The Home Made Barrels.
The New Berne barrel factory is driving ahead and piling up the barrels ready for the truckers to use as soon as they are needed.
The barrel made is quite a pretty one, strong and serviceable, and with an evenly cut oblong aperture for ventilation, which saves cutting with a hatchet at the time of shipping.
The machine which cuts this opening is a home invention. Mr. B. B. Neal, Secretary and Treasurer of the company wrote to manufacturers of barrel making machinery all over the country describing the work which he wanted a machine to do in the way of cutting out a piece from the centre of each stave. None of them had a machine that would do such work and none would undertake to make one but Messrs. Dewey Bros., machinists of Goldsboro, who by the way are brothers of our townsman, Mr. T. W. Dewey, one of the bookholders, learning of what was wanted applied their inventive genius and mechanical skill to the task and turned out a machine that does the work very satisfactorily.
This factory is now turning out 300 barrels a day. This output will in a few days be doubled.

Winding up Their Work.
The majority of the carpenters on the Gaston House wound up what they had to do there yesterday. The work of remodeling is very nearly finished. The painters will, however, be at work for some little time yet.
With the money derived from the sale of bonds the gold reserve amounted to $102,000,000 and the treasury has begun to pay some of its deferred obligations, including $100,000 a day sugar bounty. The sugar bounty this year will amount $18,000,000.

The Progressive Age says the new steamer Aurora is to be launched in a few days. The steamer will be run in connection with the Atlantic Coast line and will run to Aurora and the surrounding country.
Show windows, by their display of elegant and prettily worded love epistles—as well as those of a hideous character, misnamed comic, give a reminder that St. Valentine's day is at hand. The day is observed in commemoration of St. Valentine a bishop or presbyter, who was decapitated during the Claudian persecution of A. D. 270.

Lots of Gold Being Found.
Sam Stewart, once a resident of this city, but who turned Third partyward and moved to the country, was up from his Erion county home yesterday and reported considerable gold fever in his section. He says almost every man has a gold hunting outfit and is prospecting around.
A big amount of gold has been found in this way and has been felt in the business of the community, there never being better living and any more loose coin at this season of the year than at present.—Charlotte News.

The Burlington News says: "Mr. W. J. Dimont, who lives out between Elon College and Onipe, brought us a green stalk of tobacco that grew in the chimney corner outside, from a root three years old, and has grown a good plant of matured tobacco for three years. The stalk he brought us has not been killed by frost this winter and looks about as fresh as if it was May."

Oh, Those Types!
A correspondent of the Wilmington Star alluded to the fact that W. W. Lawrence, col., who was with Robt. Hancock as deputy in the collector of Customs office was not at first willing to vacate when Mr. Credle was chosen by Mr. Lane. The mistake that occurred as it appears in that paper is as good an example of what trouble a little slip in type setting will do as any we ever came across, what was written was:
"Mr. B. G. Credle, was qualified today as clerk to Collector of Customs at this post, S. H. Lane. The colored clerk under outgoing Hancock, refused to give up his place to Mr. Credle, claiming that he was put in by a higher authority, and that it would take the same authority to oust him."
What appeared was this:
"Mr. B. G. Credle, was qualified today as collector of Customs at this post. S. H. Lane, the colored clerk under outgoing Hancock, refused to give up his place to Mr. Credle, claiming that he was put in by a higher authority, and that it would take the same authority to oust him."
Mr. Lane's name was intended to be the end of the first sentence, but the wrong placing of the period made it the beginning of the next and played wild-works with the meaning.

His subject will be "The Greatest Sin in the World." Good singing may be expected. Led by two chorists. All men are cordially invited to be present.

W. I. Run Two Furniture Stores.
We announced some time ago that Mr. J. Suter, furniture dealer, had secured the roomy and elegant western store for the Gaston House for his business. He has now got it neatly filled with a choice selection of furniture, and he has not drawn on his old store for any of it.
It will be remembered that quite recently Mr. M. H. Sultan opened with a large and select stock of furniture in the T. A. Henry building. Mr. Suter has bought the entire stock and is moving it down. Mr. Suter will, for the present at least run two stores, continuing in business at his old stand also.
Mr. Suter has long served the public very satisfactorily in his line of business carrying all lines, and grades to suit every class of purchasers. We are glad to see his business flourishing and growing.

