CHURCH DEDICATION.

St Thomas, Episcopal Church, Jasper Religiously Set Apart for God's Service.

At 11 o'clock Sunday morning, the Episcopal church, St. Thomas,' at Jasper, was solemnly dedicated to the service of almighty God, by Bishop A. A. Watson. Rev. T. M. N. George, of New Berne, preached the dedicatory sermon, and Evangelist Wooten read the services. There was an over flowing congregation. The whole country around seemed to have come and there were a good number from New Berne, Mr. George chose for his text, 1st, to all. Kings, 8th chapter, 17th and 18th verses. And it was in the heart of David my in all , the best series of meeting; with father to build a house for the name of the Lord God of Israel. And the Lord said unto David my father, whereas it was in thine heart to build a house unto my name thou didst well, that it was in thine heart. The subject of the sermon was: "The Reasons for Setting Apart Houses of Worship for Almighty God." The fact that God's servants have, at all times, set apart special places for his worship was brought out Special reference was made to the tabernacle in the wilderness and the temple of Solomor both of which were built by the command of God and under his immediate direction. The costiest materials were lavished upon the erection of each, thus giving us the lesson that the best should be set apart for God's service.

The three fold purpose of God, as manifested in all such sacred places were: 1st .- They were for the Glory of

2d.-They were places where men re ceived blessings from God. 3d .- They were centres of union to draw God's people together. The ground on which this church stands is the site of the old St. Thomas church which was burned during the war. Special mention was made in the sermon of the fact hat on this spot had hundreds of guests. Mrs. Morehead is worshipped many saints of God, for 70 very popular here. The Governor of Virginia and his staff were present. years, and a tribute was made to the memory of Israel Harding, who, like David of old, had it in his heart to build this house of God and had gathered together the materials for its construction but died before he had completed it.

The President's Veto-The Confederate Relief Charity Ball-A Democratte "Love Feast"-

> Other Notes of Interest.

No outsider can appreciate the im-mence pressure that has been brought to bear on the President to make him sign the Bland bill. Secretaries Hoke Smith and Gresham of the Cabinet and a large number of his personal friends in the House and Senate have importuned him with the utmost earnestness to sign the bill or permit it to become a law without the several Wards for the nomination of his signature. Grover Cleveland is not the man to resort to this latter expedent. His record justified the belief that before Congress adjourned Thursday March 29th, he would either sign it or veto it.
