Methodist Conference commences Wednesday in Wilmington.

The date for opening of Attmore street has been postponed till the 19th of Dec. on account of court.

The price of admission to Dr. Hume's address Tuesday night has been placed at the small sum of twenty-five cents.

The store recently occupied by Messrs. C. Diasway & Bro., is being fitted up for fancy groceries. Mr. M. Patterson will be the proprietor.

The regular monthly meeting of the Female Benevolent Society will be held at the residence of Miss Metts on Tuesday afternoon at half past three o'clock.

On account of sickness of the pastor there will be no service at the Presbyterian church today. Sunday School will be held at the usual hour.

J. Harvey Griffin near Cove, lost his steam saw mills with all other machinery, also a lot of lumber by fire Friday night, the loss about $1,500. The fire caught from a slab pile burning near—no insurance.

Presiding Elder Swindell held the last Quarterly Conference this conference year in Centenary M. E. Church Friday night. He will preach at both the morning and evening services in that church today.

The "doll show," of which we have already made mention, will be held on Wednesday evening next in the lower room of the Henry house on Middle street, formerly occupied as the Custom House. Among other attractions of the show will be a "Bridal Reception."

A. & N. C. Railroad changed schedule goes into effect tomorrow. It is a half hour earlier in the morning—trains arrive at 8:17 and leaves at 8:30—and ten minutes earlier in the afternoon—train arrives at 5:50 and leaves at 5:58.

Rev. F. W. Brown and wife who have spent several years in India as missionaries will spend today in the city and Mr. Brown while here will lecture twice in the Disciple church—this morning at 11 o'clock and this evening at 7:30. He will illustrate his lectures with real idols. They arrived last night.

The N. C. Teacher states that even so far in advance of the meeting as this, that not a single prominent educational institution in the country will be without representation in the next session of the Assembly. From letters and other information received daily by the secretary it is judged that over three thousand teachers will attend the session of the Assembly next June.

The poultry business may look like a small thing but when results are taken in the aggregate the figures loom up amazingly. The Whiteville, S. C. sought information on this line from a reliable resident of that place and is informed by him that there are not less than fifteen thousand dollars' worth of chickens and ten thousand dollars' worth of eggs shipped from Whiteville depot annually.

Wilmington Welcomes Week.
The Naval Reserves have accepted the invitation of the Wilmington Divisions to attend and take part in the sham battle on Thursday next. The full strength of the company will be represented. A large German and other entertainments are to be given on Wednesday and Thursday nights in honor of the visiting companies, and to the hospitality of the citizens is well known, a good time, as well as an interesting one, is expected by the boys. Mr. Kafer in Germany.
A letter from our German townsman, Mr. Jacob Kafer, who is now visiting relatives in the "Old Country" gives some facts falling under his observation which will doubtless prove of interest to his friends here.

Among other things, he tells that workmen, in making an excavation in the city of Worms for water works construction, dug into a place where over a thousand human bodies were buried. It was in front of the Wormser Dome, a beautiful church. The bodies were all piled together in bulk from seven to ten feet deep without dirt between them, and skulls, arms and legs, and all parts could be seen laying all around.

Mr. Kafer speaks of viewing also the famed Martin Luther tree. He says half of it is blown down, but it still remains the greatest tree he has ever seen.

His son, Oswald ("Buster") also writes of the big time he is having with the boys. He tells of a rabbit hunt in which he participated, and states that over 2,200 rabbits were taken.

Our Reserve Boys.
The New Berne Naval Reserve are preparing for their trip to Wilmington during Welcome Week and it is very important that a sufficient number go to make a creditable appearance.

The time of a good many of the young men belonging to the company is not their own and we hope their employers will arrange to let them off for this special occasion—one which has been so generously planned by the Wilmingtonians, one which our young men will so much enjoy. Such an opportunity may never occur again, and all possible means should be considered towards arranging so the members can get off.

A few months ago the New Berne Division was anxious to go to Wilmington to participate in the maneuvers aboard the war ship Kearsarge, but the lack of a sufficient number of the members to get off prevented the trip and it had to be abandoned. Business men, let them go, and our word for it, they will bring back a good report.

John Meadows, '89; Linn Henderson, '89; Frank Willis, '88; Katie Matthews, '87; Bessie Williams, '88; Bertha Willis, '82; Ellis Williams, '78; Bessie Parsons, '76; Harry Allen, '78; Jennie Sultan, '78; Eliza Simmons, '72; Closs Barker, '71; Mamie Daniels, '70; George Henderson, '70.

