THE DAILY JOURNAL is published daily except Monday at $2.00 per year. It is delivered to city subscribers at 10 cents per month. THE WEEKLY JOURNAL is published every Thursday at $1.00 per annum. Payment for transient advertisements must be made in advance. Regular advertisements will be collected promptly at the end of each month. Communications containing news or official public interest are solicited. No compensation will be expected to be published if it contains objectionable personalities, or withholds the name of the author. Articles longer than half columns must be paid for. Advertisements under head of Business Cards and Readers 10 cents per line for 1st insertion. For each subsequent insertion. Special rates for extended time. Any person feeling aggrieved at any anonymous communication can obtain the name of the author by application at this office and showing wherein the grievance exists.

COLUMBIA ADOPTED BY THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESS ASSOCIATION. The sum of not less than five cents per line will be charged for "cards of thanks, resolutions of respect" and obituary notices for obituary notices other than those which the editor himself shall give as a matter of news. Notices of church and society and all other entertainments from which revenue is to be derived will be charged for at the rate of five cents a line.

Be noble and the nobleness that lies in other men, sleeping, but never dead, will rise in majesty to meet thine own.—Lowell.

Carrot is absolutely begging for a cabinet. No Statesman has been found to accept the task of reconstruction.

In Paris a stone roof of a chapel fell in and killed several Sisters of Mercy and wounded others while at prayer.

Neal Dow, known as the "Apostle of temperance," will be 90 years old on March 1, 1894. Temperance societies all over the world will unite in celebrating the anniversary of his birth.

The treasurer of a Chicago safe deposit company, who upon being confronted in his home by a wild-eyed drunk in quest of "a check for $10,000" knocked the interloper's pistol upward and hustled him into the street, displayed the possession of admirable presence of mind—and muscle. If a man is to die at the hands of a crank, it is better to die fighting than crying.

The Chattanooga Tradesman refers very hopefully to the report that the north Carolina cotton mills have subscribed among themselves the necessary capital to establish a large finishing factory at Greensboro, which it says is now nearing completion. Heretofore, says the Tradesman, the North Carolina cotton goods have been sent to New England to be finished; but now that work will be done in this State. It considers that the movement is almost certain to be a success, and remarks that the Eastern spinners regard it with an interest akin to dismay.

The American Nationalists, as they call themselves, are spreading. It is an organization of the class of the old Native American party of the long ago. It says its aims and objects are to reform politics by restricting office-holding strictly to native born Americans. The Know Nothings cried that when there was not one foreigner in this country to ten now perhaps. The new movement is popular in New England. That will be an excellent reason why it will not be popular in the South. It is claimed that important results were reaped in the recent Western election by the new organization. It is boasted that it numbers 1,000,000 members, but that is very doubtful.—Messenger.

ALL RIGHT. The Wise Men of the East have for several months insisted that "hard times" was the result of well grounded fears that the tariff would be tampered with. They returned the prediction that the McKinley law would be only slightly modified by the Democrats of the Fifty-Third Congress.

Following the late election in Ohio, thousands of Republican voters abandoned the praises of McKinley and declared that Protection had triumphed, and Democrats would not dare to carry out the tariff plank of the Chicago platform.

Well, the Ways and Means Committee have presented their bill to the public, and "every thing is lovely and the goose hangs high." The main features of the bill are the adoption, whenever practicable, of the ad valorem instead of the specific tax, and the increased free list. Reductions are made in the entire list of articles that are kept on the dutiable list, except on cut diamonds and other precious stones, on which the duties are increased. The tendency has been to make greater reductions on the articles used by the masses of the people than those not used by the masses. This is Democracy and we are happy. It is in our judgment the best tariff bill that has been drawn since the war. Better than the Morrison bill, because no horizontal reduction can be just; better than the Mills bill, because it makes nicer discriminations and more fully meets the wants of the common people; better, a thousand times, than the McKinley law, because it prevents the robbery of the people in the interests of monopolies.

Not the least cause of our rejoicing is the fact that the Wilson Tariff Bill is an Administration measure. Mr. Cleveland has not "flunked on the tariff." This elegant English, of the Republican press, is relegated to the past that returns no more forever. Hurrabi! Hurrabi!

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment is a certain cure for Chronic Eye, Granulated Eye, Sore Nipples, Piles, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum and Scald Head, 25 cents per box. For sale by druggists.

TO HORSE OWNERS. For putting a horse in a fine healthy condition, try Dr. Cady's Condition Powders. They tone up the system, aid digestion, cure loss of appetite, relieve constipation, correct kidney disorders and destroy worms, giving new life to an old or overworked horse. 25 cents per package. For sale by druggists.

Settle in your heart, that it the sum of all your business and blessedness, to live to God.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure. This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold. A few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 10c, 50c, and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by New Berne Drug Co.

In the productions of genius, nothing can be styled excellent till it has been compared with other works of the same kind.

Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. A marvelous cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, Canker mouth, and Headache. With each bottle there is an ingenious nasal injector for the more successful treatment of these complaints without extra charge.

Now are placed in a position of gloomy and distressful as not to see every day being more forlorn and miserable.

Mr. Moore, the postmaster at Bradshaw, Va., after reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, concluded to try a small bottle of it. He says: "I used it in two cases for colic and three for diarrhea with perfect satisfaction. I have handled and used a great deal of patent medicine but never tried any that gave as good results as this." For sale by J. V. Jordan.

Avarice, which too often attends wealth, is a greater evil than any that is found in poverty.

The Handsome Lady in New Berne remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other cough remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merits any druggist will give you a sample bottle free. Large size 50c, and $1.

Society, politically regulated, is a state contradistinguished from a state of nature.

Answer This Question. Why do so many people we see around us seem to prefer to suffer and be made miserable by indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Coming up of the Food, Yellow Skin, when for 70c we will sell them Shiloh's Vitalizer, guaranteed to cure them. Sold by New Berne Drug Co.

Comfort is the god of this world, but comfort it will never obtain by smoking it an object.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by J. V. Jordan.

They Soothe. Never Irritate. Some people have a prejudice against plasters, because, as they think, they burn and blister. That is true of many, but not of Alcock's Porous Plasters. They never irritate the skin, but always have a soothing effect.

They are useful in case of any local pain and as a rule will bring immediate relief. If they do not, it is because the trouble has not been allowed to become so serious that no external remedy will reach it, and the chances are that any treatment will fail. For stitches in the side, weakness or lameness of the back, stiffness of the joints Alcock's Porous Plasters have been proved again and again to be not only a relief, but a cure. Brandreth's Pills are safe to take at any time

The Best Plaster.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. V. Jordan.

God's promises are heaven's bank notes, made for circulation on earth.

The Population of New Berne is about nine thousand, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection on the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial one free. Large bottle 50c, and $1. Sold by all druggists.
