The county delinquent tax-list is in the hands of the printers and will appear tomorrow.

Regular meeting of the Naval Reserve tonight at the armory at half past eight o'clock.

Mr. Alonzo Davis, recently with Mr. S. W. Willis has taken a situation in the store of Mr. J. R. Parker, Jr.

We are glad to see our clever young teller at the Farmers & Merchants Bank, Mr. A. H. Powell, again at his post of duty.

Mr. Nelson Whitford announces the private sale of all the furnishings of his boarding house, as he is retiring from the business.

Wherever a man farms right—that is making everything for home consumption the first consideration and then puts money crops as the samples he prospers. This rule can be relied upon east or west and farming or working more and more upon such methods. It is a good sign for the whole country.

"Select Poetry of North Carolina" the compilation gotten up by Rev. Hight C. Moore, is ready for the Press, says the Twin City daily Sentinel. The author was for awhile pastor of the Baptist church of Morehead; he is now located in Winston. The collection of poems is spoken of as a very meritorious one.

A protracted meeting will be commenced in the Baptist church on Wednesday, March 21st. It will be conducted by Rev. P. G. Elson, a young man of Fincastle, Va. He is expected to arrive during the day on which the meetings commence at night. Preliminary meetings will precede those conducted by Mr. Elson.

The Clark Lumber Co's new shed is getting well under way in construction. It is a high double shed 36x117 feet. This gives the mill large additional storing capacity and as the shed stands directly over the waters of the Neuse on newly driven piling. This gives vessels the chance to load direct from it, a very convenient arrangement.

A Presbyterian Congregational meeting will be held Thursday night after prayer-meeting to take into consideration the making of the proposed changes in the church building. Members of the congregation as well as members of the church will be given a voice in the matter. The responsibility of whether the changes shall be made or not rests upon all, consequently a full attendance and a free expression of opinion is wanted.

It has been discovered that in marking out the premium list on poultry and substituting the names of the owner for the numbers by which each coop had been designated while on exhibition, some of the birds were accidentally not credited to the owners, but to others. Being desirous of giving a complete correct list in this department we respectfully the entire list this morning as corrected. The premiums on hens, turkeys and onion pickles omitted from the list in the culinary department were awarded to Mrs. R. H. Street.

Oranges, Oranges, Oranges, Oranges Nunn & McSorley's.

Coming and Going.

Hon. F. M. Simmons after spending several days in the city, left returning to Raleigh.

Mr. J. J. Dissaway left for the North to replenish his stock of mill supplies.

Mrs. J. W. Howard left for Jones county to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hollister and Miss Sadie Eaton left for Baltimore.

Mr. J. B. Holland, left yesterday by the steamer Neuse for the northern markets to lay in the spring stock of J. B. Holland & Co.

Miss Bonnie Louise Oast, of Charlotte, and Miss Lucretia Gorrell, of Winston who have been visiting Miss Emma Katie Jones, left, the former to visit in Durham, the latter in Goldsboro.

Mr. L. A. Coulter, Y. M. C. A. Gen'l Secretary who has been in the city in the interest of the work left for other points.

The Pipe Laying.
The work of laying the water works pipe yesterday was completed on East Front street, from Queen to Short street—down to the beginning of the rock wall. Then the work on East Front stops for the present.

Excavations for laying more pipe were made on Johnson street from East Front to Hancock. Of course the next pipe laying will be there. When Johnson street is finished Pollock street will be taken.

On Pollock street the largest size of pipe, 12 inch, will be used. It is being distributed along the street yesterday ready for use.

Improvements at the Albert.
The Hotel Albert is having improvements made.

We saw two handsome round work signs "Hotel Albert Office" prepared by Mr. F. J. Hage, Jr., to be put up at the front.

The office is to be deepened where the desk stands, and a doorway made communicating with space that has heretofore served as part of the adjoining store. This will be converted into a barber shop, retired from the street, for the hotel patrons and a bath room will be connected with the barber-shop.

The office will also be ceiled overhead, and the sides decorated.

The work is now in progress under charge of Mr. C. J. Sheelky.

A Pretty Display.
S. K. Eaton's revolving jewelry display in his show window makes a very pretty show and it is run by clock work machinery arranged by himself. Much of Mr. Eaton's stock is elegant and interesting to examine.

And Mr. Eaton informs us that there is a sale for the best. He recently had some very fine pieces which his friends, good naturedly laughed at him for getting because they didn't think this market would take such, but those were among the very first he sold. He says that he finds the people of New Berne are good, discriminating buyers and when the real worth is in a fine article they are willing to pay the price and secure it.

To appear in April.
Mr. Geo. S. Richardson, artist, of Harper's Weekly who has been taking sketches of New Berne scenes for Harper's publications, left for other points in the State. After visiting the desired points in North Carolina he will go to South Carolina.

