Young people's prayer meeting at the Baptist Church to night. An invitation is extended to every one.

Cabbages are now going off in large quantities, the shipments are up to about 2,000 packages a day.

As usual the A. & N. C. R. R. will give very low rates on the 10th of May from Morehead City to New Berne in order that parties from below may attend the Confederate Memorial exercises.

Among the Peak's Sister who appear on Friday night will be found orators, speech makers and musicians, both vocal and instrumental, and more than this a well trained orchestra—we will not give the name of the instruments. Tickets on sale Thursday.

The Twin City Daily Sentinel in commenting on Gov. Carr's action in appointing Ex-Gov. Jarvis as Senator says he acted wisely, and that in doing so he rose above petty sectional prejudices, and recognized merit. This is a broad and statesman like view of the appointment which is in accord with nearly all the expressed opinions upon it.

The New Enterprise.

The Pine Lumber company has built a fine new saw mill in this city; the mill was started about ten days ago and runs to perfect satisfaction.

The dry kilns and planing mill were also started last week, and the company will be ready to ship dressed lumber the latter part of this week. The daily capacity of the mill is twenty-five thousand feet.

This firm has also secured several tracts of fine lumber along the Neuse and Trent rivers. Messrs. W. F. Koch, W. F. Aberly, Henry E. Hawk and Freeman Hawk constitute the firm. W. F. Koch is the President and superintendent and W. F. Aberly Secretary and Treasurer. They are both from Gilbert, Pa. Mr. Henry E. Hawk, of Easton, Pa., and Mr. Freeman Hawk of Allentown, Pa., are the northern salesman and collectors.

We are glad to see these men among us. They have taken hold of their business with a hearty good-will that presages success.

A Good Sermon.

Presiding Elder Swinell preached an exceptionally fine sermon at Hancock street M. E. church Sunday night on the subject, "Why are righteous people afflicted while the wicked flourish in prosperity?"

The principal line of thought he followed was that the righteous are God's children and he disciplines them according to their need to mould them into the character he desires, but he may give them more abundant joy at last, while the wicked not being his children are not under his special care and are left by him for awhile more to their own devices and to destruction at last.

COXEY'S ARMY.

A Warning Has Been Sent Them by the Washington Authorities.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia after consultation with the District Attorney and Chief of Police have issued a proclamation of warning to the industrial armies of Coxe & Co., now approaching the District of Columbia with the avowed purpose of assembling on the first day of May with the intention of securing such legislative action as will relieve the unemployed laborers throughout the country.

The commissioners appeal to the good sense and patriotism of those engaged in the ill-considered movement to reconsider their intention; they tell them that no good—nothing but harm can come from it; that if they do not disband they will be treated as vagrants.

The industrial armies of the West now marching on to Washington number thirteen, containing about 7,000 men.

The Test Today.

The company's test of the water works proceeded no farther yesterday than the filling of the stand-pipe, it was filled to overflowing in four hours time. The pumps worked beautifully.

The plan now is to turn the water into the pipes this morning to wash them out, and this afternoon to put on the tremendous pressure, such as the works will never be subjected to again, so that if there is any weak place it will give way. If it stands that pressure the company will consider the works sound enough for any purpose.

Coming and Going.

Mr. J. W. Martens, General Freight and Passenger Agent of the W. N. & N. Railroad and Mr. W. J. Crosswell, Superintendent of the Southern express company came up from Wilmington and went down to Morehead last night with their families on a pleasure trip.

Mrs. J. B. Ives, who has been visiting relatives at Goldsboro returned home last night.

Mr. G. J. Hege returned to Salem since he was at the East Carolina Fair he has sold the fine St. Bernard dog which he had on exhibition there, to Mr. Eugene Vaughn, of Winston, for two hundred and fifty dollars.

Rev. Thos. Dixon lectured on "Fools" in Fayetteville last night.

Mr. D. S. Carraway, now a druggist of Clifton Forge, Va., is in the city. He will leave tomorrow returning home.

CULLED ITEMS OF NEWS.

Bois Croker evidently wants Burke Cochran to realize that it is better to be both humble than eloquent.

There is likelihood of a speedy termination of the Great Northern R. R. strike by arbitration.

When President Cleveland and Senator Hill fall on each other's necks in the wind-up tableaux of the great conciliation act care should be taken to see that the tear receptacles are numerous and large and that the principals are unarmed.

Five thousand striking miners paraded the streets of Birmingham Monday. The strike is extending into new fields, but there are signs of weakening. There are 116,000 men out, but miners in several States are inclined to continue work.

The Behring sea bill is now a law; the announcement was made Monday in the House of Commons of England that it had become a law.

Senator Jarvis' credentials have been received and placed on file in the Senate.

