

THE DAILY JOURNAL.

VOL. XIII--NO. 47.

NEW BERNE, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MAY 30, 1894

PRICE 5 CENTS

BUSINESS LOCALS.

FOR extra fine veal, beef, and lamb go to SAM'L COHN & SON today.

TO WHOM it may concern:—All persons that have had accounts standing on my books for one year and over, I hereby notify you that in thirty days from date if not settled I will advertise the same by placing them in a large glass frame and hang it out in front of my place of business every day, so that it can be seen who wears clothes and don't pay for these.

R. SAWYER,
Fashionable Tailor.

MONEY saved is money made. Buy your medicines at Mace's Drug Store. You will save money on every purchase. Quality guaranteed. A trial will convince you.

C. E. SLOVER.

IF you owe me please pay me.

C. E. SLOVER.

MAC HINE and hand made hick in any quantity for sale.

CHAS. REIZENSTEIN.

WHEN Barbers used according to directions, a fluff of the labor and the cost of soap or hair washing is saved. Samples free at J. P. Taylor's.

TRY Gaskill's Cream Drinks, they are fine. Nothing but pure cream used in making these. Orange, Pineapple, Vanilla, Strawberry, Raspberry and Lemon. Also Ice Cream Soda.

I HAVE just received a few of Spring and Summer samples from Wana-maker & Brown, Philadelphia, and samples of silk vests. They are cheap as the others are hard. Come and look at them. Jaron Hartsfield, with J. B. Holland & Co., No. 13 Pollock St.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

Howari.
Sam'l Cohn & Son. Fine veal.
J. J. Disoway & Co.—Hose Reel.
R. Sawyer—To Whom it may Concern.

Cucumbers and squashes have made their appearance in New Berne.

Gold mine has ripe huckleberries, and the Arns wants to know if Sampson county can beat it.

We notice the grocery merchants of Wilmington give their clerks a half holiday every Friday, closing at 1 p. m.

The A. & N. C. railroad depot is receiving a thorough repainting including even the roof.

Rabbi S. Rosenbergh has been elected rabbi of the Jewish congregation of New Berne for the ensuing twelve months.

We have been shown some of the first potatoes of the season, raised by Mr. W. A. Barrington on his farm in No. 2 township.

Dr. Geo. Slover's residence will be one more good building for Union street. It is the third within a recent date, from the river, only one block away.

The river news has been quite muddy for several days. The waters are red with clay. This is the result of the heavy rains in the upper part of its course.

Mr. John C. Thomas found a young doe, about a year old, swimming in Trent river yesterday, and he with the assistance of Master Dave Hensley, ran her down and killed her.

A base ball game was played at the Fair grounds yesterday between the Superiors and Capt. Royner Jones' nine. The Superiors won by a score of 20 to 23.

The banks of the city will begin the usual early closing for the summer months beginning June 1st. From that time on till October 1st, they will open at 10 a. m. and close at 2 p. m.

About two hundred and fifty barrels of Irish potatoes went off on the steamer New Berne of the N. C. & W. Line yesterday. There were quantities of beans and cabbages on the same boat.

To-day is Federal memorial day; four extra cars were attached to the A. & N. C. train last night to bring up those from below who wish to attend the exercises that will be held.

One lone, solitary shad, a stray hunk, was in market yesterday. He will no doubt be the last of the season as the regular run of shad ceased two or three weeks ago.

Capt. Caffee, mate of the steamer New Berne, is erecting a commodious residence on Broad street next to that of his father-in-law, Mr. H. G. Stauff. Mr. Geo. Broadstreet is building one near the foot of George street.

The case of Fred Douglass, col., for exacting two much pay for practice as United States pension agent was finished before E. G. Hill, Esq., yesterday. The defendant was bound over to next term of United States court in the sum of $150.

Two plating machines belonging to the Baanight mill which was burned in March of last year, have been sold to Messrs. Lynn Bros. of Selma, N. C., who were recently burned out. They were taken to the railroad yesterday, for shipment.