The explanation of the above marks is as follows: The highest mark is 100. To obtain this the pupil must give a complete answer intelligently expressed, to every question—the marks are on a pro rata basis; that is the percentage of correct answers makes the grade.

An average of 95 entitles the pupils to first honor; of 90 to second honor; of 80 to third honor; and an average of 70 ranks the pupil with the meritorious.

Dr. Hume of the State University.

It will be a great pleasure to the educated and reading people of our city, to know that Dr. Hume will be here on Tuesday evening next at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall, New Berne. We doubt not, will maintain her old reputation for literary taste and culture by hearing him. The subject will be, "Shakespearean Side-Lights on English Life" and the pecuniary results of the lecture will inure to the Association struggling so hard for usefulness.

Dr. Hume in English Literature is the chief of all our professors and scholars. He possesses also a most finished address and captivating manner, which go very far to make his thoughts beautiful and winning.

The price of admission is fixed at a low rate, so as to give a large number of our people the privilege of hearing Dr. Hume. Let us in these closing days of the year, when we are reviewing the prosperity of the country, show our appreciation of scholarship and literary genius, which have given to this nation so many brilliant names to adorn and glorify its annals.

The warlike spirit never dies, In peace 'tis present just the same; When nations know no enemies Their youth will brave the football game.

No, it was not the railway wreck That made him blind and lame; He lost his eyes, his leg and nose In a college football game.

They offered him a pension, For it seemed to be a fact He had been in war; however, It was just the football act.

Dramatic Scene of the War.

The following appeared in the Brooklyn Eagle relative to the play at the Theatre Monday night.

Mr. A. T. Hooper's new military play, was last afternoon last evening. The main elements of the performance are historical and transactions of an individual nature, British humor, pathos and surprise.

The scene is appropriate and spectacular. Generals, colonels, captains, sergeants, soldiers and hospital nurses are brought to the work of developing the story, so far as it is a story. On the Southern side glimpses of plantation life are given. The events of May, 1863, and the picture of the extreme life of Hooker's army near Chancellorsville are vivid, serving to refresh the memory of the veterans who were looking on from the audience.

The spectacle of the battlefield in the wilderness with the dead and dying of both armies heaped together as they fell is sufficiently realistic to be a sensation.

THIRTEEN MEN KILLED.

Others So Badly Wounded that it is Almost Impossible for them to Recover—Great Excitement Prevailed Throughout the Town.

One man has done the work to the sorrow of many, while others cry daily "Stop Him! Stop Him!" This is a terrible state of affairs, that while so many are at war against one and still he holds them all in check, while those who are living are still trying to down him which is an impossibility.

The Mallard brothers, seven in number, from near Trenton, were in town yesterday in search of a suit each; in trying different merchants to see which was the cheapest would remark, before buying, that they would try Big Ike and the insignificant reply would be, why do you buy from Big Ike, he has nothing but old stock.

Let me say to those who assail me in that way that I have bought out thirteen different parties mostly bankrupt stocks, in Newberne, which goes to prove that they are dead in the mercantile world; and those who assail me by making false representations proves that they are badly wounded and cannot stand the mighty bombs that the great American Bankrupt Dealer is throwing in their tents.

Hearken, my brother merchants, when you make false statements to your customers, they will do as the Mallard Brothers done buy from Big Ike, because when you run him down, you only advertise him. Let this be your last time.

NONE BETTER THAN OLD BAKER 1861.

The Secretary and General Manager of the Mechanics and Investors Union of Raleigh.

Mr. George Allen, a former citizen of New Berne is spending a few days in the city. He reports that the November business of the Association was larger than that of any previous month. A branch of the Union has been established in New Berne, comprising a number of influential members.

Loans will no doubt be made here as opportunities offer. This Company has adopted the new plan of insuring every member, and should a member die, his payments are made from the Guarantee fund, making such stock worth face value to the heirs, which is a valuable feature and one that will be appreciated by investors.

This Company is making a special feature of certificates to Parents as Trustees for children and claims for such certificates, advantages greater than is usually offered by a Savings Bank.

CHORAL SOCIETY.

In order to satisfy the many inquiries from the several lovers of music regarding the formation of a choral society, I beg hereby to state that such a society will be organized if a sufficient number of ladies and gentlemen, particularly members of various church choirs, manifest a sufficient interest. Apply at the Journal office or to I. Kaiser.
