Mayor Harrison was sixty eight years old and a native of Lexington, Ky., and was soon to have married a second time.

REV. JAMES THOMAS.
His Installation as Assistant Pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Poughkeepsie N. Y.
EDITOR JOURNAL.—Presuming that the readers of THE JOURNAL would be interested in hearing of the success of another New Bernian abroad, the writer takes the liberty of resolving himself into a special correspondent and herewith sends an account of the installation of Rev. James Thomas, as assistant and pastor of the Presbyterian church of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., on Thursday the 27th, inst.
Mr. Thomas was dismissed from Albemarle, N. C. Presbytery at its last meeting for the purpose of being received by the North River Presbytery, within the bounds of which this church is located. Rev. M. Thomas is a recent graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary; he is a young man of a excellent character and brings to the duties of his new field those equipments of spirituality, earnestness, humility and devotion, necessary for the spiritual work upon which he has just entered your readers are probably aware of the fact that prior to his theological course he graduated at the University of North Carolina, afterwards read law, and was a teacher in the old Academy up to the time he entered Princeton.
Mr. Thomas possesses or rather inherits many of the characteristic traits of his father, the late Hon. Chas. R. Thomas, so well known not only throughout our State, but many other States; he speaks extempore with an easy and fluent flow of language his logical presentation of the truth of the Gospel together with his thorough earnestness and spirituality, makes him a useful instrument in the publication of the way of salvation.
The Church Society to which has been called as assistant minister, was organized 1749 and has had since that time the services of several pastors distinguished alike for their piety, learning and successful labors.
The bounds covered by this church's work comprise territory most delightfully situated amidst the grandeur of the Hudson scenery, the congregation numbers about five hundred. Rev. Francis B. Wheeler, D. D., is the present pastor and he presided at the installation, ceremonies, assisted by Rev. D. S. Niven and Brown. Amongst the New Bernians present were Messrs. C. R. Thomas, Mr. John S. Thomas and the writer.
Poughkeepsie is distant from New York City thirteen miles, and has thirty thousand inhabitants, the city is known as "city of residences," here is located the celebrated female school, Vassar College, Eastman's Business College and the Riverside Military School as well as various 'colleges'.
"All human history attests That happiness for man,—the hungry sinner!"
Since Eve ate apples, much depends on dinner.
And a good liver is absolutely essential for appreciating a good dinner. Lord Byron knew that as well as anybody. One of his greatest regrets was for his weak stomach. "Gad, man!" his lordship would say, "why don't one of these infernal doctors invent a liver medicine?"
Byron would never have asked that question were he now living. Why? Because he would have been using Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, an absolutely sure cure for Constipation, Indigestion, Biliary Attacks, and all derangements of liver, stomach and bowels. There is no gripping or violence about these pills, and they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is refunded. Don't live with the stomach weak, when the cure is within your reach for 25cts.
Thousands of cures follow the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It's $500 reward for an incurable case.
The gospel is Heaven's emancipation proclamation to every slave who is wearing the shackles of sin.