The work of leveling the ridge on the streets left by laying the pipe in the water works construction is expected to be finished to-morrow. The removed dirt has been used in filling in where needed and several side-walks have been built up to good height with it. These side-walks ought now to be curbed and covered with shell mull to make the work permanent.

Superior Court.

The following cases were tried in court Tuesday:

State vs W. J. Pitts; assault with deadly weapon; guilty.

State vs Jabe Jasper, col. F. & A.; not guilty.

State vs Arthur Rice, larceny; guilty. Judgment not pronounced.

Joe Burney, col., A. & B.; guilty. Judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

State vs Frank Collins, col., and Henrietta Collins, col., F. & A.; guilty. Judgment suspended upon payment of cost.

Oliver Small, col., and Babe Green, col., F. & A.; guilty. Suspended upon payment of cost.

The Annual Address.

There was a large crowd out at the Academy last night to hear Gen'l. Callen A. Battle's address at the closing exercises of the Collegiate Institute.

After some good music on the piano by three young ladies, Misses Vivia Wood, Theresa Roberts and Nina Baughit, music students of Miss Olla Ferber, Prof. Hodges introduced the General, who from the commencing sentence, poured out most apt and eloquent, in Chesterfieldian style peculiar to himself, most aptly described by the remark that it was "the combined nectar and ambrosia of oratory."

Frequent applause attested the favor with which his tributes to woman, and to Vance and North Carolina, were received. At his conclusion, Prof. Hodges presented him in behalf of the ladies with a magnificent bouquet in a nest and in few speech. The General accepted in few graceful remarks, and the exercises closed till this evening at 8 p. m., when the contest for prizes between students will take place.

Coming and Going

Messrs. Wm. and Jacob Reizenstein, of New York are visiting their brother Mr. Chas. Reizenstein.

Mr. Geo. Green and family left to spend about a week on their farm near Jasper.

Miss Lillie Rodman, of Washington, N. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. O. H. Guion, also Miss Olla Cowper, of Raleigh.

Miss Mary Bryan, who has charge of the telegraph office at New Berne, returned last night from a visit to relatives at Halifax, and Mr. W. M. Webb, of Morehead, who has filled her position in the office, while Miss Bryan was away, left for his home.

Mr. John Chadwick, who spent three years in New Berne clerking for Messrs. Roberts Bros., and who left here about six years ago and has since then been in Savannah, Ga., the greater portion of his time, spent Tuesday in the city enroute to his old home in Beaufort and continued his journey there last night. He expects to remain there during the summer.

The Revenue Cutter Service.

The officers of the Revenue Cutter Winona, and we judge all others in the United States Revenue Marine Service, are watching intently for the action of Congress upon a bill to promote the efficiency of the Revenue cutter service. This object is to be accomplished by compelling the retirement from office of all those who from age have been permitted to cease active work. Such officers are on three fourths pay, but render no service, and yet under the present law continue to hold the position they were in when they became incapacitated. And as the law limits the number of officers this prevents the advancement of those actively engaged in the service and extends downward to the lower offices and keeps vacant places from being filled by new men.

The bill which it is sought to have Congress pass allows the three-fourths pay to the incapacitated officers to continue but does not any longer count them as in the service. This will have opportunity or every office to be filled with a man on active duty.

The chances for the passage of the bill are considered quite favorable.

Our cutter, the Winona, is now two officers (the 2d and 3d Lieutenants) short on account of the state of affairs spoken of above.

We tender thanks to the Salem Female Academy for an invitation to its commencement exercises this week. This is one of the oldest and best schools in the country, fitting its pupils for the practical as well as the aesthetic purposes of life.

Rev. D. H. Petree is spending this week preaching at Jacksonville. The meetings were begun Sunday night by Mr. B. H. Melton, an inebriate and promising Theological student, who has but one more year to spend at the Bible college of Kentucky, before completing his course.

The horse used by the mail driver between Stone wall and other points in Pamlico county, was drowned one day last week in Bay river. A halt had been made for another vehicle to pass and the horse becoming frightened jumped overboard. The cart caught on the bridge and hung there with the horse's head under the water. The driver jumped over to try to free the horse and came near being pushed under and drowned himself. The horse belonged to a widow lady, and the people made up $60 towards buying her another.

