THE DANGER OF DELAY.

We have been good naturedly twitted for our endorsement of "the Senate tariff bill." In truth we bave not endorsed it; ended we don't know what it is. We applauded Gorman's speech, or at least that part of it which promised the speedy passage of a tariff bill that would relieve the political situation and bring prosperity, happiness and security to the peo-

We have no patience with protection for the sake of protection, but we believe in a tariff that will afford sufficient revenue for the economical administration of the government, and if incidental protection is given to American indastries, while living is made cheaper for the masses, it will not occasion as the slightest uneasi-

That which gives us painful concern now is the danger of delay. The bill now before the senate of which Mr. Gorman is the champion is infinitely better than the McKin ley law which paralizes trade and inflects unfold burdens upon the people.

From its enactment to the present moment the McKinley tariff has been a failure as a revenue meas-has been a steady falling off in the revenue from customs. The borrowing of fifty millions in gold has only served as a temperary relief of the Treasury, and unless the tariff laws are change the issuing of bonds must go on ad infi-

Congress should pass the tariff gether with his legal experiences, property of every kind owned by the city were to be turned to account for the delight of thousands in the years to delight of thousands in the years to come. Dickens (1812-70) was sent to enne, but the argument is exhausted and the time for action has come. The passage of the !bill would lead to instant movement in merchandise that now lies to bond in Government warehouses, to the starting up of manufactories and commercial activity, to the consequent relief of financial presure at Washington and of industrial stagnation throughout the Union.

bill will pass the Senate. To delay it beyond the beginning of the fiscal year will subserve no partisan hundreds of pounds in this way advantage, but would be of the gravest detriment to the coun-

Oak Ridge Pavilies in Connection With Atlantic Hotel-The Revival Growing in Interest, The refreshing shower of week did incalculable good. Mr. and Mrs. Buck Morton bave the sympathy of our people in the loss of their babe which died San-

Mr. Ed. Taylor paid a visit to his old home in Greene County last

We learn that the A lantie Hotel has leased the Oak Ridge Pavillion from Mr. J. J. Royall for the com ing season.

At the close of his school Friday last Prof. H. S. Lee gave his pupils a nice entertainment which they njoyed very much.

The revival which commenced Sunday last at the Methodist church has grown in int cest daily, so much so that it has been necessary to move to the A sembly Hall to accomodate the large congrega tions. The meeting has been merged into a union revival and the pastor of our city churches assisted by Rev. Messrs. Glenn, Gattis and Greening, are using their utmost endeavors to advance the cause of Christ There are many seekers after the truth and we trust that much and lasting good may be accomplished.

ENGLISH NOVELISTS.

School Days of the Great Writers of Fic tion-Thuckeray a Cambridge Man-Defoe Had Only the Rudlments-

Neither Oxford nor Cambridge is strong in fiction, but Cambridge possesses two names of the first rank. Sterne and Thackeray. The majority of our great novelists graduated in the rougher school of the world, and probably acquired there a better equipment for their work than any miversity could give them. Defoe (1661-1731) received the rudinents of education at an academy at Newington Green, and was successively rebel, merchant, manufacurer, satirist in verse, bankrupt, political secretary, pamphleteer, and journalist, before he wrote, at the age of sixty, the immortal "Robinson Crusoe." Fielding (1707-1754) was at Eton until eighteen, then traveled for a short time, and began of New Berne Water Company from Jao. his literary career as a writer for F. Zebley, by deed recorded in the office the stage, living a Bohemian sort of of the Register of Doeds of Craven coun life; and was magistrate at Bow whereon is situate the power house, stand
