WHY IS IT THUS

JANET BOWNASTER.

One half the world are glad, glow Of the joy that might be had!

Why one is soaring while others groupe One's joy oft is meny's pain, Why one rewardless may plant, a hope And the multidude resp the gain?

Why are the things we long for now Withheld till the late, late day; Naught opportune coming to cramped youth's brow But all things when locks are gray?

Why is it that youth, Death's summon mourns

When age would have hailed release? Why is it that you must push through thorns. Whose ways were once all peace?

Silence yet oft these quarries chime Straight up through my childlike faith; But in Time, or in glorious Aftertime, The truth will dissolve the wraith.

For the plan He has woven will come rightwise Out of all the dismay and doubt,

And the puzzle that now-times blur our eyes Will all be ravelled out.

asked a mother, tried and blest, With babe asleep upon her breast; "O, mother fond, so proud and fair, What is thy inmost secret prayer?' She raised her calm and peaceful eyes, Madonna like, up to the skies; My dearest wish is this," said she. That God may spare my child to me."

Again, I asked a woman old. To whom the world seemed hard and cold:

"Pray tell me, O, thou blest in years, What are thy hopes, what are thy fears?', With folded hands and head bent low She answer made, in accents slow; "Forme remains but one request It is that God may give me rest' -Boston Glube.