A Large Alligator Captured Alive.

A live alligator ten feet and four inches in length was brought to the city yesterday. He was captured six and a half miles above the city, at the mouth of Haywood's creek, Trent river, Monday afternoon by Capt. Alf Tillman and two colored men who were fishing with a drag net. When they felt the alligator in the net they thought they had a sturgeon.

The alligator was with difficulty pulled upon shore, made secure by three ropes around his body, kept there all night and then towed like a log behind the boat to the city yesterday.

He was gotten upon by a net wharf and exhibited to the public along for a short time, then put in a cage again and taken up to Mr. D. H. Hensley's and placed in a portion of the river, where we understand he will be shown for a small admission fee.

It is hoped that he will live, and be shown just as he is at the next Fair on alligator of that size, they would be a good show.

Mr. John C. Thomas, Jr., about six feet six years ago he shot and killed an eleven foot crocodile in the same creek.

Mr. Thomas says they may be found in Stamans creek also, but that they are most abundant in Curlew Lake, at which we recently gave a report upon and account of a hunt on it. He has known three alligators to be killed at the latter place in one hunt by a single sportsman.

To Utilize the Water Works

Fifty or twenty of our citizens are now taking water from the water works, and as fast as the work can be done many of others will follow suit. Two have been put in running in their yards, Mr. F. C. Roberts and Mr. P. H. Pollock.

Several are preparing to put in water meters, Messrs. John Dunn, Nixon and McSoley, Ha Khan, A. Willett, and others to run, fly fans, elevators, and machinery.

The work of connecting Mr. C. M. Dockland's residence with the water works was begun yesterday. The house, one of the new ones, was well equipped for the water service, and but few repairs to be done to have it in operation.

The W. N. & N. depot is well supplied with water throughout for drinking purposes, for baths and for sprinkling and fire extinguishing.

HAPPENINGS OF THE DAY.

The Hotel Burton, Danville, Va., has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors. Assets are claimed to be nearly double the liabilities.

The Populists of the 11th District have called a convention to nominate a candidate for Congress. This is undoubtedly to R. Howell Poston, who has fathered himself he would get that vote.

At Grapple creek, Colorado, on Sunday there was a fight between a sheriff's force and rioting miners in which several men were killed and many wounded. The Governor of the State has issued a proclamation calling out the troops to assist the Civil authorities.

The papers say that Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cleveland will celebrate the 8th anniversary of their marriage by going fishing together on June 24th. For a wonder they do not say whether the children will go or what sort of bits they will wear.

The commencement season is in full blast, and the papers tell of big crowds and some splendid orations, while others give us the periodical account of sophomore display and the loveliness of the sweet girl graduates.

Terre Haute and Pan, Ill., are in a state of great excitement. A mob of 700 strikers from Indiana have taken possession of a Big Four train, and compelled the railroad to carry them. The military are guarding the mines and serious trouble appears imminent.

Col. J. Hampton Hoge of Danoke, Va., who was appointed Consul to Awog, China, but who got on such a jag, he was recalled before he had proceeded further than San Francisco, got on another jag on Saturday and had a fist fight with Chas. L. Stewart of the Raleigh Evening World. Nobody hurt, though the atmosphere had a lurid appearance and a sulphurous odor.

In the Pollard Breckenridge case, Breckenridge lost his right of appeal granted by the court, by reason of not filing his bill of exceptions in the time specified by the court. So the verdict of the jury giving Miss Pollard $15,000 damages stands ready for execution. An execution for the verdict of the people of his Congressional district will issue in November.

Senator Caffery told the investigating committee some interesting news about private conferences held between Senators and Mr. Havemeyer, President of the sugar trust. They met at the private residence of Senator Brice, and he, Gorman and Hill were present, together with, as Mr. Caffery says, "other gentlemen interested in sugar," who are designated in Washington parlance as "the sweet set."

