It's just as easy to write it January 94.

Regular drill of the Naval Reserve tonight.

A little snow, mingled with rain, fell yesterday, but not enough to lay at all.

The church bells of the city rang out merrily at midnight Sunday night, welcoming the New Year in.

Mr. C. V. McGhee, who moved back to the city from Madison about a week ago has taken a permanent situation at Mr. J. R. Parker's.

The special edition of the WEEKLY JOURNAL to be published on the 17th inst. will not only be in the interest of the Fair, but will contain a great deal relative to New Berne and the section.

The New Berne Fire Company held their annual banquet, given by the new officers at Hotel Albers, last night. It was an elaborate affair and much enjoyed.

The Highland Journal very truly remarks that the man who gets mad at what the newspapers say about him should return thanks three times a day for what they know about him and don't tell.

Messrs J. C. Green and Lee Churchill have formed a partnership for plumbing and tinning, and commenced the erection of a building nearly opposite Messrs L. H. Outler & Co's. store for their headquarters.

Miss Athey Cotton daughter of Gen. J. W. Cotton, of Tarboro was married there on the 27th inst. to Dr. David F. Taylor, a leading physician of Washington. It was one of the most brilliant marriages that ever occurred in Tarboro.

It is with much sadness that we have to announce the death of little Maggie May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Hancock. She died yesterday afternoon aged one year and 6 months. The funeral will take place from Centenary church this afternoon at half past three o'clock.

The great six days' bicycle race at New York has been completed with Schock the winner, making 1,800 miles. This beats the world's record 100 miles which was made in 1891 by Martin. Waller came out second, making 1,484; Martin, 1,430; Albert 1,410. Only eleven riders remained in the race to the finish.

Rev. D. H. Petree conducted two services in the Masonic Hall at Jacksonville Sunday. The disciples have no church organization there, but there are some of that denomination in that village, and by their special invitation Mr. Petree went down. He had large congregations each time. He returned to New Berne Monday.

At the meeting held yesterday morning looking to the organization of a Social Club, the committee appointed at a previous meeting represented that it was impossible to secure sufficient names under the first proposition. A meeting will be held in the Mayor's office Friday night at 8 p. m., when other propositions will be made.

A special telegram to the Charlotte Observer says that the resignation of Robert Hancock, collector of customs at Beaufort, was received and accepted. Up to the time he left there Representative Grady inclined to Capt. Sam Waters, but had not taken decided action, so far as appears. At one time it was thought Senator Ransom was for Hancock.

The Christian Rabbi.

Rabbi John Sergius, a Christian Israelite of India delivered four discourses in this city Sunday, two of them being sermons in the Baptist church, one an address to the Baptist Sunday school and the other a lecture in the Y. M. C. A. Hall.

In the morning he preached from the text: "But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel;" In the evening from Hosea, 2: 4-5.—For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and with out an ephod, and without teraphim: Afterward shall the children of Israel return and seek the Lord their God and David their King, and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days.

The Rabbi commanded the interested attention of his audience at each service, but one has to listen to him very closely in order to get the understanding of what he says on account of his foreign accent. The Rabbi informs us that in India there are 70,000 Israelites, principally in the three cities, Cochin in India, Cotton and Bupar. These all know the tribes they belong to and have an unbroken history of themselves. The majority of them are Christians—they became so under the ministry of the Apostle Thomas and have held to the faith ever since.

All the tribes are represented except Dan. This tribe, after the seventy years captivity went to the country about the Caspian sea and became absorbed in the heathen nations around them.

The "black Jews," sometimes hear of the Rabbi says are the tribe of Naphthali; they are not negroes—they have no characteristic of the negro race except the skin which is black as a broad-cloth coat. He lays the change of complexion to climates in which they have resided.

Rabbi Sergius belongs to the tribe of Gad.

A collection was taken up at the night service and also in the Y. M. C. A. Hall to be applied to the furtherance of mission work in which the Israelitish church in India is engaged. The local church to which Rabbi Sergius belongs has six missions and the church at large, as a denomination has 390 missionaries out.

The Rabbi tells us their church is not divided at all into denominations as Gen tile churches are. They are all one in Christ Jesus, with one faith and one practice.

Coming and Going

Mrs. H. C. Tinker and children, of New York, who have been visiting at Mr. S. W. Smallwood's left, returning home.

Mr. H. Sperling, who has been spending a week or two in the city left returning to his home in Baltimore.

Dr. C. M. Benton, of Newton Grove, who has been visiting his father Dr. J. H. Benton, left on the steamer Neuse yesterday to take a post graduate course at Jefferson College, Philadelphia.

Mr. Edmund Strudwick and family, who have been visiting relatives in the city left on the Str. Neuse returning to their home in Norfolk.

