NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Howar's.
Hall—Poetry.
M. Hahn & Co.—Fine horses and mules
Bradham & Brock—Prescriptions filled at any hour of night.

A brick curbing is being put down in front of the baptist church, preparatory to making a shell-rock payment. Similar work is in progress at Gaskill's Pharmacy and at Mr. H. B. Duffy's store.

May the 20th this year falls on Sunday. This being so the question has been raised whether the corner stone of the Confederate monument shall be laid on the 20th or not.

Open meeting at the Y. M. C. A., this afternoon. The delegates who attended the convention will make addresses. Special music has been prepared for the occasion.

Rev. D. H. Petree returned last night from Jacksonville where he has been filling his regular Friday night monthly appointment. On this occasion he received one member into the church organization there. Though their numbers are small, the disciples at that place are desirous of building a house of worship, and are likely soon to make an effort to that end.

The Hancock Street Church Meetings
Hancock Street M. C. Church had three accessions to membership last night—two of the members were baptized at the time. The meeting will be continued next week.

Will be Repeated
The excellent stereopticon entertainment which was given at the Collegiate Institute Friday night by Mr. W. L. Ward, to a large audience, will be repeated. We are glad to announce. The next time it will be in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. A week from to-morrow night is the date.

Ten entertainment has been highly complimented by those present. It will be given as before for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

North Carolina Rearmost.
Col. E. D. Hall, chairman of the committee to collect funds for the Jefferson Davis monument at Richmond, announces that this State will probably be the rearmost so far as collections are concerned.

This position from the State that moved most mightily in that great struggle is to be regretted. What part will New Bern take towards making the showing different?

Will See the State
A Charlotte Observer special from Raleigh tells of a suit that is to be brought to test the value of the bonds which in 1862 were issued by this State in aid of what was then known as the Obsolete and Confederate Railroad.

These bonds aggregate some $250,000. The holders claim that they have not the "right of the rebellion," and that they are valid. The owners want to supply the "war note" to them that taking of two-thirds, and then have the State issue bonds under the funding act at the rate of 140 cents on the dollar. This will make the amount about $450,000.

Mr. Calvin J. Conley will bring the bills Mr. Hinkley, of Raleigh, is the attorney.

Six or eight years ago Robert A. Tanks, of New York, brought suit against the State to get pay for iron. Tanks sold the city a great deal of iron, and the State paid for it. Tanks sued the State, and the State sued Tanks. The case was decided against Tanks.

WATER NEXT WEEK

The Water Works to be Completed this Week and Water Turned on Next Week if all Runs Smoothly

Only 5,000 feet of pipe, equivalent to about a mile, now remains to complete the pipe laying for the water works, and unless bad weather or something unforeseen, causes some delay, that will be finished this week. If everything moves along uninterruptedly, the expectation is that the water will be turned on next week.

Saturday Hancock street was finished and the small portion of South Front, East of the A. & N. C. railroad, and the connecting link between the pump house and the street main, was made in the afternoon—the connection with the wells and with the water tower had already been made.

When the pipe laying is finished this week, the work will be practically completed. What remains to be done will be simply going over the streets again, leveling down and putting finishing touches needed, so as to leave everything in satisfactory condition for the city.

The entire system, when finished, will contain 40,000 feet of pipe—seven and one half miles.

Senator Vance Paralyzed.
A special to the Charlotte Observer from Washington gives the following news:
Gradually the really serious condition of Senator Vance's health is becoming known. He is paralyzed in his legs, in addition to the liver enlargement already mentioned.

David Dudley Field's Death.
David Dudley Field, the distinguished jurist and author expired suddenly in New York Friday morning at 3:30 o'clock of pneumonia. He had just returned on Wednesday from Europe and pronounced himself in splendid condition. Although 89 years old, he was hale and hearty and was considered good for many years yet.

Mr. Field was a Democrat in politics and was a member of the electoral commission in 1876. He has published a number of works of high literary value besides his great law books on which however his fame chiefly rests.

The Encampment.
Capt. T. W. Jones, of the United States army, assigned to duty in North Carolina, was in the city today for a consultation with Capt. T. S. Franklin, of the Queen City Guards, in regard to the encampment in year. Many of the boys want to go to Morehead City, others to Wrightsville and still others to some point in the mountains.—Charlotte News.

We will all be glad to have the soldier boys at Morehead again. Those who were there last year seemed to enjoy it greatly, and this year the season at Morehead is likely to be a good deal more brilliant than last year.

Take the ocean resort and enjoy the sailing, fishing and bathing.

Gold in the Streets of Charlotte.
It is not an uncommon thing for rich specimens of gold ore to be picked up on the street where macadamizing is being done.