The Light House appointments in North Carolina are giving considerable dissatisfaction. Our Congressmen whom charged with neglect of duty in the matter, put the blame on Collector of Customs Reman, of Wilmington, who in turn transfers it to the Light House board. In the first congressional district, which is a sea coast one, this matter enters largely in politics, and present conditions are not favorable to the success of Democracy in the coming election.

New York Truck Quotations by Wire.

Messrs. Palmer Hivenburg & Co., of New York, telegraphed the following quotations for that city last night.

Strawberries, 4 @ 10c; Cabbage, 75c @ $1.25; Beans, wax, $1.00 @ $1.25; green, $1.25 @ $1.75.

WILL MOVE TO NEW BERNE.

Messrs. Hoge, of Salem, and Wm. Dunn of New Berne, to Run a Poultry and Pet Animal Farm in the Suburbs.

It is now fully decided that Mr. F. E. Hoge, of Salem, N. C., the noted breeder of fancy poultry and pet animals, is to move to New Berne. He will reside and have his poultry and pet animal farm on a portion of the truck farm of Mr. Wm. Dunn upon the banks of Trent river, not beyond the city limits. Mr. Dunn will have a half interest in the business. The firm's name will be F. E. Hoge & Co.

A cottage will be erected for Mr. Hoge's residence, near where the buildings now on the farm stand, and six acres adjacent will be divided by wire cloth into breeding pens 25x150 feet. The greater number of these pens will run outward 150 feet on each side of a central avenue but some will be upon a cross avenue and be at right angles with the others. The arrangement is of very tasty one. Everything will be constructed in the very best manner possible and in the very best style.

Mr. Hoge has, in the past, had quite a few and varied stock of the choicest, rare breeds of poultry, pheasants, etc., useful breeds of swine and pet animal, in great variety, and other pets. He and Mr. Dunn intend to keep not only all that Mr. Hoge has bred heretofore, but to add other breeds to make their business well nigh a complete one in its line.

The location of the farm is one of the best for the business. Mr. Dunn is a smart, sensible business man who has always had a success of what he has undertaken and Mr. Hoge is a breeder of long experience, a good business man and a clever gentleman. We look for much but great success to the farm.

THE NATIONAL CEMETERY.

At New Berne, N. C., on Memorial Day, 1894.

This Federal government of the United States keeps "watch and ward" over employments National Cemeteries, one of which is in the City of Mexico, and the others are distributed among twenty-five states of the Federal Union. There are also plots in many cities and country cemeteries where soldiers killed during the civil war, which are not regarded as National Cemeteries. That at Mexico comprises only a small area, about two acres, and contains the bodies of rather less than five hundred soldiers who fell in the Mexican war.

Among those established in the different portions of the national domain, there is great diversity in respect of the number located in the several states, in respect of area, method of acquiring title, cost, and number of interments. Virginia, the great battle ground of the civil war, has the largest number, thirteen. Tennessee has seven, Kentucky has six, and so on down to North Carolina, which has four—in addition to the one named at the head of this article, one at Wilmington, one at Raleigh, and one at Salisbury.

The largest Cemetery is at Arlington, near Washington. It originally comprised two hundred acres, but has recently been enlarged to an area of seven hundred. It contains more than sixteen thousand bodies, and the number is being constantly increased. Next in size to it is that at Chattanooga, Tenn., having an area of seven hundred acres, then that at Nashville, of six hundred acres, Andersonville, Ga., of forty three, and Vicksburg, Miss., forty. The last four have had an aggregate of sixty thousand interments, the number in each being quite nearly equal. From these large areas they diminish to small plots, there being more than twenty of less than three acres each, seven of about one acre each, and so down to Balls Bluff, Va., which is the smallest, one containing only an area of 250 square yards, or about one eighteenth of an acre. This little field of 154 graves is a regularly constituted National Cemetery and is subject to all the rules and regulations.

