Yesterday afternoon Mr. Elsom, at the Baptist church, addressed his audience from Job 14:14: "If a man die shall he There will be a daily mail except on live again." His subject was "Immortality," and he argued it both from nature, science and scripture.

> He said that one should ask himself two questions: "What relation does God hold toward me?" and "What kind of life am I living ?"

He made an appeal to sinners and showed they could be sived by accepting Christ and unless they did do this they would be everlastingly damned.

A carrespondent of the News-Observer-Chronicle tells of a man named Newton from the northern part of Granville being put in jail at Oxford for the murder of his uncle by emptying a load of shot in his stomach. Newton is spoken of as a desperate man; he seems unconcerned and claims he did the killing in self defence. He and his uncle were at a place of questionable resort, under the influence of sulted in the murder.

The News-Observer-Chronicle tells of an attempted suicide there by a man named S. R. House, an employee of the Caraleigh mills.