If all the gold that is now on the streets were sold, it would pay for the city hall and build the city an elegant park. That is what some expert miners say.—Charlotte News.

SEEKS A HOME IN NEW BERNE.

A Sample of Many Letters Received Here—What Ought to be Done in the Way of Sending Out Information of the Kind Sought.

A citizen of Sanford, Me., writes for information in reference to New Bern. His object for seeking it is that he wants to make his home in the South.

He gives his reason for making the change, that five years ago he had La Grippe, and that it left him so that when North he is afflicted in winter with bronchial asthma which disappears as soon as warm spring weather sets in. The past winter he spent at Wrightsville, near Wilmington, and was all the time perfectly well, but in three days after his return home the old complaint came back.

The gentleman states in his letter that he has taken a trip through North and South Carolina, and through Georgia as far as Thomasville, but he likes the climate better than farther South, and believes from what he has heard that New Bern would suit him better than any other place he knows of. He is fond of fishing, shooting, and of the water in general, and has concluded that as soon as he can find a nice place that suits him, he will move there and buy or build a home.

He wants information about New Bern, about the climate, healthfulness, pleasantness, freedom from malaria, prices of real estate, etc.

Those wishing to correspond with the gentleman can get his address from General C. A. Battle at the postoffice.

This letter is only a sample of many that are received by members of our citizens. If every letter of the kind could be brought directly to the attention of the business men, we think they would be impressed with the fact that organization is needed whose object is the collection and dissemination of information relative to New Bern and her advantages. The eyes of many from a number of States are turned towards us as never before. They want further information and if it is made convenient for them to obtain a golden harvest of prosperity will be the result.

We have a climate unsurpassed, and a health record that will not suffer from comparison with any place. Our city is a beautiful one, half surrounded by the rivers Neuse and Trent, hence the facilities for sports of the water are good, and game is abundant in the woods and fields while for the manufacture of wood or textile goods abundant raw material is at hand and the labor would be easily procurable and railroads and steamers are at hand to bear the products to the markets of the world.

Organize and herald these facts abroad especially to those who are in quest of them.

CULLED ITEMS OF NEWS.

Cozey's army has reached Grantsville, Md.

Yesterday was the day for the selling of the Raleigh street railway.

Moody and Sankey have been invited to come to Raleigh to hold a meeting.

A tract of land containing 15,000 acres has been purchased in Columbus county on which a Swedish colony will be established.

Governor Tillman sent to Collector Carter at Asheville in one week $3,500 in gold to pay for stamps on North Carolina corn whiskey he had bought for his South Carolina dispensaries.

The Tennessee Populists and Republicans have hatched up a fusion. The people's party have nominated A. J. L. Mims for Governor, and two candidates for the Supreme court. The Republicans are expected to nominate the other four candidates for the Supreme court.

A large force of men is at work on the ruins of the American Glucose Company works. No bodies have been recovered, but it is considered certain that the twelve missing workmen are buried in the debris of the burned building.

The Royalists of Hawaii strongly expect the restoration of the queen, and she counts on help from the United States to that end. It is stated that a great majority of the natives so fully believe in the early restoration of the queen that they will not dare to disobey her orders or to take the prescribed oath abjuring the monarchy, and declaring allegiance to the provisional government.

The river and harbor bill, as reported to the House, gives North Carolina $20,000. It gives $2,500 for Beaufort and New River; $2,500 for the Northeast Cape Fear; $2,500 for the Cape Fear above Wilmington; $40,000 for the Cape Fear at and below Wilmington; $2,500 for Black River, and $4,000 for Lumber river.

Miss Martin who was shot on a Richmond and Danville train is now expected to recover. It is thought the ball took a downward course and that she will suffer no disfigurement except the loss of an eye. Her assailant will have a hearing on the 21st.

John Clark the head of the great pool thread company which manufactures Clark's O. N. T. pool cotton is dead. His home was Large, Scotland. His grandfather founded the firm which has been a household word in all civilized quarters of the globe for the past fifty years and celebrated to some extent a hundred years ago. The house was the first manufactory of cotton thread.

A special to the Wilmington Messenger tells of the killing of an illicit distiller by revenue officers. While the officers were destroying his property, the owner, Wm. Myers, broke and ran, after Ford shot at him and the ball took effect in his back. He is reported dead. One of the officers has been arrested.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Fast Mail—Waiting the Time of Congress—C ev-land Going to the Country.