The articles which the sketches from these two states are to accompany will come out in Harper's publications during the month of April.

The W. N. & N. E. R. Warehouse.
The painting of the W. N. & N. warehouse is now completed. The front was the last of the work executed.

The building is in exactly the same colors as the depot—Nile green trimmed with light olive-green and dark red. The two buildings show well.

The W. N. & N. improvements on their property have wrought a great change for the better in the appearance of things in that locality.

Sale of the Slade Property.
A portion of the real property of the Z. Slade estate, as advertised was sold yesterday. The house and lot near the foot of Hancock street, at which Mr. J. H. Crabtree lived for quite a time, was knocked off to Mr. Thos. Bowden for $1,241. The next lot, "the hole," on the corner of Hancock and South Front was secured by Mr. J. F. Clark, for $200. It was first knocked off for $265 and the bid afterwards raised.

The valuable lot on Broad street forming a part of Mr. Slade's old homestead will be sold later.

DIED.
At her home in Wilmington on Saturday the 2d inst. Mrs. Catharine Kennedy wife of Dr. Armand J. DeRossett, and daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Wm. M. Kennedy, of Columbus, S. C. aged 84 years.

Dr. DeRossett is the father of Mrs. Graham Davis, of New Berne and she has been in Wilmington a week on account of the illness of her step-mother. Major Davis went down yesterday.

The Wilmington Messenger gives strong testimony to the worth of Mrs. DeRossett. It speaks of her as a good woman, in the broadest sense of the term—kind hearted, amiable, generous, striving always to do her duty and doing it well.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING.

Secretary Coulter's Address—$25 Subscribed for the Years Work.

Sunday afternoon, instead of the usual devotional meeting for men only, in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, a meeting for both ladies and gentlemen was held and an address by Mr. L. A. Coulter, State Secretary. Mr. Coulter spoke upon the reason why such work is being needed and upon what is being accomplished abroad and at home.

Mr. Coulter spoke of the Young Men's Christian Association needing both moral and financial support. Some of the reasons advanced for this were as follows:

Doing such work in our own country would be too expensive for each church separately to carry on all its desirable features.

The organization was closely connected with the church—how closely was illustrated by calling attention to the fact that none but christians in good and regular standing can either vote or hold office in one of the associations, while even in a Sunday school as closely as it is identified with the church both teachers and officers can sometimes be found who have never been connected with any church.

The work is no longer an experiment but a fixed fact. In this connection Mr. Coulter gave short allusions to the work all over the world, India, China, Japan, the city of Jerusalem, the countries of Europe etc, and narrowed the facts down to the work in the United States, where the Association owns millions of dollars worth of property. The finest building devoted to the work has just been completed in Chicago at a cost of $1,700,000. 1,200 secretaries now devote their whole time to the work, and there are buildings costing as high as $60,000 connected with leading colleges of which christians—some of these colleges to which christian parents, at a time not far in the past dreaded to send their boys on account of then-existing unwholesome influences. Mr. Coulter here briefly alluded to the excellent association work being done at several colleges in this State.

He told also of how the good influences of the association work were appreciated by railroad officials of the country who had seen its workings and effect upon railroad employees. Some of them realize the advantages to such an extent that the corporation pays the salary of the Secretary, and provides a building in which the work is to be carried on for those connected with the railroad.

Dropping the statement of facts as to what was being done, Mr. Coulter spoke next as to why a special work for young men was needed.

One reason is that according to estimates 95 per cent of profits of saloons and other evil places come from young men—not so much from them later on, partly as a great evangelist said, "The Devil don't allow his followers to live long."

Seventy-five per cent of convicts are young men. In a prison visited by the secretary, of the four hundred inmates only ten appeared to be as old as 40, and the majority did not seem to be half that old.

There is need of special work for young men because young men are valuable. The speaker cited the achievements of Napoleon, Martin Luther, Henry Clay, Stonewall Jackson, and of the records they made while under forty years of age.

The work is needed because young men are perishable. As perishable freight must be speeded by transportation lines so its destination to keep from losing it, so must young men be speeded into the right to save them from destruction.

The crowning point of Mr. Coulter's argument is the little thought of, but indisputable fact, that the mightiest work associations do is the preventative work. The placing of a light-house by a dangerous point on the coast to prevent shipwrecks is a wise act and more commendable on the part of the Government than putting a life saving station there to save wrecked people, and yet the work of the light-house preventing wrecks and saving many lives is not heard, while the saving of a life or half a dozen lives by the crew of a station, oftentimes at peril, is heralded abroad. So when a young man, gone astray is reclaimed, it is a subject of noticeable, favorable comment, while the young man upheld by the beautiful sustaining influence of the association is never heard of, and for this cause the restraining influences of the association, great as they are, do not hold the places in the minds of the people which their importance entitles them to.