The title was acquired in most cases by purchase, but also in several other ways. In numerous instances the cemeteries were established upon military reservations. That at Beaufort, N. C., containing of sixty-four acres, was laid off at a lot size for seventy-five dollars. That at Marietta, Ga., containing twenty five acres was the gift of a loyal citizen. The city of New Orleans donated the grounds (13 acres) at Chalmette, La., and the city authorities of Mobile, the three acre plot at that place. The site of the National Cemetery at Raleigh was donated by the state of North Carolina.

The price paid was quite variable. The highest relative cost was for a half acre at Crown Hill, Ind., being $5,000. One acre at Staunton, Va., cost $900. Ten acres at Knoxville, Tenn., cost $5,000. Five acres at Wilmington cost $2,000, and seven acres at Salisbury $650. In most cases the price was from $150 to $200 per acre, but in a few instances less than $100.

The number of interments is in no regular proportion to the areas of the

"Tis not the clothes which make the man, but,"

Hats Clothes and Shoes civilized men can not do without. We have got to have them. Now we want your trade on them.

When you need anything in this line see us. We don't expect to suit every body and we do not get mad if you don't buy but we think we can come as near suiting the majority as any one in New Berne. We are constantly receiving new goods. New Collars, Cuffs, and Ties, Patent leather Pumps, &c.

J. M. HOWARD.

commences. The sixty four acre cemetery at Nashville, Tenn., and that of 100 acres at Vicksburg, Miss., contain a most exactly the same number, being about 16,900 each, while the plot of seven acres at Salisbury in the State contains over 12,000. The number of large number is that there are estimated for prisoners, and in the same way nearly all of the other cemeteries that is located in the different States of every section of the country. The plot at Beaufort, N. C., was used for the purpose of interment for at Balls Bluff of interments, but with a slight exception, it was not used for the purpose.

The whole number of graves in the National Cemeteries of the United States exceeds 122,000. Of these, 100,000 are in North Carolina, 18,000 in Virginia, and 4,000 in Tennessee.

Federal Phenomenon.

Samuel Hoge, New York City, Tuesday night made a most interesting and profitable visit to the city. He is a well known breeder of fancy poultry and pet animals, and he is now fully decided that he is to move to New Berne. He will reside and have his poultry and pet animal farm on a portion of the truck farm of Mr. Wm. Dunn upon the banks of Trent river, not beyond the city limits. Mr. Dunn will have a half interest in the business. The firm's name will be F. E. Hoge & Co.

A cottage will be erected for Mr. Hoge's residence, near where the buildings now on the farm stand, and six acres adjacent will be divided by wire cloth into breeding pens 25x150 feet. The greater number of these pens will run outward 150 feet on each side of a central avenue but some will be upon a cross avenue and be at right angles with the others. The arrangement is of very tasty one. Everything will be constructed in the very best manner possible and in the very best style.

Mr. Hoge has, in the past, had quite a few and varied stock of the choicest, rare breeds of poultry, pheasants, etc., useful breeds of swine and pet animal, in great variety, and other pets. He and Mr. Dunn intend to keep not only all that Mr. Hoge has bred heretofore, but to add other breeds to make their business well nigh a complete one in its line.

The location of the farm is one of the best for the business. Mr. Dunn is a smart, sensible business man who has always had a success of what he has undertaken and Mr. Hoge is a breeder of long experience, a good business man and a clever gentleman. We look for much but great success to the farm.

THE NATIONAL CEMETERY.

At New Berne, N. C., on Memorial Day, 1894.

This Federal government of the United States keeps "watch and ward" over employments National Cemeteries, one of which is in the City of Mexico, and the others are distributed among twenty-five states of the Federal Union. There are also plots in many cities and country cemeteries where soldiers killed during the civil war, which are not regarded as National Cemeteries. That at Mexico comprises only a small area, about two acres, and contains the bodies of rather less than five hundred soldiers who fell in the Mexican war.

Among those established in the different portions of the national domain, there is great diversity in respect of the number located in the several states, in respect of area, method of acquiring title, cost, and number of interments. Virginia, the great battle ground of the civil war, has the largest number, thirteen. Tennessee has seven, Kentucky has six, and so on down to North Carolina, which has four—in addition to the one named at the head of this article, one at Wilmington, one at Raleigh, and one at Salisbury.

