Mr. John Stanly Thomas' sermon at Centenary M. E. Church Sunday morning on "Be not Weary in Well Doing," is warmly complimented by the hearers. At night the congregation of that church were favored with a fine s ruion from Presiding Elder F D. Swindell.

John Brock of Wilmington, the wife slayer was found guilty of murder in the second degree. The testimony of his six year old son was the main evidence against him. A motion for a new trial statute for this crime is not less than two nor more than twenty years imprisonment in the State penitentiary.

The Pension Agent Trial.

The case against Fred Douglass, col., pension agent, in which he is accused of charging more than the law allows for services tendered, was commenced before E. G. Hill U. S. Commissioner, yesterday evening.

The testimony was taken and part of the argument heard. Then the case was postponed until ten o'clock this morning. District Attorney C. B. Aycock is present to prosecute. He is registered at Hotel Albert

A Bad Fall.

Mr. R. P. Montague who had a severe fall at the Congdon mill Saturday, afternoon, is still suffering considerably, both in pain and soreness all through his body from the effects

Mr. Montague had the accident happen to him by his trying to free a plank, which had been obstructed and caught in Closing Exercises of Jacksonville High its passage along the conveyor from the mill to the dry-kiln. Another plank came along behind and when the end of the moving plank came up against the end of the one that was caught it caused the two to bulge upward at the point of contact and Mr. Montague, who was then leaning over them, was raised several feet in the air and dropped to the ground, rendering hun unconscious several minutes. He struck on sawdust e'se the fall would, no doubt, have been fatal, as the conveyor on which he was standing is twenty feet high and his being thrown upward, must have made him take a fall of not less than twenty-
