The Social as Well as Educational Renefits of Fairs-The Great Attendance From Abroad.

The following letter from our towns man, Col. John D. Whitford, a very en thusiastic worker for the highest inter est at the East Carolina Fair, was shown us by Mr. Chas. Reizenstein, Secretary of the Fair, to whom it was written, with out a thought of its being given to the public. The letter is upon the favorable action of the North Carolina World's Fair exhibit authorities in reference to showing the most interesting portion of the States Chicago exhibit at the East Carolina Fair.

The letter is so admirable that by consent of Mr. Rozostein we copy it entirely, and commend it not only for the facts given but for the words of wisdom it contains regarding the social benefits of We have information that Mr. Jos. O. great gatherings at Fairs which in the
