

THE JOURNAL.

Tongue Twisters.

Six thick thistle sticks. High roller, low roller, tower. A growing gleam glowing green. Flesh of freshly fried flying fish. The sea ceaseth and it sufficeth us.

A box of mixed biscuit, a mixed biscuit box.

The bleak breeze blighted, the bright bloom blossoms. Strict strong Stephen Stringer snored slyly six sickly silky snakes.

Swan swam over the sea; swim swan, swim; swan swam back again well swam swan.

It is a shame, Sam. 'Tis all a sham, Sam, and a shame it is to sham so, Sam.

Susan shines shoes and socks; socks and shoes shine Susan. She saunters shining shoes and socks, for shoes and socks shock Susan.

Robert Rowley rolled a round roll round; a round roll Robert Rowley rolled round; where rolled the round roll Robert Rowley rolled round.

Oliver Oglethorp ogled an owl and oyster. Did Oliver Oglethorp ogle an owl and oyster? If Oliver Oglethorp ogled an owl and oyster where are the owl and oyster Oliver Oglethorp ogled?

Sammy Shoemaker saw a shrieking songster. Did Sammy Shoemaker see a shrieking songster? If Sammy Shoemaker saw a shrieking songster, where's the shrieking songster Sammy Shoemaker saw?

Hobbs meets Snobs and Nobbs; Hobbs bobs to Snobs and Nobbs; Hobbs nobbs with Snobs and Nobbs; Nobbs' fob. "That is," says Nobbs, "the worse for Hobbs' jobs," and Snobs sobbs.

The Language of the Umbrella.

An umbrella carried over a woman, the man getting nothing but the drippings, of the rain, indicates courtship.

When the order of things is reversed, and the man has the umbrella and the woman the dripping, it indicates that they are married.

To trail your umbrella along the ground, means that the man behind you is thirsting for blood.

To carry it at right angles under his arm signifies that an eye may be lost by the unfortunate person who may be behind you.

To press an umbrella on your friend, saying, "Oh—do take it; I had much rather you would than not," signifies lying.

To give a friend half of your umbrella, signifies that you will get wet.

To place a cotton umbrella alongside of a silk one, signifies "Exchange is no robbery."

To lead an umbrella, indicates you are a fool.

To return an umbrella means—well, never mind what it means, nobody ever does it.

The Student Who Wins.

Is a plodder. Has high ideas. Is always on time. Is frank and manly. Does not know it all. Takes plenty of sleep. Lays broad foundations. Is thoroughly in earnest. Is loyal to his instructors. Believes in the golden rule. Does his level best every day. Is not in too much of a hurry. Plans his work and works his plan. Takes due measure of physical exercise.

Is willing to have his weak spots pointed out. Is patient in the presence of the greatest difficulties. Does not allow his mind to be filled with athletic nonsense. Does not allow social life to encroach upon his study hours.

Is the staunch friend of every fellow who is having an uphill fight. Has definite aims, and works steadily toward their attainment.

Plasters.

If you are thinking about buying a plaster, remember that you will place it upon your body and cannot get a plaster that will be too good for you. Alcock's Porous Plaster is the best plaster made. Your druggist may have some other plaster on his shelves which he is anxious to get rid of, or else some worthless imitation purchased at a low price for the purpose of substitution. Do not accept his "Just as good" plea, insist upon having the genuine. Alcock's Porous Plaster has no equal. Brandreth's Pills can always be relied upon.

Vox populi vox Dei cry the Protectionist organs as they point to the results of the Tuesday cyclone. Let it be granted that the voice of the people, delivered when no Federal issue was involved, was in favor of protective tariffs. At two previous elections, when all the States voted instead of less than one-third, and when the instant and uppermost issue, clearly put and hotly discussed, was the necessity for Tariff Reform, the people declared with greater positiveness and vociferation for reform. To which voice should Congress give ear? The voice direct and potential, or the voice indirect and uncertain?

A woman to remain beautiful in age should put cosmetics on her soul, not on her face.

Obserfulness or joyousness, is the heaven where everything but poison thrives.

PLEASANT TO THE TASTE.

pleasant in the taking, pleasant in their results. That fairly describes Dr. Pierce's Pleasant to the Taste. In every disorder of the liver, stomach, and bowels, they give a lasting cure. For Biliousness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Sour Stomach, and Sick or Biliary Headaches, they are the natural remedy. They're tiny, sugar-coated granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds—a compound of refined and concentrated vegetable extracts. Put up in sealed vials, always fresh and reliable; a convenient vest-pocket remedy. They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, in every case, or your money is returned.

Any experimenting with Catarrh in the Head is dangerous. Serious troubles result from its being driven to the throat and lungs. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, by its mild, soothing, cleansing, and healing properties, completely and permanently cures the very worst cases. Its proprietors offer $500 reward for any incurable case.