There is an even feeling among Democrats on the tariff bill, it is expected to pass in a few weeks.

It may be true that Senator Hill is not a good grammarian, but it cannot be denied that he is a hard hitter.

The Anglo-Saxon race is in possession of one-third portion of the earth and rules over 400,000,000 of its inhabitants.

What did Congressman Tom Johnson, of Ohio, mean when he said: "The republicans didn't care to applaud Senator Hill's speech and the democrats didn't dare?"

The Kansas Lawyer who lately said: "No power on earth is strong enough to compel me to dispute with a woman," deserves a place in the front rank of level-headed men.

One of our exchanges says that information is desired as to the names of some living members of the gallant Seventh and Twenty-Seventh North Carolina Regiments to be used in the preparation of a history of those commands. No name is mentioned of those wanting the information. If that will only be done we believe there are plenty of these faithful soldiers living to give all the desired information. We only know that the former editor of THE JOURNAL, the late H. S. Nun, was a gallant soldier of the Twenty-Seventh, and as a mere delicate lad, saw four years hard service and went down to the grave a few years ago an honored and battle-scarred veteran of the Confederacy.

Improve Side-Walks Substantially

Substantial side-walk improvements like those on Broad street side walk near Hancock street and like those in front of the Baptist Church, Gaskill's Pharmacy and H. B. Duffys are to be commended because it means permanency.

To throw a little dirt up on a side-walk makes it look good for a time, but it hardly lasts a week. A good curbing like the ones thus put down, and the walk covered with substantial material will last and be economy in the long run. The sidewalk at the cotton exchange square and by Dr. F. W. Hughes residence proves this.

UNITED STATES COURT.

Judge Seymour Presiding—Full Docket—Unusually Large Attendance.

A few minutes after 10 A. M., yesterday, His Honor, Judge Seymour, opened the U. S. Court in the Craven county court room.

Solicitor C. B. Aycock, Marshal C. J. Carroll, Clerk George Green and quite a number of other United States officials, attorneys, with sees, etc., were present.

The jury was impanelled as follows: T. H. Mallison, foreman; A. R. Dennison, Isaac Brock, W. C. Fields, P. J. Lee, col., Enoch Lane, A. J. Smith, John Patrick, H. A. Latham, R. P. Williams, B. Sweet, Thos. Green, A. E. Wadsworth, F. F. Cherry, Boston Men, col., Richard Hardy, A. G. Day, J. M. White.

The grand jury being impanelled, the Judge charged them generally as to the law, warned them against malicious prosecutions and professional witness; told them it was particularly the duty of officers to see that the law was executed etc. He further explained that in his court, the criminal part of which they had to look after, there were no "common law" offenses, they being all statutory as far as they were concerned.

This through with, Mr. Samuel Harrell, a police officer of Kinston, was put in charge of the grand jury.

Then commenced the calling of the other jurors and witnesses in the different cases set for trial, during which time His Honor descended from the bench and had a few minutes smiling conversation with "Charlie," "Jul," and Post-Office Inspector, Captain Van. Conard. The Judge wore a yellow rose in his lapel on the bench, and a silk lever when court adjourned.

"Jul" wore no flowers, but outside the wrig of authority was as heavy as his Honor, while "Charlie" wore the same bland expression he had on in the campaign of 1892.

The docket was called and all the cases were disposed of in short order.

The case not disposed of was the one in which the counsel for the defendant had not yet arrived, but would be in during the day—that "he walked away, and had to walk back." His Honor corrected this with the remark, "You mean to say he RAN away, and WALKS back."

At 11:10 A. M. the court adjourned to 3 P. M. to give the grand jury time to bring in new business.

The following are the cases that came up:

U. S. vs. A. B. Hawkins. Continued for payment of costs to October term 1894.

U. S. vs. J. O. Hawkins. Continued for payment of costs to October term, 1894.

U. S. vs. Frank Lewis. Retaining liquor without having paid the special tax. Jury trial. Verdict guilty. Thirty days imprisonment in jail.

U. S. vs. Geo. D. Bowdler. Opinion reserved.

U. S. vs. A. E. Harper. Dismissed. Sci-Fa. Defaulting jury.

U. S. vs. C. S. Hewitt. Dismissed. Sci-Fa. Defaulting jury.

U. S. vs. Joseph Turnage. Dismissed. Sci-Fa. Defaulting jury.

U. S. vs. Frank Leost. J. H. Uzzell and Jesse Howard. Sci-Fa. Judgment, pay cost.

U. S. vs. J. P. Morris. Submits. Judgment, Obscene mail. One penny and cost.

U. S. vs. G. D. Swaine. Judgment guilty. Retaining liquors.

Court adjourned to 10 o'clock this morning.

EAST CAROLINA DISPATCH LINE.