The largest Cemetery is at Arlington, near Washington. It originally comprised two hundred acres, but has recently been enlarged to an area of seven hundred. It contains more than sixteen thousand bodies, and the number is being constantly increased. Next in size to it is that at Chattanooga, Tenn., having an area of seven hundred acres, then that at Nashville, of six hundred acres, Andersonville, Ga., of forty three, and Vicksburg, Miss., forty. The last four have had an aggregate of sixty thousand interments, the number in each being quite nearly equal. From these large areas they diminish to small plots, there being more than twenty of less than three acres each, seven of about one acre each, and so down to Balls Bluff, Va., which is the smallest, one containing only an area of 250 square yards, or about one eighteenth of an acre. This little field of 154 graves is a regularly constituted National Cemetery and is subject to all the rules and regulations.

The title was acquired in most cases by purchase, but also in several other ways. In numerous instances the cemeteries were established upon military reservations. That at Beaufort, N. C., containing of sixty-four acres, was laid off at a lot size for seventy-five dollars. That at Marietta, Ga., containing twenty five acres was the gift of a loyal citizen. The city of New Orleans donated the grounds (13 acres) at Chalmette, La., and the city authorities of Mobile, the three acre plot at that place. The site of the National Cemetery at Raleigh was donated by the state of North Carolina.

The price paid was quite variable. The highest relative cost was for a half acre at Crown Hill, Ind., being $5,000. One acre at Staunton, Va., cost $900. Ten acres at Knoxville, Tenn., cost $5,000. Five acres at Wilmington cost $2,000, and seven acres at Salisbury $650. In most cases the price was from $150 to $200 per acre, but in a few instances less than $100.

The number of interments is in no regular proportion to the areas of the

"Tis not the clothes which make the man, but,"

Hats Clothes and Shoes civilized men can not do without. We have got to have them. Now we want your trade on them.

When you need anything in this line see us. We don't expect to suit every body and we do not get mad if you don't buy but we think we can come as near suiting the majority as any one in New Berne. We are constantly receiving new goods. New Collars, Cuffs, and Ties, Patent leather Pumps, &c.

J. M. HOWARD.

commences. The sixty four acre cemetery at Nashville, Tenn., and that of 100 acres at Vicksburg, Miss., contain a most exactly the same number, being about 16,900 each, while the plot of seven acres at Salisbury in the State contains over 12,000. The number of large number is that there are estimated for prisoners, and in the same way nearly all of the other cemeteries that is located in the different States of every section of the country. The plot at Beaufort, N. C., was used for the purpose of interment for at Balls Bluff of interments, but with a slight exception, it was not used for the purpose.

The whole number of graves in the National Cemeteries of the United States exceeds 122,000. Of these, 100,000 are in North Carolina, 18,000 in Virginia, and 4,000 in Tennessee.

Federal Phenomenon.

Samuel Hoge, New York City, Tuesday night made a most interesting and profitable visit to the city. He is a well known breeder of fancy poultry and pet animals, and he is now fully decided that he is to move to New Berne. He will reside and have his poultry and pet animal farm on a portion of the truck farm of Mr. Wm. Dunn upon the banks of Trent river, not beyond the city limits. Mr. Dunn will have a half interest in the business. The firm's name will be F. E. Hoge & Co.

A cottage will be erected for Mr. Hoge's residence, near where the buildings now on the farm stand, and six acres adjacent will be divided by wire cloth into breeding pens 25x150 feet. The greater number of these pens will run outward 150 feet on each side of a central avenue but some will be upon a cross avenue and be at right angles with the others. The arrangement is of very tasty one. Everything will be constructed in the very best manner possible and in the very best style.

Mr. Hoge has, in the past, had quite a few and varied stock of the choicest, rare breeds of poultry, pheasants, etc., useful breeds of swine and pet animal, in great variety, and other pets. He and Mr. Dunn intend to keep not only all that Mr. Hoge has bred heretofore, but to add other breeds to make their business well nigh a complete one in its line.

