Edwin E. Brown's Accident Insurance. Chicago, Ill., April 10, 1893. Guarantee and Accident Lloyds, No. 15 Wall Street, New York City,

Gentlemen:—I have just received your favor of the 8th inst., cortaining your check for $3,000 00 (this being the face value,) in full payment of policy No. 71, 959 held in your company by my late husband Edwin E. Brown, who, was accidentally killed by foot-padain St. Louis a short time since, the particulars of which are still fresh in the miads of the public.

Proofs were caly completed and forwared you about the first of this month I am somewhat surprised as well as pleased with your prompt action in this matter which is in marked contrast with that of another company in which be held a similar policy.

I feel that the courteous and prompt action of your representatives deserves more than formal acknowledgement. I therefore take pleasure in recom-mending your company as worthy the confidence of my friends and acquaintances, and any others who may be in want of secident insurance.

Respectfully yours, MARTHA A. BROWN. ROMULUS A. NUNN,

IN THE TEMPLE OF WISDOM.

"Give me thy dreams," she said, and I With empty hands and very poor Watched my fair flowery vision die Upon the temple's marble floor.

"Give joy," she cried. I let joy go, I saw with cold, unclouded eyes The crimson of the senset glow Across the disenchanted skies.

*Give me thy youth," she said. I gave, And, sudden clouded, died the sun, And so the green mound of a grave Fell the slow mindrops, one by one.

"Give love," she cried. I gave that too, "Give beauty." Beauty sighed and fied. For what on earth should beauty do When love who was her life was dead

She took the balm of innocent tears To hiss upon her altar coal, She took the hopes of all my years, And at the last she took my soul.

With heart made empty of delight And hands that held no more fair things, questioned her, "What shall requite

The savor of my offerings ?" "The gods,"s he said, "with generous hand

> THE POET JOHN A. JOYCE.

He comes like a brilliant comet To light up the valleys of gloom, With an epic, lyric, or sonnet To soar over time and the tomb.

No chains bind the rush of his pinion; No fetters enshackle his mind, His soul is born unto singing; His words ever true, ever kind.

His glory shall shine everlasting, When temples and towers decay; His heart forever is fasting To utter some grand, deathless lay.

He teaches the lesson of ages, The beauty sent down from above, And traces on golden pages The Godlike, sweet essence of love!

Let it run, and your cough may end in something serious. It's pretty the rudder when they should be sure to, if your blood is poor. That is just the time and condition that invites Consumption. The seeds are sown and it has fastened its hold upon you, before you know that it is near. It won't do to trifle and delay, when the remedy is at hand. Every disorder that can be reached through the blood yields to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. For Severe Coughs, Bronchial, Throat and Lung Diseases, Asthma, Scrofula in every form, and even the Scrofulous affection of the lungs that's called Consumption, in all its earlier stages.