Grand Council Organized.
From our townsman Mr. W. B. Boyd, Grand District Secretary of the Order of Chosen Friends, we obtain the following proceedings of the convention which organized the Grand Council of the Order:
A meeting of delegates from the subordinate council of the order of Chosen Friends of Eastern North Carolina was held at Tarboro on the 7th inst, and a Grand Council was formed.
There were representatives from nine Councils present, also, Supreme Treasurer, W. J. Newton and H. Witcover, Provisional Grand Councilor of the States of North and South Carolina.
The following officers were elected.

VANCE'S CARD
What is Said of It in Raleigh and in Washington City.
The Raleigh special to the Charlotte Observer says that the letter of Senator Vance on the Simmons matter is much talked of there. It is the current comment and belief that it is the beginning of an open struggle between North Carolina and Senator Vance. Of course it is no secret that they have been "at odds" for some time. The special from Washington says:
"An advance sheet of today's Asheville Citizen, containing Senator Vance's reason for fighting Simmons, was received here today. Later it was learned that the same matter appeared today in the Charlotte Observer. Mr. Simmons stated to the President, who asked him about Gardner, that he thought the latter had not rendered sufficient service to the party to justify appointment to a $6,000 office. As to Major Hale, he said that he had not resided very long in the State since the war, and that others had rendered the party more efficient and long continued service. After reading Senator Vance's card a Representative quietly remarked: "It is the first intimation I have heard that Mr. Simmons was not a fit man to be entrusted with office."

A Good Enterprise for Raleigh.
From the News-Observer Chronicle we learn that Raleigh is to have a car-wheel factory, an extensive branch of the large and famous Laddell Car wheel works of Wilmington Del.
The productive capacity at first will be 1,000 wheels a month, which will take a million pounds of iron monthly; all the iron and coal used will be from southern mines and all the workmen will be home people except two experts brought from outside to supervise and direct the efficient operation of the plant.
The erection of the buildings is under way. The machinery for the plant is to be shipped next month and it is expected to be in operation by early spring.

Farmers Institutes Under State Direction.
In the Stateville Landmark we see that Fredrick Farmer's Institute will be held on the 1st Friday and Saturday of this month. It will be conducted by Dr. H. B. Battle, director of the State Experiment Station assisted by one or two professors of the State Agricultural and Mechanical college.
These institutes are conducted without cost to the farmers and are well spoken of. Dr. Battle by reason of the many experiments and practical tests he has made is able to give advice valuable to all tillers of the soil.
The talks are on practical matters relating to farming—what crops are best adapted to the soil, how to obtain the best results and a great variety of matters of interest to every farmer, whenever one of the institutes is held in this location our agriculturists should give attendance.

A Cashier Missing.
Friday morning much excitement was caused at Watkins, N. Y., by the closing of the first National bank there, "because the cashier had run away." He had been speculating in "boom town lots" and $50,000 of the bank funds were missing as well as the cashier.
The Bicyclist Beat the Horses.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 9.—In a ten mile relay race against five trotters here today, Jack Prince, champion short distance bicyclist, easily beat the horses. Time 31:07. The race was for $250 a side and gate receipts.
Profit in Small Farms.
The following is a statement of the crop made on a 20 acre farm by Geo. H. Mallison, near this place, during the last year. His entire expenses for labor excepting his own, was forty dollars. In addition to crop sold and on hand, his family have lived mostly from the farm, selling chickens, eggs, vegetables, fruit, &c.

Good Bread Now.
For two or three days our bread has not been so good as usual, but we have corrected the difficulty and customers will now find it as good as ever.
Respectfully,

Three Charlotte Ladies Become Foreign Missionaries.
A few days ago Rev. Dr. Bryson of Alabama, came to this city in the interest of foreign missionary work. He conducted prayer meeting at the First Presbyterian church and made a very strong appeal to all people and Presbyterians especially to make a more determined effort in this work.
His visit was rewarded with an abundant harvest for, as a result of it, Charlotte will give up three of her best and most sincere women. They are Misses Claude Greer, Bessie Neal and Sue Torrance who have offered themselves to the church to be sent to whatever foreign field that may be thought best.
Miss Greer is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Greer, of Rocky River, Cabarrus county. She is a woman of rare mental force and dauntless energy. She now holds an important position in the Charlotte Female Seminary.
Miss Neal is a native of Salisbury, but is now a teacher in the Charlotte Graded school. She has always been especially interested in foreign missionary work, and will delight in such labors. She has always been noted for her intellectual gifts.
Miss Torrance is the accomplished daughter of Capt. R. A. Torrance, county tax collector. She is scarcely twenty years of age, but is thoroughly educated and competent to master any work that she may undertake.
Charlotte will follow these young ladies even to the remotest ends of the earth.—Charlotte News.