The location of the farm is one of the best for the business. Mr. Dunn is a smart, sensible business man who has always had a success of what he has undertaken and Mr. Hoge is a breeder of long experience, a good business man and a clever gentleman. We look for much but great success to the farm.

THE NATIONAL CEMETERY.

At New Berne, N. C., on Memorial Day, 1894.

This Federal government of the United States keeps "watch and ward" over employments National Cemeteries, one of which is in the City of Mexico, and the others are distributed among twenty-five states of the Federal Union. There are also plots in many cities and country cemeteries where soldiers killed during the civil war, which are not regarded as National Cemeteries. That at Mexico comprises only a small area, about two acres, and contains the bodies of rather less than five hundred soldiers who fell in the Mexican war.

Among those established in the different portions of the national domain, there is great diversity in respect of the number located in the several states, in respect of area, method of acquiring title, cost, and number of interments. Virginia, the great battle ground of the civil war, has the largest number, thirteen. Tennessee has seven, Kentucky has six, and so on down to North Carolina, which has four—in addition to the one named at the head of this article, one at Wilmington, one at Raleigh, and one at Salisbury.

The largest Cemetery is at Arlington, near Washington. It originally comprised two hundred acres, but has recently been enlarged to an area of seven hundred. It contains more than sixteen thousand bodies, and the number is being constantly increased. Next in size to it is that at Chattanooga, Tenn., having an area of seven hundred acres, then that at Nashville, of six hundred acres, Andersonville, Ga., of forty three, and Vicksburg, Miss., forty. The last four have had an aggregate of sixty thousand interments, the number in each being quite nearly equal. From these large areas they diminish to small plots, there being more than twenty of less than three acres each, seven of about one acre each, and so down to Balls Bluff, Va., which is the smallest, one containing only an area of 250 square yards, or about one eighteenth of an acre. This little field of 154 graves is a regularly constituted National Cemetery and is subject to all the rules and regulations.

The title was acquired in most cases by purchase, but also in several other ways. In numerous instances the cemeteries were established upon military reservations. That at Beaufort, N. C., containing of sixty-four acres, was laid off at a lot size for seventy-five dollars. That at Marietta, Ga., containing twenty five acres was the gift of a loyal citizen. The city of New Orleans donated the grounds (13 acres) at Chalmette, La., and the city authorities of Mobile, the three acre plot at that place. The site of the National Cemetery at Raleigh was donated by the state of North Carolina.

commences. The sixty four acre cemetery at Nashville, Tenn., and that of 100 acres at Vicksburg, Miss., contain a most exactly the same number, being about 16,900 each, while the plot of seven acres at Salisbury in the State contains over 12,000. The number of large number is that there are estimated for prisoners, and in the same way nearly all of the other cemeteries that is located in the different States of every section of the country. The plot at Beaufort, N. C., was used for the purpose of interment for at Balls Bluff of interments, but with a slight exception, it was not used for the purpose.

The whole number of graves in the National Cemeteries of the United States exceeds 122,000. Of these, 100,000 are in North Carolina, 18,000 in Virginia, and 4,000 in Tennessee.

Federal Phenomenon.

Samuel Hoge, New York City, Tuesday night made a most interesting and profitable visit to the city. He is a well known breeder of fancy poultry and pet animals, and he is now fully decided that he is to move to New Berne. He will reside and have his poultry and pet animal farm on a portion of the truck farm of Mr. Wm. Dunn upon the banks of Trent river, not beyond the city limits. Mr. Dunn will have a half interest in the business. The firm's name will be F. E. Hoge & Co.

A cottage will be erected for Mr. Hoge's residence, near where the buildings now on the farm stand, and six acres adjacent will be divided by wire cloth into breeding pens 25x150 feet. The greater number of these pens will run outward 150 feet on each side of a central avenue but some will be upon a cross avenue and be at right angles with the others. The arrangement is of very tasty one. Everything will be constructed in the very best manner possible and in the very best style.

Mr. Hoge has, in the past, had quite a few and varied stock of the choicest, rare breeds of poultry, pheasants, etc., useful breeds of swine and