A freight train was wrecked in a queer manner in Raleigh Friday. The train was coming to the city down a grade and when near the penitentiary it became uncoupled and separated into two sections.

The engineer not knowing this kept on at a rapid rate and slowed up as he got into the city. Then the other section came on swiftly down the heavy grade and crashed into the rear of the forward one.

ADVERTISEMENTS IN NEWS.

What is Advertising and What is News? The Way to Determine About Items that are on the Dividing Line

We have recently received criticisms to the effect that in giving mention of patients at Johns Hopkins Hospital and similar distant institutions we are giving them free the best kind of advertisement they could have, to the disadvantage of home physicians just as skillful and North Carolina institutions of like character just as thoroughly equipped though not on as large a scale as those in greater centers of population. We have this to say: In many cases like those spoken of the parties have wide circles of friends, good subscribers to the paper, who are anxious to know how their afflicted ones are getting on, and in no way can they all obtain the information so readily as by the newspaper statement, and to keep back the news when we have it would not even be justice to them.

Every one knows that the JOURNAL is a home paper and works as strongly for home as it is possible for a paper to do under the circumstances, but it should be at the same time a news paper and while we admit that such mention is a fine advertisement for the institution receiving it we will never withhold items which contain genuine news for fear that some individual firm, institution or organization, abroad or at home, will receive benefit for which it does not pay. The point is that the matter, though it really is of private interest and calculated to do private benefit, is also of public interest and for the public benefit.

It is indeed a difficult matter sometimes to correctly discriminate between what is news and what is advertising; a journalist has to use his judgment in the matter and he cannot in justice to either himself or patrons hold back news items in his possession even should there be a private benefit thereby.

But there is another phase of the matter: If the matter in question is one in which only those who receive the benefit are interested it is then purely an advertisement, no matter how large the number interested may be, and even where it is a matter in which the public, or a large portion of it is interested, the moment the news part is exhausted everything that follows, whether a lengthening of the article in the same issue or subsequent references, (unless something new develops) is advertisement, pure and simple, and belongs to be dealt with accordingly.

The Free Will Baptist Church During the series of meetings just held in the Free Will Baptist church the building was filled nightly to its utmost capacity even to the space in the aisle being occupied, and as a rule there would still be quite a number around the door unable to gain admission.

This condition of affairs shows the wisdom of that denomination in erecting their house of worship in the western part of the city which other churches have greatly neglected in the selection of building sites. The field for work in that direction has for quite a time been open, quite a number live in the western part and the population near by is increasing. It is well that a permanent establishment has been effected.

Eight converted during the revival will be baptized this afternoon at the foot of Broad street.

Public Meeting—Vance Memorial Association.

The Central Committee of the Vance Memorial Association at Raleigh have addressed a circular letter to the undersigned, requesting that a County Association be formed and committees be appointed in each township to collect funds for the proposed statue to the lamented "Senator Vance." Pursuant to the request, and in furtherance of the object, we hereby most respectfully request the citizens of Craven county, to assemble at the Court House, on Wednesday the 10th day of May, inst, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of forming a Vance Memorial Association, and appointing in each township of the county, a committee to collect funds for the statue.

The ladies are cordially invited to attend and participate in the meeting. It is hoped that each Township will be represented at the meeting by as many as can conveniently attend.

Coxey on Trial.

The trial of Coxey, Brown and Jones, was commenced in the Police Court of Washington on Friday on the charge of "Violating the United States Statutes in unlawfully displaying a banner or device in the Capitol grounds, and in breaking shrubs and plants there."

Several of the Populist Senators and Congressmen were present. The court denied the motion to quash proceedings; a jury was impaneled and the case continued to 10 a. m. Saturday. Representative Pence, of Colorado, notified the court that he would be counsel for Coxey.

Coxey says the newspapers made his army a failure, and Mr. Cleveland is quoted as having said that Coxey's army was entirely newspaper made, both tributes to the power of the press.

CULLED ITEMS OF NEWS.

Ex-President Harrison declares that he does not intend to again be a Presidential candidate.

A meeting of the Populists in Orange county has been called for the purpose of trying to bring about a fusion with the Republicans in that county.

The Senate on Friday was engaged in discussion of the Tariff bill. In the House the River and Harbor Appropriation bill was passed.

The late news from Washington is that a tariff bill has been agreed on. What it is, and who has agreed on it, remains for future development.

A Georgia court, sitting at Atlanta has decided that the neck-and-the-slot machines were illegal. Solicitor general Erzer says they are a kind of gambling machine, and proposes to go for them.

The Wake Forest college Athlete defeated the Richmond college "Spider" ball team by a score of four to six at Richmond, Va., on Friday.

Nat. Poyntz and Olin T. Poyntz, the President and Cashier of the suspended First National Bank at Orlando, Fla., have been indicted in the United States court sitting at Jacksonville, for embezzlement and making false returns.

Gen. Kelly's command army at DeMoines, Ia., is much disheartened. Provisions are scarce with them, and every effort to get transportation has failed. Deserters are frequent, and increasing.

There was a serious riot at the Coke Works of the McClure Coke company near S. Ashby, Va. Three men were killed by superintendent White, and he and his book-keeper, Edwin Ridd, are expected to die. Several others were seriously wounded.

If Benjamin Harrison could treat his friends as well as he can speak to a miscellaneous audience he would be the most popular man in America; but he cannot. He lacks that mysterious something, which for want of a better name is called "personal magnetism."