Mrs. J. H. Knight left on the steamer Neuse to visit relatives in Elizabeth City.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Smith and Mrs. C. S. Downs, of Philadelphia, who have been spending several weeks at Mr. Jos. B. Clark's, left on the steamer Neuse returning home.

Miss Minnie Mallison from near Craton who has been at home during the holidays passed through returning to Kinsey Seminary, LaGrange.

Rabbi John Sergius of India, who preached and lectured in the city Sunday left for Wilmington where he is likely to remain about a week.

Mr. J. T. Lincoln, of Bayboro, and Messrs R. L. Woodard and C. K. McCleese, of Pamlico passed through yesterday en route to Wilmington to attend the Grand Lodge of Masons, as delegates from their subordinate lodges.

Miss Mary Boggs, of Catharine Lake, a Kinsey Seminary pupil who has been spending the Christmas holidays at her home, and Miss Dora Y. Rodgers one of the teachers who has been visiting here, passed through returning to the school.

Prof. E. P. Mangum, of Callowee, of Jackson county has returned to his school; his wife and child remain to visit her brother, Mr. J. L. Griffin.

Miss Myrtle E. Pope returned to her school at Riverdale.

Miss Emma Simons, of Oliver's, Jones county arrived en route to Kinsey Seminary, in which she is a teacher; also Misses M. A. Day and E. H. Gates, two other teachers in the same school, who have been visiting here.

A number of additions have recently been made to the collection of the Anti-Quity Society at Raleigh. These are a Confederate soldier's ring, made from a section of the famous apple tree at Appomattox, made with silver; a Colonial powder cup; a Confederate wooden pipe, made from wood found on the battle field of Manassas; Confederate pipe head; canister from the battle of Beaufortville; stone taken from the chimney of the cabin of Daniel Boone in Catawba county; one of John Brown's pipes made for the Harper's Ferry insurrection. This collection was donated through the instrumentality of Mr. C. Harris, Curator of State Museum.

Wilmington Descendants of Nobility.

To the Editor of the Evening Post:

Sir: Noticing your interesting item, "A Lineal Descendant of Oliver Cromwell," I am prompted to say that in the little town of Wilmington, N. C., can be found descendants of Cromwell—through the Claypoles—descendants of Fairfax (children of George Davis, Esq.) descendants of Charles the First (first mentioned to me by President Buchanan) and (by tradition) descendant of Algernon Sidney, who refused to sit in judgment on the father only to lose his own head at the hands of the son.

H. Slade.

Witness my hand and seal this 28th day of Dec. 1893.

MARY A. SLADE, [Seal.]
Samuel R. Ball, Esq., President of Craven Lodge, No. 1, Knights of Harmony.

Dear Sir:—I desire to express my appreciation of and gratitude for the prompt settlement by your order through you of the certificate upon the life of my late husband Charles H. Slade.

Such speedy payments of death claims, and such kind attention and aid as was rendered me in my sad affliction by the brothered are worthy of the highest praises, and should commend the order to all persons, who desire to effect safe, yet economical insurance.

Very Respectfully
MARY A. SLADE.

A Remarkable Cure.

"About eight months ago I had the mumps, and just after recovering I commenced to suffer with dyspepsia or indigestion. For three months there continued a pain or lump in my chest. And my bowels were so constipated I could never have an action without having to take an aperient. After using three bottles of your dyspepsia remedy I was entirely well, and have remained so I have not taken a single drop of medicine since, and have gained twelve pounds."

Yours truly,

Naval Reserves Likely to Come to the Fair.

Capt. F. Winslow, of New Berne, commander of the Naval Battalion of North Carolina, writes to Lieut. J. H. Barnard, of the second Division, Naval Reserves, of this city, informing him that the Naval Reserves of the State are invited to New Berne during the Fair in February. The two divisions of Wilmington are invited over as the guests of the New Berne division. The New Berne reserves desire that our reserves shall be there February 23rd. No action has been taken on the invitation, but it is quite probable that the boys will take in the trip to New Berne.—Wilmington Messenger.

Lieut. Barnard spent yesterday in the city. While action has not yet been taken by the Wilmington Reserves he considers it a certainty that they will come.

Lieut. Barnard visited the Fair Grounds with Lieut. Winslow and he informs us that he was struck to see how admirably the ground lays for a sham battle to commence outside of the Fair grounds and end inside. If the battle can be gotten up it will be a great attraction for the Fair.

Lieut. Winslow will endeavor to have some other military companies of the State present in addition to the Naval Reserves and we will all be glad to have them. The members of the New Berne Reserves, who were so lately the recipients of the unbounded hospitality of the Wilmington Reserves, are particularly anxious that they shall come with full ranks and renew the friendships so pleasantly formed during Welcome Week.