Important to Truck Shippers.

NOFOLK, VA., April 19th, 1894.

GEORGE HEDDMAN, Esq., Agent, New Berne, N. C.

Dear Sir:—Your letter is received and I note what you say about the representations being made at New Berne, that delivery of truck at Jersey City will result in increased cost to shippers.

In that connection I am glad to inform you that immediately following the visit of the delegation of your truck growers to Jersey City and New York to inspect the facilities of the respective terminal lines, a similar visit was made by the President, Vice President and Executive Committee of the Truck Farmers Association of Charleston, S. C., for the purpose of satisfying themselves about the delivery of truck by the Penn Rail Road at Jersey City.

They were shown over the same territory covered by our friends when they were there, and also had an opportunity of conferring with some of the principal commission merchants. When returning home they said they were satisfied that their interests in New York would be best protected by the Penn Rail Road and they should not only patronize the all rail line but would use their influence to have every member of their association do the same.

All of the party were unanimous in the opinion that Bay Street, Jersey City, is to be the great market for truck at New York.

Many of the commission men have openly declared that there will be no carriage of satisfying themselves about the truck from Jersey City and shippers will have no difficulty in having their produce handled more advantageously at Jersey City, than it ever has been at any of the New York piers.

Very truly yours,

H. C. HEDDMAN, G. F. & P. A.

The above letter explains itself—our deliveries at Jersey City will be much earlier than heretofore. Our steamers sail from New Berne daily (except Sundays). Freight received up to 4 p. m. on days of sailing. GEO. HEDDMAN, Agent.

NIGHT-SEEING SENIORS.

Good for Greensboro girls—Twenty on a Trip—Wending Their Way to Washington to see the Nights of the Capitol City.

Rev. Dr. F. L. Reid, the wide-awake President of Greensboro Female college, leaves Greensboro this morning with his senior class to visit Washington City for the purpose of showing the class all the sights worth seeing in the Capitol City of this great nation.

They will visit the educational and scientific institutions of the city, together with congress and all the public buildings. Arrangements have been made to give them special advantages for sight seeing and the trip will be genuine enjoyed by the happy party of twenty which leaves here this morning. This is a wise thing in Dr. Reid, who is always on the lookout for anything good for his pupils or patrons.

The senior class of Greensboro Female college is composed of twenty bright, beautiful young ladies, and they will be greatly admired and make a good impression for the college wherever they go.

Of all the fool disputes those that occur on religion are the most useless; they convince nobody and prove nothing, except that man should control his propensity to dispute.

Build Him Up

Mr. J. B. Lewis, of Atlanta, Ga., had severe dyspepsia. Physicians and all other remedies failed to cure him. He tried Tyner's Dyspepsia Remedy, and afterwards recommended it as the best dyspepsia remedy ever discovered. I have gained flesh since using it I voluntarily recommend it to all sufferers with stomach troubles." For sale by druggists at 50c per bottle.

WHAT ARE WE COMING TO?

Is Cleveland's administration a failure? This is what the people are asking now. Is it true? Has he deceived them? If so this is a fearful responsibility, and most grievously must he answer for it. Has he betrayed the sacred trust reposed in him by the people? These are solemn, forcible words, full and pregnant with meaning. In the great financial stress that has racked this country to and fro like a huge earthquake thousands have gone under never to rise again. Who is to blame? Who is to blame for the terrific strife that is now being waged in behalf of good times, the liberties of the people and the prosperity of the country? Is it Cleveland? Is it the great democratic party of the country? And must the fact ever stare us in the face and like Banquo's ghost will it not "down at our heels" "Although Cleveland may prove a failure and some of his appointments too, and all things may fail, but Big Ike will never, and the people and the country are safe as long as he can buy goods at 40, 50 and 67 1/2-cents, on the dollar and sell them at reasonable and living prices? Big Ike is the people's friend. He never deceives them. He offers no alluring hopes that turn to ashes on the lips like dead sea fruit. "He makes no promises to the ear and then breaks them to the heart," but he marches straight on and up to the performance of duty knowing that duty alone is life's highest and best endeavor, therefore he is a public benefactor because he places goods within the reach of all at merely nominal prices, thereby enabling both others and himself to live. He has ever been the people's friend, financially, and he will be remembered by them long after impositions and discerners have been forgotten, because he will be remembered for the good that he has done, knowing that "The good that men do lives after them. In conclusion as Big Ike has ever faithfully performed his duty to the people. He believes that they will do their duty to him and continue to patronize him in the future as in the past. Then will many hearts be made happy; and this political night more that has so long terrorized the people will be swept aside into the allusion's grave to be remembered no more forever. Permit Big Ike to make his political bow to the people, with the assurance that he is ever the people's friend.
