COMMITTED SUICIDE.

C H. Fletcher, Bar-keeper, Ends His Life With Morphine.

C. H. Fletcher, who moved to New Berne from Middleton, flyde county, a few months ago and bought out the barroom business of B. H. Scott, died Wed-

The previous day the deceased attended the picnic at Vanceboro, came home in the afternoon, became intoxicated and ing natural as life, and was at work on about midnight took the morphine which the larger one, which measures full eleven ended his life. He had been dissipated feet and is estimated by Mr. Moniton to before. No cause is so far known for H5c clerk, Mr. Jeff Ruff, who slept in the store with him made the following statement:

"About 12 o'clock in the night I was Fletcher why he did not close the duors, that trade was dull and he would get no more money. After he close to be came A Nice lot of small hams and shoulders back in the room and took a seat on the sofa. I told him to come in and go to

He said "If I can to bell I can't sleep Jeff, if any thing was to happen to me what would you do with my stuff :" told him I would send it to his sister, and asked if he had any notion of dying. He replied he 'might happen to drop off."

"I laid down in another room and wen o sleep. About 3 a. m. I was again drawer, looked over the counter and saw Fletcher. Went to him, got him by the arm and tried to wake him, but could not. I then nut on my clathes, went on and woke up John Wright and told him I believed Fletcher was dying. John said Smith Shops, Reusonable prices and he reckoned he had the "drunken horrors. Soon after Mr. Jam Manwell came in who said he thought he was drunk.

> "Behind the counter, I picked up a label off a morphine bottle. After twee looking for the battle it was found in the left vest pocket. There were some foureen grains missing in the yeal,

"I sent for Dr. Primrose who arrived about five o'clock and worked on him 'till eight when he shed."

Around the W. N. and N. Depot.

The W. N. & N. Railroad side track which runs up to the depot is being changeo so as to make it longer. This is being done by making it begin at Graves street instead of below there. As the track runs clear on to the river, this will make room for a fairly long train to stand upon it.

As soon as the work on this track is completed, the side track to the turntable and the short tracks from that to the round house will be constructed.

The railroad authorities are also having taken from a bed through which the much. road passes near Polloksville. This, as it and durable.