The address was well received by the large and intelligent audience which nearly filled the Hall and at its conclusion those present made a subscription of $75 towards the support of the Association work for the present year in addition to what had been subscribed in the canvass of the city. $750 had been subscribed previous to the meeting.

Four Mast Schooner Wrecked.
The four masted schooner Florence C. Magee, of Philadelphia, Magee master, was wrecked on Body's Island, Dare county, on Sunday night about 9 o'clock. The crew were all saved.

The Pine Lumber Company.

The Scheelky Planing Mill which Messrs. Hines Bros. leased yesterday, is likely to be idle about a month. This is simply because the saw mill which is being built alongside of it by the Pine Lumber Company, the new lessees, to supply it with the lumber needed (instead of having to depend, as heretofore, on mills at some distance) is not quite ready. The building is nearly finished, but the machinery has not yet arrived; it is looked for now almost any day and it will be put in position as quickly as possible on its arrival and regular running begun at once. There will be an additional dry-kiln also to keep the capacity of that department up to the saw mill capacity—20,000 feet.

CULLED ITEMS OF NEWS.

Cleveland was expected in Washington yesterday evening, when last seen the Violet was twelve miles from Hatteras and is supposed to have gone homeward.

Mrs. Anna E. Brown, whose will was probated in Quincy, Ill., recently left one thousand dollars each to her father and three other near relatives and three hundred and thirty thousand dollars to public charities.

The verdict of the Turner—Holden case was in favor of the defendant, Mrs. L. V. Holden, widow of the Governor. The case has attracted wide attention.

At Koscusko, Miss. a Populist member of the legislature killed a Democratic member, Friday in a fight. A political feud was the cause. Two other men were mortally wounded.

The Pine Lumber Company, at Aberdeen, has all its sawmills at work, having an order from Pittsburg, Pa. for 4,000,000 feet of lumber.

A mob of over one hundred rioters burned the Chesapeake and Ohio rail road bridge at Cohen Creek, early Saturday morning. This cuts off all coal shipments from the Cohen creek branch and will compel all of the mines of that branch to close down. The sheriff with four hundred militia-men and half as many deputies are now at the scene. It is now thought that the rioters will not dare to make an open attack. They retired before the sheriff arrived.

At a rally of the populist in McDowell county some Republicans were present. One of the latter made a speech, in which he denounced Cleveland and the Democrats as enemies of the country. The editor of the Populist paper followed him denouncing both the Republicans and Democrats. It is claimed that the Republicans in Moore county mainly oppose fusion. At one of the populist county conventions a speaker said he could buy Alliance Democrats for $1 each.

A GRAND SUCCESS.

The East Carolina Poultry Show at New Berne, N. C.—1200 Birds in Competition.

The best Poultry show in the South say parties from Georgia, Connecticut, Maryland, Virginia, New York, New Jersey, North Carolina and South Carolina.

The boys are in it. And if the boys from our sister States don't believe it, let them meet us next February 1895.

The Union Point Poultry yards, New Berne, N. C. had a grand display, and came in for some of the first prizes.

Then came J. P. Kerr with a long string of White Leghorns and Light Brahmans, F. E. Hege with his splendid Indian Games, Buff Cochins, Rabbits, Mice and Dogs. Thos. A. McIntyre, with his Barred Plymouth Rocks, Brown Leghorns, and Bronze Turkeys, his Tom weighing 47 pounds.

Wm. Dunn Pres. of the Fair Association was in it with his Light Brahmans and Partridge Cochins.

J. L. Hahn gained the victory with his White Face Black Spanish and Buff Pekin Bantams.

E. E. Hudson swept everything with his Golden Wyandottes and came in for a place with his Indian Games and Barred Plymouth Rocks.

Wood Bros. came to the front with their Buff Cochins. Winning first on pullet and second on hen.

S. R. Street, had some fine Light Brahmans which were not far behind the best.

J. M. Reel, had some fine American Dominicks and Leghorns.

John Humphrey, had a nice display of Golden Wyandottes, Leghorns, etc.

Resolution of Thanks.

The New Berne Steam Fire Engine Co., No. 1, at its recent meeting, Resolved—That to the ladies who ornamented our Engine for the parade on the 20th of Feb'y, our thanks are eminently due and are sincerely tendered.

The result of their labors was a beautiful symphony of color of choicest floral parts, that elicited spontaneous and generous praise and was of itself a conspicuous feature of the parade.

The adornment, signally typified the grace of mind and beauty of person that so distinguished our fair friends. The memory of their generous kindness will remain with us as fragrant as the lovely flowers so lavishly contributed and the elegance of their work coupled with their charming personality will ever remain a most delightful pastime.
