> Some of Last Night Exhibit Arrivals In addition to what the freight train brought to the Fair there were 43 coops of tancy poultry and pet animals that arrived by a car attached to last night's passenger train.

> These exhibits were from E. F. Hege, Salem: J. P. Kerr, Alamance farm, Haw river, N. C., and B. A. Fox, Richmond,

> Mr. Fox, it will be remembered made an excellent show of poultry at the Fair last year but did not enter them for com petion, he being the Julge in the Poultry Department. The same is the case this year. Mr. Fox is again Judge. so he brings some of his poultry to show, but does not compete for premiums. He also makes an exhibit of English Beagle Hounds

Mr. Kerr is also one of last years exhibitors. He showed fine stock last year. This year he brings poultry and a massive 13 months old St. Bernard dog.

Mr. Hege will have 27 coops at the Fair. He has 12 varieties of pouitry, and a very interesting collection of small animals among them being one curiosity, waltzing mice.
