

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Cud, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osmond, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various questionable nostrums which are destroying their lives, and, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful poisons down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. Knickerlo, Oswego, Ark.

The Castoria Company, 71 Murray Street, New York City.

THE JOURNAL

ZEB VANCE IS DEAD.

How strange the sound! Undying is his name,
Immortal is his memory, they came,
A product of his own, his native soil,
Reverenced and loved by every son of toil.

Zeb Vance! The very name is honor's own—
Its loyalty into all hearts have grown;
No other titled name, in honor's ken,
Could e'er supplant this simple cognomen.

His name was synonym for hope and song,
For cheer and laughter, and for truth so strong,
The pet, the idol of the Old North State—
A beautiful man whom none could ever hate.

A sterling, gen'rus-hearted friend,
Sincere and honest, faithful to the end,
But now 'tis true that o'er his restful bed
His native pines will whisper, "he is dead!"

Neath heaven's great rotunda, laid in state,
Will lie the longest, man—so true, so great,
And o'er him nature's obsequies will roll,
And chant a requiem for his noble soul.

In many a little school-house, by the way,
When lessons shall have ended for the day,
The pedagogue, with awe, will bow his head,
And tell the children that "Zeb Vance is dead."

And home, with voices hushed and awed they'll go,
And tell, with wondering, the news they know;
The very cow-bells catch the strain so dread,
And slowly die the news, "Zeb Vance is dead."

And when his life's good angle shall have brought
Him safely to the paradise he sought,
And led him to the threshold of the gate—
Not long the servant of his State will wait.

Nor Governor nor Senator will be
The signal or the rank of his degree;
But loud hosannas, Welcome, welcome home,
And loud the welkin ring, Zeb Vance is come!

A Favorite for Coughs and Colds.

"Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine for colds and coughs we have ever sold," says S. Keel & Son, of Coal Run, Ky. It's a favorite because it can always be depended upon. It loosens a cold, relieves the lungs and effects a permanent cure. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is freely given, as it liquefies the tough mucus and makes it easier to expectorate. 25 and 50 cent for sale by J. V. Jordan Druggists.

The hours we pass with happy prospects in view are more pleasing than those crowded with fruition.

How a Chicago Man Was Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. John Hall, of 9235 Commercial Ave., Chicago, met with a serious accident for which he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm, freely, with the best results. "But now," says Mr. Hall, "comes the best part of my story. For many years I have been quite a sufferer from rheumatism, with stiffness of the joints. Since the application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, all symptoms of rheumatism have disappeared; in fact I believe that it has banished every trace of rheumatism from my system." For sale by J. V. Jordan Druggists.

An Old Song

When giants lived in ancient times,
Sing high, my boy, sing high!
In good old England, or foreign climes,
Sing high, my boy, sing high!

They carried things with a high old hand,
Nor strong, nor weak, could before them stand,
And they killed whom they pleased throughout the land,
Sing high, my boy, sing high!

But the giants didn't have things their own way when Jack—the Giant-killer arrived on the scene. You remember the story. Recollect, too, that every age has its giant-killer. We have our giants in the form of all sorts of dread diseases, supposed to be incurable. Our Jack is in the form of Dr. Pierce's, who has proven the expression "incurable diseases" to be a fallacy. Can you imagine more potent weapons to assist a woman in killing the giant disease, than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription? It's the only guaranteed remedy for all functional disturbances, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses of womanhood. In female complaints of every kind, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back. It's simply a question of the company you prefer—the Giant or Jack!

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. WINDLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world.

The Population of New Berne
Is about nine thousand, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection on the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial one free. Large bottle 50c, and $1. Sold by all druggists.

Life, I repeat, is energy of love, divine or human, exercised in pain, in strife and tribulation.

One of Mr. Jordan's Excellent Medicines

J. V. Jordan, Druggist, sells a preparation for rheumatism that has performed some remarkable cures. Frank Shephardson an engineer on the Southern Pacific Ry., who resides at Los Angeles, Cal., was troubled with rheumatism for a long time. He was treated by several physicians, also visited the Hot Springs, but received no permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which is the medicine referred to above. He says it is the best medicine in the world for rheumatism.

Strength is incomprehensible by weakness, and, therefore, the more terrible.

At First

Penelope (triumphantly)—I heard last night that Jack was heard over ears in love with me.

Grace (jealously)—You cannot believe all you hear.

Penelope—No, but I should not wonder if there was something in it.

Grace—Why? Who told you?

Penelope—He did.—Vogue.

Always Came True.
Little Dick—Does wishing with a wish-bone ever come true?
Little Dot—I wished ten different times, and it came true every time.
"Did it?"
"Yes. I always got the short end of the bone, and everybody said I wouldn't get what I wished for, and I never did."—Good News.

An Easy Race.
"I've heard," said Farmer Cornsoll, as the conductor of the accommodation train called for his ticket, "that ye have a good deal of trouble with people that try to beat ye."
"Well, I should think that it ud be purty easy of ye don't go no faster'n this."—Washington Star.

Too Vivid a Recollection.
M. Pianofuco—I hear you achieved a brilliant success on your last concert tour. The papers say the audience was frequently affected to tears.
Mrs. Vokal—Yes, indeed. Why, sometimes when I was singing "Home, Sweet Home," half the audience would get up and rush homeward.—Chicago News.

Not Taken as He Meant It.
Miss Highfliter—O, Mr. Sappy, how nice it was of you to name your new hunter after me! What is the like?
Young Sappy—Well, she's a regular stunner, Miss Highfliter. Not much to look at, don't-cher-know, but very fast. And he cannot make out why she is so cool to him now.—Vogue.

A CLEVER DIPLOMAT.

Pete Williams—If I don't want to go, I suppose that ugly old woman should suppose she's a dog on me?
Dusty Rhodes—Tell her you called to see her mother.—Puck.

Financial Item.
"I want to know when you're going to pay this bill," I said to a woman here every day in the week," said the collector to Dudley Fewcades one morning recently.
"Which day would suit you best?"
"Saturday."
"Well, then, you may come every Saturday, from now on."—Alex Sweet, in Texas Sittings.

She Had Seen Him, Too.
Donald (after the ball)—May I call on you occasionally, Miss Lester? We seem so old friends. Have I not seen you before?
Miss Lester (entirely)—Yes; you saw me hanging on to the strap in the one day last week while you were sitting down.—Vogue.

According to His Lights.
"How do you like that colored valet you imported from Alabama?"
"He won't do."
"What's the matter?"
"I told him last night to get out what I needed for the ball and he brought me my razor."—Life.