Hon. John S. Henderson made a strong plea for the "Fast Mail" in the House in an able speech of about an hour. He decried it as no "subsidy" as its enemies claimed, but that the railroad carrying it earned every cent of money paid for it. It would now have been adopted but for the senseless filibuster in the House yesterday. Speaker Crisp ought to "count a quorum" under the circumstances. There is no excuse for this failure to do so. Tom Reed might call him inconsistent, but the country would thank him for taking this, the only course left by which he could expedite business in the House. With 217 members present, and answering to their names, the House of Representatives was yesterday compelled to adjourn after a brief and useless session because only 147 was willing to vote.

With such a performance as this the country has no sympathy whatever. It is deplorable to the party in power, it belittles the dignity of a legislative body, and it is unfair to the people of the United States, who have a right to ask and expect that the business of the country shall be transacted with diligence and dispatch. It is not the first time, we regret to say, that valuable time has been wasted in the Fifty third Congress. Too frequently has the record been tarnished and blackened with days of an idleness, which is worse than criminal, because for it there is no excuse.

Seventy Republicans yesterday declined to vote. They are the keepers of their own consciences, they are the minority, irresponsible for the conduct of business, cast down from the high seat of public administration by a majority of the voters of the United States. To plead their presence and their silence is no palliation for the perpetration of a crime against the public treasury and the public conscience. The very fact that they were present in itself is a sufficient argument to prove that in some way they should have been made to participate in the proceedings. Count a quorum Mr. Speaker and stop such farces.

The Senate has confirmed the appointment of Mr. Henry to be consul to Curacao, but he declines the appointment.

Mr. Hugh Dorch leaves here today to join Mr. Jernigan in Shanghai. He has an appointment under him, as was intimated in this correspondence several days ago, he would leave.

Professor Holmes, of North Carolina, is here. He says in speaking of the recent Waldensian colony of emigrants to the State: "We hope to get more of these people. They are not like the ordinary Dago peasant venduing stripes of Italian mostly seen in this country. They are a hardy, thrifty people of North Italy. Protestants in religion, and so far the colony, which numbers about 400, have done well in their new home. They understand truck farming, but will also do a good deal of manufacturing later on. The South needs just such a class of immigrants and should hold out every inducement to get them to come."

Cozy's army is said to be approaching this city on schedule time. Major Moore, chief of police, says he has the authority and the force requisite to arrest the last one of the "army" and lodge the whole crowd in jail.

The House to-day decided to try to impose a fine on absent or non voting members on here for several days, as the Democrats were thirty-seven short of a quorum.

The urgent deficiency bill was taken up in the Senate. Senator Ransom and Mr. Henderson are trying to get this through, among other things to try and get money needed at Statesville court, which meets next week. Marshall Allison and District Attorney Glenn were here this week to see about this matter.

The President and Mrs. Cleveland will probably move out to their country place this week.

COMING TO A CLOSE.

The Pollard-Breckinridge Case Nearly Ended—What the Defendant Owns.

Yesterday was the time for the Pollard-Breckinridge case to be given to the jury. There has been talk about Breckinridge not having anything from which Miss Pollard could realize if she wins the suit, but the Cincinnati Dispatch says this is not so, and that Breckinridge is the owner of lands in Kentucky worth at least $25,000—it is believed they would bring that if sold to satisfy a judgment, and that if the jury should grant Miss Pollard even one half of what she sued for, she would get at least $10,000 out of it, and the lawyers another ten of fifteen thousand.

THE CAROLINA NATIONAL PARK.

Why the Government Should Establish One at Once Among Our Mountains.

It will be remembered by our readers that when the North Carolina Press Association met in New Bern last spring they passed a resolution urging our delegates in Congress to push the measure of establishing a great National Park in the mountains of Western North Carolina, and that Hon John Henderson has introduced a bill in Congress providing for its establishment.

We are heartily in favor of the scheme and have written in advocacy thereof. This morning we take from one of the Western papers, the Morganton Herald, an extract from an article giving the reasons why an Eastern National Park should be established, why the mountains of Western North Carolina should be selected as the site for the park, and why the park should be established now instead of at some time in the future. The Herald says:

"The highest mountains east of the Mississippi are in North Carolina and the fauna and flora of this beautiful section can be preserved in no other way than by preserving in its natural state a large tract of land embracing some of our highest peaks.

"The West has its national park. The East ought to have one too, and no section in the East has so many natural advantages for such a purpose as Western North Carolina.

"There are now many large, practically unbroken, tracts embracing our highest mountains and most beautiful streams, and ranging in a short distance from fifteen hundred to nearly seven thousand feet above sea level, with all the hundreds of varieties of trees and flowers and shrubs included in that range of elevation which could be purchased by the Government at reasonable figures.

"A few years hence the axe of the lumberman will have laid waste the latest portions of it all. Mr. Henderson's bill ought to pass."
